Thank you for your generosity!

From the desk of Fr. Sullivan

Dear Friends,

As the pastor of our beautiful Basilica, each week I write a bulletin letter for our faithful parishioners to read. In some small way, I hope it teaches, informs or maybe even inspires. On any number of occasions, I have joked wondering if anyone actually reads it! From time to time, I will hear a kind comment.

This week's bulletin letter will be somewhat different. Rather than writing to those who are always here at Mass, I would like to share a few thoughts with those who may be attending the Basilica on a less than frequent basis, perhaps today because of the beautiful solemnity of Christmas or maybe you are visiting family and friends in the area.

First of all, on behalf of my brother priests, I welcome you. Our doors are always open both literally and figuratively. There is not a parish in the entire Archdiocese of Hartford that has its doors open more than ours, literally from morning till night. More figuratively-speaking, you will find here at the Basilica a warm, welcoming community of parishioners who are humbly seeking a deeper relationship with Jesus Christ. The doors are open and we pray you find peace and warmth here.

In a world that seems more and more disconnected from spiritual realities, I regularly remind our parishioners and for that matter myself, that when we get the spiritual right, in the proper order, everything in life rises, everything gets better: family, relationships, work, school, desire etc. People who are intimately connected with God, the source of all love, become a changed person and a more profound realization of the meaning and purpose in life is revealed. When that happens, a deeper joy for living is discovered.

In the past several months, a new dedicated employee here at the Basilica, Mr. Dan Mathews has welcomed approximately 25 young adults into the RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults) program. We have also begun a young adult group for those 18-35 years old. Thus far, both groups have been enthusiastically received. We are also undergoing a major restoration in the church hall (basement) to include a much needed elevator, commercial kitchen, a food pantry, and several designated classroom areas. Our sandwich ministry and outreach to the needy through our Blessed McGivney Center for Renewal are thriving. Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament occurs 24 hours each day from Monday to Saturday morning. Baptism, weddings, religious education, and overall Mass attendance are on the rise. Our music ministry is second to none. The Lord is blessing us and we are most grateful.

We all know the pandemic has changed the face of society in so many ways. I believe that one area in our country that may soon thrive again is the spiritual. You are here today, and you are reading this now. I invite you to return next week. God will not be outdone in generosity. Consider giving to Christ perhaps for the first time or perhaps after a number of years of absence, the greatest gift, that of your time. Doing so is, as they say, a "game changer". It is much more, it is rather a life changer. Nothing comes close to the joy of Christian living. May the Good Lord bless you and your family this Christmas season and always. You are always welcome here.

Blessing,
Fr. Sullivan
