From the desk of Fr. Sullivan

Dear Friends,

It is now January 9th. If you had made a New year's resolution, is it still going strong? I was speaking to a friend a few days ago, who desired to make a major change in his life in 2022. His noble ambition quickly slipped on January 3rd. I encouraged him to get up and start again.

For those who attended one of the Christmas masses I celebrated, you may recall in my homily an idea that came to mind, namely to write a book in 2022. I don't believe I have the time to write the entire book myself, so I am extending the invitation to you in the event you are interested in writing a three to four page chapter. The book will be entitled "23.5 degrees Away from God" - with the subtitle, "Returning to the Light". 23.5 degrees is the maximum axis the earth is tilted away from the sun. It is the darkest time of the year. After December 21 (the day with the most darkness and least amount of light), the days begin to get longer and the earth's axis begins to shift back toward the light. In our spiritual lives and in our weakened human nature, we too often tilt away from God and sometimes even slouch toward darkness. True joy begins to be born in us when we turn to the light and leave behind whatever it is in our lives that pulls us into the darkness and subsequent gloom.

The book will have 52 chapters, one for each week of the year and ideally, from 52 different people, hopefully from our parishioners or at least the Waterbury area, who will write a brief story about their own faith journey. If you feel called to write your story, please email me at info@waterburybasilica.org and we can discuss in more detail.

Every goal achieved requires the noble virtue of diligence. Diligence is that gift by which a person is able to move towards a goal and to keep moving. It is the opposite of one of the seven deadly sins, slothfulness, which is a certain spiritual laziness. The second step never happens before the first and the third step never happens before the second. My goal to write a book in 2022 may be ambitious but if people step up to write a chapter, it is well within reach. Whether you make a New Year's resolution for 2022 or not, love deeper, sing louder, pray more intently and keep Jesus by your side. This is the best resolution of all and ultimately the only one that brings us great joy.

God bless to everyone,
Fr. Sullivan
