From the desk of Fr. Kelechi

My dear parishioners,

When I arrived here at the Basilica of the Immaculate Conception in October last year and saw a faith-filled people of God actively participating in the liturgies every day, I was emboldened. I remember mentioning on my first weekend that I heard more confessions than I had heard in the previous year. With that, I knew immediately that the faith here is on the path to a miraculous unfolding. Furthermore, seeing a mammoth crowd of young families and their adorable children would challenge any priest to give his best as all hope is not lost. I enjoyed my ministry here at the Basilica. Although far away from home, I felt at home while living here with my brother priests, coupled with the gracious words, and encouraging messages from you my parishioners that keep priests uplifted.

Now it is no longer news that I am departing Waterbury to take on a new ministry. We all agree that there is always uncertainty and anxiety that comes with venturing into a new environment and a new beginning. I, therefore, pray for your continued prayerful support that I will be a good steward and apostle to the good people that Jesus would put on my path in New Haven. I sincerely, thank our pastor Fr. Sullivan, Monsignor Bevins, Fr. Mariano, and Deacon Confesol for their brotherhood and support. I wholeheartedly thank the parish staff and rectory volunteers for your magnanimity, your kindness will never be forgotten.

Finally, - I welcome my brother Fr. Joshy as he starts his immersion journey here at the Basilica. I thank all of you for your immense love and prayers that propelled me to a successful ministry here at the Basilica of the Immaculate Conception. May God bless you all.

Fraternally yours,
Fr. Kelechi C. Anyanwu
