*"When you are invited by someone to a wedding banquet,
do not recline at table in the place of honor.
Rather, when you are invited, go and take the lowest place so that when the host comes to you he may say,
'My friend, move up to a higher position.'
Then you will enjoy the esteem of your companions at the table.
For every one who exalts himself will be humbled,
but the one who humbles himself will be exalted."*

From the desk of Fr. Sullivan

Dear friends,

I am very pleased to introduce to the parish our new deacon, Deacon Tony Caraluzzi. In the long history of the Basilica, we have had very few deacons assigned here, the reason being that in the past, there was for the most part a sufficient number of priests to serve the spiritual needs of the people. For a short period of time, Fr. Ford had a deacon and more recently Deacon Confesol Rodriguez. Deacon Confesol is assigned to Derby, however due to his love for the basilica (he and his wife, Janette belong to our parish), when time permits he has been able to help here.

Deacon Caraluzzi has been ordained eight years and will be formally assigned to the Basilica. He will share a little about his life and faith journey in the near future.

In the early church, deacons held very prominent roles, often being as an assistant to the pope, responsible for the treasury and high administrative positions. Around mid-fourth century, the office of diaconate waned and instead became part of the process toward ordination to the priesthood. Centuries passed and during World War II a small group of men in a concentration camp in Dachau, discussed the possibility, the need and the advantage of again establishing the role of the permanent diaconate. As part of the deliberations of Vatican II, it was decided to again establish the diaconate. There are currently approximately 15,000 deacons in the United States.

Deacons assist the church in so many ways: baptisms, weddings, spiritual direction, preaching, assisting at the altar, RCIA, to list just a few.

We welcome Deacon Caraluzzi and pray that here at the Basilica he has a rich and fruitful ministry.

God bless to all,
Fr. Sullivan
