1ST SUNDAY OF LENT

The devil said to him, "All this will be yours, if you worship me."
Jesus said to him in reply, "It is written:
You shall worship the Lord, your God,
and him alone shall you serve."
- Lk 4:6a, 7-8

MARCH 6th, 2022 | 1st SUNDAY OF LENT

MISSION STATEMENT:

We exist to be
a light to the world,
and we live out Christ's call on our lives
by worship and witness.

In prayer and sacrament
God enkindles our hearts
that we might bring
the fire of his love
to everyone we encounter.

PASTOR'S NOTE

"The fast of Lent has no advantage to us unless it brings about our spiritual renewal. It is necessary while fasting to change our whole life and practice virtue. Turning away from all wickedness means keeping our tongue in check, restraining our anger, avoiding all gossip, lying and swearing. To abstain from these things - herein lies the true value of the fast."

— St. John Chrysostom

Dear Saints,

I hope your Lent is off to a good start.

It's hard to figure out exactly why, but Lent always seems to be a particularly grace-filled time. Somehow, there's just a little more willpower to go around and a little more energy for the penances – big and small – that we take on.

If you haven't noticed that, try this: Pray about making progress toward the goals I outlined in my Lenten letter - 30 minutes of prayer, fasting every day except for Sundays and Solemnities, and giving a full tithing (10% of what you make) to the church - and commit to it for the next 40 days. Go a bit further than you have before, and see that God will provide.

Just one caveat: Whatever you do, do for God. Don't do it because you're tough and can handle more; don't do it to be bolder than someone else; don't do it so you can tell others about it; and don't do it because it benefits you in some other way. Do it, whatever it is, because you love and trust God. The reward will be beyond your imagining.

Be assured of my prayers for a fruitful 40 days!

Christ's Peace,

Father Daniel

LENTEN READ-A-THON

At OLMC School, we have seen that life-long learners are also life-long readers! Each year during Lent, we encourage students to supplement their Lenten sacrifices with enriching and entertaining literature. Many of our students are already voracious readers, but in past years the challenge and competition of our Lenten Read-a-Thon have ignited a passion for reading in even reluctant students. They share page counts and minutes read, trade book recommendations, and encourage each other as they vie for prizes. This year, parents can sign up too, and share their love of reading—and competitive spirit—with their children. It is also a great opportunity to share the wonderful things our students are doing with family, friends, and others who want to support the cause of Classical Catholic Education!

If you would like to make a donation in support of our Read-a-Thon, contact the school at school@olmcboonton.org or 973-334-2777.

Want to hear more about the OLMC commitment to classical education? Father Daniel and Mr. Minson were recently interviewed by Sean and Rachel Duffy for their podcast From the Kitchen Table. Scan the QR Code to listen to their fascinating conversation!

“We read books to find out who we are.

What other people, real or imaginary, do and think and feel... is an essential guide to our understanding of what we ourselves are and may become.”

SAINT OF THE WEEK

St. Catherine of Bologna (September 8, 1413 – March 9, 1463) came from an upper-class family in Ferrara, a city in Italy, and received an education at the court, where she learned reading, writing, singing and drawing. But despite her advantages, her heart yearned for God.

She joined a group of religious women in Ferrara at the age of 18. Four years later, that same group joined the Poor Clares, an order founded by St. Francis and St. Clare of Assisi. In 1456, she and 15 other sisters were sent to establish a Poor Clare monastery in Florence.

As abbess, St. Catherine of Bologna worked to establish the new community and maintain a semblance of peace throughout. She was a model of piety and reported experiencing miracles and several visions of Christ, and the Virgin Mary.

In 1463, St. Catherine of Bologna became seriously ill, and she passed away. She was buried without a coffin and her body was exhumed 18 days later because of many cures attributed to her at her graveside and the sweet scent coming from her grave. Her body was discovered incorrupt (meaning it was not decaying) and remains so today.
