PASTOR'S NOTE

Dear Saints,

What we see in Jesus' resurrection is the birth of new creation. "The power that has tyrannized the old creation," offers my friend, NT Wright, "has been broken, defeated, overthrown. God's kingdom is now launched, and launched in power and glory, on earth as in heaven."

Power and glory, indeed!

The old creation, marred by the corrupting power of sin and death, lives by pride and retribution. But now, Jesus has opened up a new world, and made possible a new way to live (a way that was always intended by our creator God in whose image and likeness we are made): a way of love and reconciliation, a way of mercy, healing, and hope.

Love has defeated death, and is now on the march to renew the face of the earth.

We find our place in God's plan (in his new-creation/renew-the-face-of-the-earth project) by trusting and following Jesus. Especially in these challenging times, we make Jesus' way of life our own when we - through him, and with him, and in him - live the way of self-giving love all the way through and all the way to the end!

Jesus is risen, my friends. He is the Lord of our lives. Let us trustingly follow him to fullness of life - fullness of love - today!

In the Peace of the Risen Christ,

Father Daniel

CANON FOR EASTER DAY ODE V

by Saint John Damascene

(translated by J.M. Neale)

ὀρθρίσωμεν ὄρθρου βαθέος

Let us rise in early morning,
And, instead of ointments, bring
Hymns of praises to our Master,
And His Resurrection sing:
We shall see the Sun of Justice
Risen with healing on His wing.

Thy unbounded loving-kindness,
They that groaned in Hades' chain,
Prisoners, from afar beholding,
Hasten to the light again
And to that eternal Pascha Wove the dance and raised the strain.

Go ye forth, His Saints, to meet Him!

Go with lamps in every hand!
From the sepulchre He riseth:
Ready for the Bridegroom stand:
And the Pascha of salvation
Hail, with His triumphant band.

vas. Art Institute of Chicago.

HOPE GETS A NEW ADVOCATE

Congratulations to Father Daniel, pastor of Our Lady of Mount Carmel parish and chaplain of OLMC School and Lumen Gentium Academy, for being named to the Honorary Advisory Board for Hope Through Education.

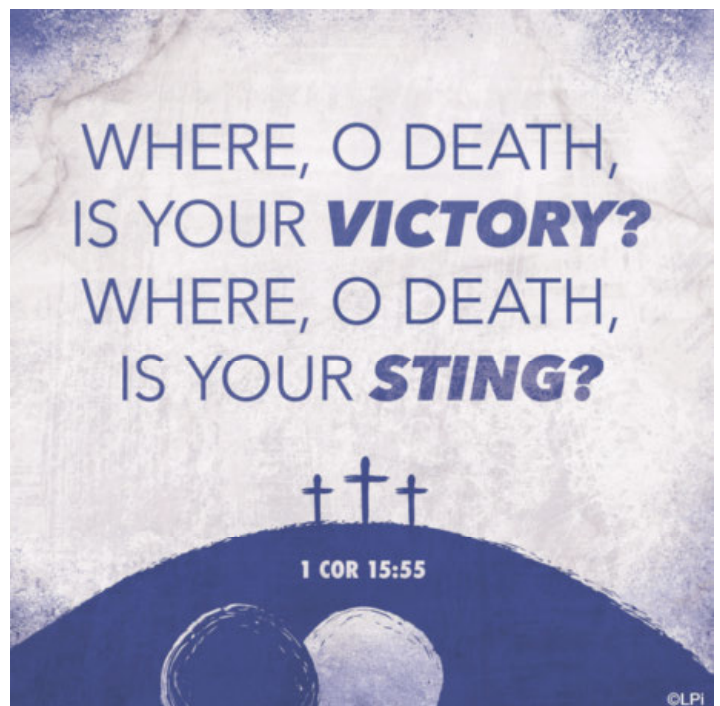

Hope Through Education is a not-for-profit organization that provides economically disadvantaged children scholarships to attend high quality, values-based K-12 schools. It is the only non-sectarian organization that administers tuition assistance to children in the poorest neighborhoods of central New Jersey.

We at OLMC and LGA have long been privileged with Father Daniel’s insight, wisdom, and vision for an education that shepherds children into their full flourishing. Students and teachers alike count his steadfast devotion among their greatest blessings, while families tell story after story of the positive impact he has made on their lives as pastor of the parish and chaplain of the schools.

It is our great delight, therefore, that he would become an advisor to an institution whose mission is “to help thousands of underprivileged students reach their full potential through the gift of a great education.” The children served by Hope Through Education will undoubtedly benefit from his involvement and advocacy. Even as we cherish his continued leadership of OLMC and LGA, we’re thrilled that he would share his expertise with those in need beyond our community, and we warmly wish Hope Through Education the very best in its truly worthy mission.
