PASTOR'S NOTE

Dear Saints,

In this weekend's Gospel, Jesus confronts us with the simplest, clearest, and hardest commandment ever offered: Love one another.

This is the mandatum novum, the new mandate, command, or law.

Saint Augustine once offered that the command is new because it renews the one who obeys it. "When we love as he loved us," he writes, "we become new men, heirs of the new covenant and singers of the new song." I'd offer, further, that the newness of the command is a matter of the mode of this love, the depth and type of this love. We are to love one another in the same way that Jesus has loved us.

What we see in Jesus is simply pure self-gift. That shouldn't surprise us, as God is an eternal exchange of outpouring, glorifying love, and in Jesus this love takes flesh for God's glory and the good of the world.

We can only reflect this love, which we come to know most truly and fully in and as Christ Jesus, by sharing in God's own blessed life. Our Confirmation Mass this Friday reminded me of how determined God is to sustain us in his service with his own life of love, his own Spirit, and how eager we must be in response to make that love flesh for each other and for a waiting world. Please join me in prayer for those who are newly confirmed in the Faith, who are now fully equipped for the task!

In the Peace of our Risen Lord,

Father Daniel

EDUCATING MIND, BODY, AND SOUL

Athletics are an integral part of our commitment to educating the whole student —mind, body, and soul. In addition to physical education during the school day, there are a growing number of extracurricular opportunities at OLMC School. We are encouraged by the role our students have played in getting new initiatives off the ground—such as baseball and ballet—and by the yearly commitment to our ongoing sports teams. Both are signs of our students’ understanding that athletic activities and sports are not simply ‘fun and games’! Through participation in sports, they are challenged to grow in appreciation for their own strengths and weaknesses, while cultivating respect for their teammates and rivals. They learn perseverance as they see the fruits of their dedication to practice and improvement. And most importantly, they are able to enjoy sport in its proper place and with its proper end: as a triumph of the human body and spirit, a celebration of God’s gifts, and a moment—win or lose—to give Him all the glory.

NOVENA TO OUR LADY OF POCHAEV

Repeat the following Novena prayers every day for 9 consecutive days.

Say 3 Our Father...
Say 3 Hail Mary...
Say 3 Glory Be...

Rejoice, O Glory of the universe.
Rejoice, O Temple of the Lord.
Rejoice, O Mountain overshadowed by the Holy Ghost.
Rejoice, O Refuge of all.
Rejoice, O Golden Candelabrum.
Rejoice, O Honorable Glory of all Christians.
Rejoice, O Mary, Mother of Christ God.
Rejoice, O Paradise.
Rejoice, O Divine Altar.
Rejoice, O Cloud.
Rejoice, O Golden Urn.
Rejoice, O Hope of All.

All Holy, most blessed and glorious Mary,
Mother of God and our Mother!
We come to you today.

We turn ourselves to you and petition you.
Hear us! We believe and acknowledge that you are the wondrous Guardian of all persecuted and unfortunate.
That is why we place our hope in you.

More than once have you showed us your kindness.
Please show us once again.

Open the most sweetest Heart of your Son and our God.

Intercede for forgiveness of our sins.
Help us in spiritual and material needs, and,
for the families who so graciously welcome your icon,
give them your graces.

Mother most good, cover our Church
and our Ukrainian people with your mantle.
Help our brothers in Ukraine in their suffering.
Give them strength in their fight
with their atheist enemies,
be consoling and unfailingly firm
in their harassment and shield them in their misery.

Be for them and us an all-merciful guardian and let us praise you openly and freely
together with them, Oh Virgin, among all virgins, and your Son, our God, Jesus.

Let there be glory, honor and adoration
now, always, and forever.

Amen.

Our Lady of Pochaev,
Pray for us.
