SUNDAY'S READINGS

FIRST READING

Then will the eyes of the blind be opened,
the ears of the deaf be cleared;
then will the lame leap like a stag,
then the tongue of the mute will sing. (Is 35:5-6)

PSALM

Praise the Lord, my soul! (Ps 146)
Or Alleluia.

SECOND READING

Did not God choose those who are poor in the world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom
that he promised to those who love him?

GOSPEL

"He has done all things well.
He makes the deaf hear and the mute speak."
(Mk 7:37)

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD. The English translation of Psalm Responses from Lectionary for Mass ©1969, 1981, 1997, International Commission on English in the Liturgy Corporation. All rights reserved. ©LPI

Please pray for the soul of Joseph "Frank" Thibault, whose funeral Mass was celebrated August 28th.

May God grant him eternal rest and may our prayers and support comfort his family.

Mia Banahan was welcomed into the Roman Catholic Church and our Parish Family on August 29th through the waters of Baptism.

Let us strive, by our word and example, to create an environment for her to come to know the love of God and the meaning of "being church."

If you would like to make arrangements for a baptism, please contact Sally in the parish office at 432-3333 or email sgreen@stjudenh.com.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

From the time we are born into this world until we die, our human radar picks up signals about how to respond to life. What we picked up on when we were very young carries an even greater power. The messages we receive and process tell us what we are "supposed" to do with our feelings, how to understand and cope with disappointment, anxiety, failure, death, illness, and what to expect out of life. As life unfolds for us, these radar messages kick in and resonate in us at very deep levels. Sometimes what we have learned is helpful and sometimes it is not. The stories we have been told, especially when we are young, about how life is best lived and how to negotiate its pain carry a heavy weight.

Life can be challenging and frightening. Sometimes, it really hurts to be a human being. It also can be quite unpredictable and, at times, unfair. We face our vulnerability and brokenness of all kinds: physical, emotional, and spiritual. It doesn't take much for life to quickly fall apart. What we knew to be familiar and true is gone and something we relied upon, physically, emotionally, or spiritually, can be taken away. It is hard to confront our limitations and sit with our incompleteness. Often, life hurts us so much that we find ourselves sitting in a pool of sadness, not sure what we are supposed to do. It is particularly hard when the signals we have inherited tell us that we need to be successful in what we do, and we have to avoid life's unfairness. We can feel like a failure, wondering what precisely we did to deserve this fate, or ruminate about what we did not do correctly. But it's really not about us. We are part of a bigger picture and a much more fascinating story!

If we cease doing battle with life's incompleteness and see ourselves, as God does, on a journey toward wholeness and completeness we can better accept our disappointments and stand firm. The prophets told us, and Jesus reassured us: Be strong! Fear not! Sometimes we have to update our stories and replace them with newer, more accurate ones. When we make God's story our own and tune our radar into His voice, what we hear is all about restoration, healing, and rejuvenation! This is true even when we think we have hit rock bottom and can go no further. There is always hope. Remember the words of Julian of Norwich: God made us, God loves us, and God keeps us. Now, listen to God when He says, "be opened!" Be healed and allow your stories to change. ©LPi

"THIRSTING FOR GOD?"

Do you know someone not baptized? ...or baptized in a non-Catholic Christian tradition, who is thirsting to know what it means to become Catholic? Do you know someone already Catholic but who has not yet received Confirmation and/or Communion who feels they are being called to do so now? The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is a place to ask questions and seek understanding.

St. Jude Parish will be hosting a Night of Inquiry on Sunday, September 12th at 6:30PM for anyone interested in learning more about the Catholic Faith. We invite you to join Fr. Bob Gorski and the RCIA Team for an evening of questions and answers.

For more information, please contact Mary Carrigan at 603-722-5586 or Diane Swinarski at 603-425-1795 / dswinarski@stjudenh.com. You may also contact Fr. Bob Gorski at 603-768-1936 / rgorski@stjudenh.com.

THE CELEBRATION OF BAPTISM

As our community life here at St. Jude continues to "re-open" we are looking ahead to the celebration of the Baptisms of children in the parish.

Beginning in August, Baptisms will be celebrated by Deacon Jay Cormier on the first Sunday of the month at 11:30AM. A Baptism catechesis "prep" session for parents (required) will take place on the previous Wednesday at 7:00PM (for the time being, these sessions, about 75 minutes, will take place on Zoom).

The schedule of Baptism liturgies for the fall of 2021:

Baptism Liturgy	Parents' Catechetical Session
(Sunday at 11:30AM)	(Wednesday at 7:00PM via ZOOM)
September 12*	September 8
October 3	September 29
November 7	November 3
December 5	December 1
January 9 (2022)	January 5 (2022)

postponed to the following Sunday because of the Labor Day holiday.*

Families may also choose to celebrate their child's Baptism at any Sunday Mass. Baptisms are not celebrated during the season of Lent (unless there are extenuating circumstances).

Parents wishing to arrange for their child's baptism should contact Sally Green in the parish office. The protocols for Baptisms, including parish membership, the selection of godparents, etc., will be found on the parish website or are available from the parish office.

EPHESIANS: Discover Your Inheritance
This online study starts Sept. 20th, from 6:45 - 8:15PM

One of the most remarkable things about our Faith is that by God's grace, we have become his adopted sons and daughters. In your day-to-day life, what does it mean to be a son or daughter of God—an heir to his promises and blessings? When you sit in the pews each Sunday, what does it mean to you to be part of his family, the Church? Participants will meet online to view an engaging video presentation followed by a time of lively group discussion and fellowship.

INVITE A FRIEND TO JOIN WITH YOU!

To purchase your EPHESIANS study set, go to AscensionPress.com. After you have done so, contact dswinarski@stjudenh.com to let her know. You will receive a Zoom link from Diane a few days before the class begins.

Thursday Morning
Online Bible Study Group
GALATIANS: Set Free to Live
Starts September 9th, 9:00-10:30AM
Facilitator: Bob Simpson

Paul's letter to the Galatians speaks directly to the heart of Christians and addresses the most important question we can ask: "What must we do to be saved?" It speaks of the extraordinary gift of salvation that Jesus has won for us, and how we can unite ourselves to Christ's redeeming sacrifice. In Galatians, we learn what it means to have this filial relationship with God the Father, how he honors us as his children, and how we must honor him as our loving Father.

Participants in this eight part series will meet weekly to view an engaging video presentation followed by a time of lively group discussion and fellowship. Note: To purchase your Galatians study set, go to AscensionPress.com. After you have done so, contact dswinarski@stjudenh.com to let her know you will be in this class. You will receive a Zoom link from Diane a few days before the class begins.

JAMES: Pearls for Wise Living
Young Adult Study (18-35 years old) meeting onsite
Starts September 9th, 6:45-8:15PM

James is one of the most practical books of the Bible. Its teachings speak loudly to those who feel torn between the competing demands of this world and their faith.

This study offers "pearls for wise living" by applying the wisdom of James to our current day. For anyone who has struggled to live a truly Christian life, James offers a wealth of practical solutions for handling and even sanctifying everyday circumstances.

St. Jude Parish will begin an eleven-week Bible study James: Pearls for Wise Living on September 9th at 6:45PM. Participants will meet every week to view an engaging video presentation followed by a time of lively group discussion and fellowship.

NOTE: To purchase your JAMES* or REVELATION study set, go to AscensionPress.com. After you have done so, contact dswinarski@stjudenh.com to let her know you will be in this class. You will receive a Zoom link from Diane a few days before the class begins.

Also starting in September…

REVELATION: The Kingdom Yet to Come
Starts September 14th, 6:45-8:15PM
Facilitator: Diane Swinarski

Perhaps no book in the Bible fascinates people more than Revelation. Yet relatively few people have studied the book, especially from a Catholic perspective. Revelation: The Kingdom Yet to Come is an intriguing Bible study that shows how the kingdom established by Christ in this Church is intimately connected with the kingdom of heaven.

In this intriguing look at one of the most talked-about books in Scripture, Jeff Cavins explores Revelation to demonstrate how the kingdom established by Christ in his Church is intimately connected with the kingdom of heaven, especially through the celebration of the Mass. You will learn what all the mysterious figures and images of Revelation present, as well as what will happen during the Second Coming of Christ, what has already happened, and what is happening now in salvation history.

We look forward to welcoming all of our students when classes begin on Sunday, September 12th.!

Parents are asked to help their youth learn these prayers in preparation for life ...and in preparation for Faith Formation!

The Sign of the Cross
In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen

The Our Father/Lord's Prayer
Our Father who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name;
Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done
On earth, as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses,
As we forgive those who trespass against us:
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. Amen

The Hail Mary
Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with you.
Blessed art thou among women
and blessed is the fruit of your womb,
Jesus. Holy Mary, Mother of God,
pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death. Amen
