GOSPEL MEDITATION

When we see God with true sincerity of heart and God passes us along our way, it is only then that we will be able to cry out, "Jesus, son of David, have pity on me!" We have to truly want to be healed by, and in union with, God in order for us to reach out to him. If God is only an abstract idea, theory, or someone found in the pages of a book, there is no motivation for a relationship and no desire to seek him. God needs to be real in order for faith to be real. It's all about the journey.

St. Augustine reminds us that "to fall in love with God is the greatest romance; to seek Him the greatest adventure; to find Him the greatest human achievement." We strive after many things and mercy is not always one of them. We think that we can find fulfillment and healing in other things only to discover that we are still short and empty. From the moment human beings were created, God has been calling us and seeking us. He has been walking right beside the human story from the minute He first breathed life into the first human soul. Are we able to recognize God as He walks with us? At some point we have to realize that there is only one way to satisfy the deepest longings of the human heart and that is in relationship with our Creator. We are called to this. However, we make the huge error of thinking that what we are hearing is coming from somewhere else. We become confused. Every human being would certainly profit with wisdom if they realized Who calls them and to Whom they belong.

Then and only then will we realize that it is only our Divine Master who can give us true vision and heal us. Once we recognize and reach out for the merciful presence of our loving Maker, we will be able to see with our soul, understanding the true nature and depth of all things. God's mercy is always available. It doesn't matter how far we have strayed or how blind we become, God patiently waits to console us, guide us and heal us. All we need to do is desire Him. Once we reach out, we also realize that there is no greater love to be found than God's, no human adventure that comes even close to the thrill of a spiritual search, and no human achievement even remotely as satisfying as union with Him. This is where we belong. This is salvation. ©LPI

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

World Mission Sunday, our annual worldwide Eucharistic celebration for the Missions and missionaries of the world, will be celebrated this weekend. We will have a special collection to provide for the building up of over one thousand churches in Asia, Africa, the Pacific Islands, parts of Latin America and Europe. Through the work of these churches, and their witness to Christ, the poor receive practical help and experience God's love, mercy, hope, and peace.

OUR TRADITION FOR THE MONTH OF NOVEMBER

We encourage parishioners to bring pictures of deceased loved ones to Church next month and place them on the window sills around the interior of the Church. This will be one of the ways in which we will honor and pray for the dead throughout the month of November. The pictures will remain in the Church for the month as a reminder to us that we are all part of the Communion of Saints, both here on earth and in the heavenly kingdom. You may take the pictures home with you just before the season of Advent begins.

ACT OF CONTRITION

My God, I am sorry for my sins with all my heart.

In choosing to do wrong and failing to do good,
I have sinned against you whom I should love above all things.

I firmly intend, with your help, to do penance, to sin no more,
and to avoid whatever leads me to sin.

Our Savior Jesus Christ suffered and died for us.

In his name, my God, have mercy.

AMAZING GRACE

When did you hear that sweet sound?

Parable magazine invites NH Catholics to share moments when you especially became aware of God's grace at work in your life. It could be at the birth of a child. Perhaps it helped you through a moment of great trial, struggle or confusion. Maybe you felt this free and unmerited help from God in the ordinary moments of the day.

Visit <https://form.jotform.com/RCBM/grace> to share your story with us. Parable will contact you if your story is selected for publication in the Jan/Feb 2022 issue.

Submissions are due October 25th. Thank you!
