Merry Christmas!

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Merry Christmas everyone! During this season we will be joining Christians from all around the world celebrating Hope, Peace, Love and Joy; I pray that each one of these will fill your life in every way this Christmas and throughout the coming New Year. The past year has been a difficult one for us, for our family and friends and the entire world. We tend to only think of ourselves during this pandemic forgetting to remember that the entire world is suffering through this evil virus. May this Christmas Season remind us that Immanuel, God with Us, was made flesh to walk with us and support us through trials such as this. Without Christ, we would be lost and floundering; with Christ we can conquer anything, even Covid-19 in all its variants. Through God's presence working within us we can be healed, transformed, reconciled, and made whole. Let us embrace God made flesh this Christmas and through Christ transform a broken world into a new earth where all will live in peace.

Fr. Bob Gorski

THIRSTING FOR GOD?

Do you know someone who is not baptized? ...or baptized in a non-Catholic Christian tradition, who is thirsting to know what it means to become Catholic? Do you know someone already Catholic but who has not yet received Confirmation and/or Communion who feels they are being called to do so now? The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is a place to ask questions and seek understanding.

For more information, please contact Mary Carrigan at 603-722-5586 or Diane Swinarski at 603-425-1795 / dswinarski@stjudenh.com.

EARLIER BULLETIN DEADLINE

To submit information for the Jan. 9th bulletin, please email kmckenny@stjudenh.com by December 30th.

THE NATIVITY OF THE LORD GOSPEL MEDITATION

“He so loved us that for our sake He was made man in time, through Whom all times were made; was in the world less in years than His servants, though older than the world itself in His eternity; was made man, Who made man; was created of a mother, whom He created; was carried by hands which He formed; nursed at the breasts which He had filled; cried in the manger in wordless infancy, He the Word without Whom all human eloquence is mute (St. Augustine, Sermon 188).” The miracle of what happens at Christmas is truly an awesome mystery. Revealed in the silent ordinariness of life is God’s intimate love for humanity and all that he made. The Word, existing for all time, comes and dwells among us. God kisses us. We can seek and soar with playful delight as a joy never known before fills our heart.

Joy is best expressed through dance. There is just something truly wonderful about the self-abandon a beautiful melodic dance reveals. If we are able to let go and really be free, it celebrates life in a way few other experiences really can. With the birth of Jesus Christ, God takes the Divine Dance to a deeper and more tangible level. We can now not only see what we believe but believe what we see! This most perfect dance is a call to beauty, innocence, truth, purpose, hope, faith, and love. Today we know, beyond doubt, that we are a necessary part of God’s beautifully choreographed masterpiece of life and not just a random happening without real intent or purpose. We are loved, treasured, and blessed.

Accepting the truth of God’s birth in time we also accept an invitation to dance with God. We can let go of what tethers us to anxious concerns and superficial securities. Throw caution to the wind and go with God. We have been blessed with talents, gifts, and life eternal. Follow the rhythm of the dance with joy and listen to what the Word who became flesh tells us about what the next steps can be.

Today, heaven remains the same, but earth has been profoundly changed.
