2nd SUNDAY OF LENT

While he was still speaking, a cloud came and cast a shadow over them, and they became frightened when they entered the cloud. Then from the cloud came a voice that said, "This is my chosen Son; listen to him." - Lk 9:34-35

SUNDAY'S READINGS

FIRST READING

It was on that occasion that the Lord made a covenant with Abram, saying: "To your descendants I give the land, from the Wadi of Egypt to the Great River, the Euphrates." (Gn 15:18)

PSALM

The Lord is my light and my salvation. (Ps 27)

SECOND READING

He will change our lowly body to conform with his glorified body by the power that enables him also to bring all things into subjection to himself. (Phil 3:21)

GOSPEL

Jesus took Peter, John, and James and went up the mountain to pray. While he was praying his face changed in appearance and his clothing became dazzling white. (Lk 9:28b-29)

GOSPEL MEDITATION

There is so much wisdom in the first commandment. The daily demands of life, current political ideologies and dynamics, social expectations, corporate philosophies, and even technology can easily become lesser gods. We can find ourselves beholden to and held captive by these secular constructs and systems. Even for those who profess a faith in the one true God, these lesser, attractive but false gods are a temptation. Being overly preoccupied and even obsessed with the state of our present lives, we lose sight of our real destiny and purpose.

Jesus showed his disciples a glimpse of this destiny when he was transfigured before their eyes. In fact, Peter was so caught up in the brilliance, awe, and sacredness of these fleeting moments that he wanted to extend them as long as possible. Wonderful things happen when we leave our illusions and discover something that is true. This is why creating some sacred space in our lives for reflection, prayer, renewal, refreshment, centering ourselves, and disconnecting from the noise is so important. It shows us how false and shallow our lives can be and what is really of importance. Do you create some kind of sacred space in your life? Lent is a perfect time to do so.

St. Irenaeus, one of the early fathers and martyrs of the Catholic Church, said that, "he who was the Son of God became the Son of Man that man ... might become the son of God." We mistakenly believe that life is all about us. It's not. Ours is a journey of transformation in which we become more and more one with the mind of Christ and Christ himself. St. Augustine saw this same transformation occurring when the Eucharist is received. In receiving the Eucharist, we become what we eat, the Body of Christ. Honestly acknowledging false gods that we cling to can open the door for God to show us the wholeness and holiness to which we are called. Take time to discover the sacred. When we do, we will want to stay there for a while. When we return to our personal affairs, we will see more clearly. ©LPI

St. Jude Parish offers a variety of opportunities for adults to continue faith formation through bible studies, courses, and a monthly book group. Due to Covid, many of our classes offer hybrid options and take place in person as well as simultaneously through Zoom. Please consider joining us!

Chosen Part II - Online study started on Thursday, March 3rd and continues on Thursday mornings from 9:00AM-10:30AM. It's not too late to join us! The cost of study guides is $18.00 (includes S & H). Call Diane to get your copy.

For more information about Adult Faith Formation, contact Diane at 603-425-1795 or email dswinarski@stjudenh.com.

We are blessed to have a young woman going through the RCIA experience this year.

As we draw closer to Easter, we ask that you remember our catechumen, Leanne, in your prayers. She will be received into the church by receiving the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and First Eucharist at the Easter Vigil this year. Leanne has been meeting with the RCIA team on a weekly basis since last fall and is looking forward to becoming a part of our family here at St. Jude Parish. Please pray for her as she continues this journey through Easter and Mystagogy.

Leanne's picture and information will be at the front entrance along with a small basket where you can leave encouraging thoughts, welcoming notes, and cards or prayers for her.

BOOK CLUB NEWS

Our next meeting will be on Wednesday, March 30th at 6:00PM via Zoom.

The next book selection is:

The Stranger in the Lifeboat, by Mitch Albom

Synopsis of the book: What would happen if we called on God for help and God actually appeared? In Mitch Albom's profound new novel of hope and faith, a group of shipwrecked passengers pull a strange man from the sea. He claims to be "the Lord". And...he says he can only save them if they all believe in him.

Contact dswinarski@stjudenh.com to confirm you will be joining in on the discussion via Zoom.

BEGINNING THIS WEEK ...

Starting March 14th, we invite you to join us on Monday evenings, in Diane's office or via Zoom, as we look at several short studies by Dr. Brant Pitre:

The Mass will be held on Sunday, May 1, 2022 at 2:00PM at St. Joseph Cathedral, Manchester. To register, please contact the parish office by April 8, 2022.

WALK WITH JESUS

The diocesan theme for Lent 2022 is Walk with Jesus. The Psalms of Ash Wednesday and each Sunday serve as the signposts that guide us on our Lenten walk. The Psalms will be prayed in English and Spanish by a different person each week and posted on the diocesan website. The visuals and music will be suited to the images and mood of each psalm. The psalm will also be available in an audio format only. Both formats will be available for daily prayer and reflection throughout Lent.

Reflection questions and suggested Acts of Mercy will accompany each Psalm. We know that as we Walk with Jesus our prayer and fasting in His company will transform us and recreate us in His image. We invite you to visit www.catholicnh.org/walk-with-jesus.
