GOSPEL MEDITATION

God's love story reveals itself in our stories, experiences, and aspirations. We are all prodigal sons and daughters. There are many times in our lives when we would "sell our souls" in order to pursue our passions. We pursued what we wanted without regard for others or God. We have sowed our oats, thrown ourselves into careless pleasures, spent what we know we ought to have saved, turned our backs on those we love and abused gifts we have been given. We even hit bottom and realized the silliness and self-destruction of it all. We needed to come home. We knew we erred and needed a gentle presence to show us God's unconditional love. This wayward journey home changed us.

As much as we need to be welcomed, we are also the one who needs to do the welcoming and mercy giving. Those we love need our guidance, but they don't always take it. We know that what they are doing is off the mark, self-destructive and wrong. We have to let them go and let it happen, even though they might get hurt. As we wait and hope, they choose to make their way back to us. They don't need us to judge them. They have done enough of that to themselves. We immediately embrace them and are just happy they're home. God uses us to help heal them. Knowing how much we craved understanding and forgiveness ourselves, we can now freely give it away. God uses what he has taught us to teach others.

We are also the entitled ones. At least we "think" we are entitled. After all, we work hard for what we have. We cannot get our heads around the idea that someone can get something that I really deserve! If I do what I'm supposed to do, I ought to be rewarded for that, right? If I do something wrong, I ought to pay the consequences. This is justice, isn't it? This is not God's justice. God is all about love, mercy, compassion, and forgiveness. God's justice is love freely given without merit. We carry the stories of the prodigal son, the unconditional forgiving father, and the entitled angry brother with us. When we make friends with all three, humbly telling those stories to others makes us Christ's ambassadors. ©LPI

DON'T MISS BOOK CLUB THIS WEEK!!!

Our next meeting will be on Wednesday, March 30th at 6:00PM via Zoom. We'll be discussing The Stranger in the Lifeboat, by Mitch Albom

Synopsis of the book: What would happen if we called on God for help and God actually appeared? In Mitch Albom's profound new novel of hope and faith, a group of shipwrecked passengers pull a strange man from the sea. He claims to be "the Lord". And...he says he can only save them if they all believe in him.

Contact dswinarski@stjudenh.com to confirm you will be joining in on the discussion via Zoom.

We are blessed to have a young woman going through the RCIA experience this year.

As we draw closer to Easter, we ask that you remember our catechumen, Leanne, in your prayers. She will be received into the church by receiving the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and First Eucharist at the Easter Vigil this year. Leanne has been meeting with the RCIA team on a weekly basis since last fall and is looking forward to becoming a part of our family here at St. Jude Parish. Please pray for her as she continues this journey through Easter and Mystagogy.

Leanne's picture and information will be at the back of the church along with a small basket where you can leave encouraging thoughts, welcoming notes, and cards or prayers for her.
