filled with joy. (Ps 126)

the first to throw a stone at her." (Jn 8:7)

Please pray for the soul of Marilyn J. Marasca whose funeral Mass was celebrated on Friday,
March 25th.

May God grant Marilyn eternal rest and may our prayers and support comfort her family.

EVENING PRAYER DURING THE EASTER SEASON

Beginning on April 18th and continuing through May 23rd, Evening Prayer will be held on Monday evenings at 6:30PM.

Please note, there is no Evening Prayer on Monday, May 16th.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

We love to make examples out of those who have erred and done wrong. Publicly punishing others serves as a means of demonstrating the consequences for what is deemed inappropriate or wrongful behavior. While this may appear an effective way of achieving conformity to established rules, it runs the real risk of distorting motivation. Obviously, we want people to do what is right and pursue healthy, virtuous behaviors and ideals. But is fear of punishment ever the best motivation for avoiding one action in favor of another?

Doing something out of fear is never healthy. Focusing exclusively on our behavior and what others expect or think, leads to living life with a self-focused superficiality. We become more concerned about protecting ourselves from something negative and unpleasant, than investing ourselves in the freedom, wonder and awe of being human! We can still find our way to the unacceptable or inappropriate behavior as long as we do not get caught! Being a whole, focused, God-centered human being requires more. It demands an investment of the heart. Virtuous, moral, and mature lifestyles reflective of the Gospel necessitate love.

When we experience and recognize love, God's unconditional love, in the depth of our soul, we fall in love with what we have found. We then find ourselves leaving destructive and sinful actions behind in search of something more holy, dignified, true, integral, and loving. This is really "mercy realized." God's tremendous, loving, eternal forgiveness and willingness to bring us back to something more real and tender is transformational. The respect for myself that I receive from God is so life changing that it causes me to run quickly away from anything sinful and self-destructive to things that are whole and holy.

There are people who want nothing more than to judge or criticize us. What would actually stoning the woman caught in adultery really accomplish? Nothing more than the inflation of the already self-righteous egos of a few men who think they have power. They have no power because they are sinners too, just like everyone else. What all of us have is the humble ability to express sorrow for pursuing destructive thoughts and actions and receive the power of God's mercy. Then, Jesus' request to "go and sin no more" will be one we proudly heed and follow. ©LPI

As we draw closer to Easter, we ask that you remember our catechumen, Leanne, in your prayers. She will be received into the church by receiving the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and First Eucharist at the Easter Vigil this year. Leanne has been meeting with the RCIA team on a weekly basis since last fall and is looking forward to becoming a part of our family here at St. Jude Parish. Please pray for her as she continues this journey through Easter and Mystagogy.

Leanne's picture and information will be at the back of the church along with a small basket where you can leave encouraging thoughts, welcoming notes, and cards or prayers for her.

JOIN US FOR MORNING PRAYER

GOOD FRIDAY AND HOLY SATURDAY AT 8:30AM

This year we have added two liturgies to our Holy Week schedule.

Morning Prayer from the Liturgy of the Hours will be celebrated on Good Friday and Holy Saturday at 8:30AM. Morning Prayer, or "Lauds" as it traditionally is called in the Divine Office, is a 30-minute service of psalms, readings and prayers designed to be prayed at daybreak. During the Easter Triduum, Lauds places special emphasis on God's love revealed in Jesus' death and burial. The Morning Prayer liturgy is similar in structure to Evening Prayer that we have been celebrating at Saint Jude's on Monday nights during Lent but has its own unique elements in keeping with the solemnity of the Triduum.

We invite the parish community to join us on Good Friday, April 15th, and Holy Saturday, April 16th at 8:30AM. We hope these morning gatherings to pray the prayer of the Church will enable us to enter more fully into the mystery and spirit of the Easter Triduum.

Biblical Brainteaser

There are names of sixteen books of the Bible mentioned in the paragraph below. See how many you can find:

I once made a remark about the hidden books of the Bible. It was a lulu; kept people looking so hard for facts... and for others it was a revelation. Some were in a jam, especially since the names of the books were not capitalized. But the truth finally struck home to numbers of our readers. To others it was a real job. We want it to be a most fascinating few moments for you. Yes, there will be some really easy ones to spot. Others may require judges to help them. I will quickly admit it usually takes a minister to find one of them, and there will be loud lamentations when it is found. A little lady says she brews a cup of tea so she can concentrate better. See how well you can compete. Rest assured, for there really are sixteen names of books of the Bible in this paragraph. (See answers below.)

CMC SCHOLARSHIP

The CMC Heart & Hands Scholarship is presented to two students entering grades 7-12 at a diocesan Catholic school in New Hampshire who have made a significant contribution or impact in their community. The online application system opened March 1, 2022 and completed materials must be submitted online by 11:59PM on May 1, 2022. Scholarship winners will be announced at each school's spring (awards) banquet/assembly.

To learn more about the eligibility requirements and to apply, please visit www.catholicnh.org/scholarships.

MILITARY MINISTRY

St. Jude Church parishioners have members of their families serving in various branches of the military. We appreciate and are grateful for their service and have started a ministry to reach out to them. If you have family members you would like included in this ministry, forms are available outside the Youth Ministry / Faith Formation office. For information, please contact Trish at twoodward@stjudenh.com or Kathy at kmckenney@stjudenh.com.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS DIAPER DRIVE

During Lent, the Knights of Columbus are collecting diapers for Birthright of Manchester. Diaper sizes 3 to 6 are greatly appreciated. Please place donations in the portable crib at the side entrance hallway.

Birthright of Manchester understands the challenges related to unplanned pregnancies and offers love, friendship, and support to women who are pregnant or think they may be pregnant.

Thank you for your generosity.
