SUNDAY'S READINGS

FIRST READING

Yet more than ever, believers in the Lord, great numbers of men and women, were added to them. (Acts 5:14)

PSALM

Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, his love is everlasting. (Ps 118)
Or Alleluia.

SECOND READING

"I am the first and the last, the one who lives. Once I was dead, but now I am alive forever and ever." (Rev 1:17-18)

GOSPEL

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst. (Jn 20:19)

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD. The English translation of Psalm Responses from Lectionary for Mass ©1969, 1981, 1997, International Commission on English in the Liturgy Corporation. All rights reserved. ©LPI

Please join us in congratulating Deacon Marc on the twentieth anniversary of his ordination. Deacon Marc celebrates his 20 year anniversary of ordination as a Deacon on April 27, 2022.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Even Thomas struggles to remove his boulder! Being very pragmatic and determined, he wants to see the risen Christ for himself! Thomas's boulder is heavy with mistrust. Many of ours are too. A certain amount of skepticism is good, as it can save us from being duped or misled. But we can become so skeptical of things that it erodes our ability to trust anything we see or hear. Skepticism can actually be a well-disguised defense mechanism that we use to prevent us from being hurt or perceived as a fool. Having too much ego protection is a real risk. Thomas, because of the boulder blocking his vision, could not even trust the word of his friends.

Boulders are hard to move. It's difficult to seek change or take a risk, especially when we are so afraid to be vulnerable or reluctant to trust another's word. When we are closed minded, overly pragmatic, unwilling to see things in a different way, stubborn or defensive, it is difficult to be surprised by God and stretched. We need to be less guarded, self-assured, and self-absorbed. God cannot break into the ordinary moments of our lives and inspire us when we cling to doubt. If we are going to discover resurrection faith, we have to believe that what the witnesses say is true, especially when they are credible. We also have to trust that the risen Christ is alive in us, too!

While the first witnesses to the resurrection have faded into history, there are many others who have come after them. They continue to inspire by walking the talk of faith. They are the martyrs who offer their lives for the Gospel, the simple holy people in our communities who cling so steadfastly to their faith, those who have touched despair and found new hope and the ones who, even in spite of ridicule, still pursue their hunger and thirst for God. They are our friends, acquaintances, biblical heroes, and saints, and many others who are convinced that they have seen the Lord! The risen Christ may not surprise us with the same kind of visit as he did the first disciples, but God finds other ways. All we have to do is open our eyes, remove whatever is preventing us from seeing and believing and exclaim: "My Lord and my God!" ©LPI

ONLINE ADULT FAITH FORMATION OPTIONS

St. Jude Parish offers a variety of opportunities for adults to continue faith formation through bible studies, courses, and a monthly book group. Due to Covid, many of our classes offer hybrid options and take place in person as well as simultaneously through Zoom. Please consider joining us!

There will be a new class starting soon!!!

Please watch the bulletin for updates. For more information about Adult Faith Formation, contact Diane at 603-425-1795 or email dswinarski@stjudenh.com.

Join us for our next meeting on May 25th at 6PM.

The book we have selected is: The Healing Names of Jesus: Find Freedom from Depression and Anxiety by Jenita Pace.

Synopsis: Countless Christians face depression and anxiety, yet few resources address these challenges through both a spiritual and therapeutic lens. The Healing Names of Jesus explores thirty-one names of God to help you deepen your understanding of who he is, find meaning in your pain, and renew your strength. Written by a licensed professional counselor with personal experience, this devotional combines the power of the gospel with proven coping strategies to offer healing to those battling depression and anxiety. Each entry includes an inspirational reading from the Bible, a compelling story, an interactive exercise, and encouraging prayer. The more you understand God, the less power your dark thoughts and feelings have over you. Draw closer to him and let hope color your world again.

Join us in-person (Diane's office) or via Zoom. Contact Diane at dswinarski@stjudenh.com to let her know if you will be attending.

Join us online or in-person

We invite you to join us Monday evening, April 25th, in Diane's office or via Zoom, as we look at another short study by Dr. Brant Pitre.

Please Note: The study will begin immediately after Evening Prayer (about 6:45PM) and run until 8:15PM. Just come back to Diane's office when prayer ends.

No books are needed BUT, you do need to send Diane your e-mail if you are planning to join via Zoom so she can send you the link and the outline/notes to help you follow along. (dswinarski@stjudenh.com).

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

In the 1930s, Jesus chose a humble Polish nun, St. Maria Faustina Kowalska, to receive private revelations concerning Divine Mercy that were recorded in her Diary. Pope Saint John Paul II explains:

This was precisely the time when those ideologies of evil, nazism and communism, were taking shape. Sister Faustina became the herald of the one message capable of off-setting the evil of those ideologies, that fact that God is mercy—the truth of the merciful Christ. And for this reason, when I was called to the See of Peter, I felt impelled to pass on those experiences of a fellow Pole that deserve a place in the treasury of the universal Church. ~ Pope Saint John Paul II, Memory and Identity (2005)

The message of mercy is that God loves us — all of us — no matter how great our sins. He wants us to recognize that His mercy is greater than our sins, so that we will call upon Him with trust, receive His mercy, and let it flow through us to others.

The Chaplet was also given to St. Faustina with this promise: “Encourage souls to say the chaplet which I have given you” (Diary, no. 1541). “Whoever will recite it will receive great mercy at the hour of death. ... Even if there were a sinner most hardened, if he were to recite this chaplet only once, he would receive grace from My infinite mercy. I desire that the whole world know My infinite mercy” (Diary, no. 687).

For more information, and to hear an audio recording of the Divine Mercy Chaplet with Bishop Libasci, visit <https://www.catholicnh.org/worship-and-sacraments/faith/liturgical-calendar/divine-mercy/>
