SUNDAY'S READINGS

FIRST READING

The rain and snow come down and do not return there till they have watered the earth, making it fertile and fruitful. (Is 55:10)

PSALM

The seed that falls on good ground will yield a fruitful harvest. (Ps 65)

SECOND READING

I consider that the sufferings of this present time are as nothing compared with the glory to be revealed for us.

For creation awaits with eager expectation the revelation of the children of God. (Rom 8:18-19)

GOSPEL

And he spoke to them at length in parables, saying: "A sower went out to sow. (Mt 13:3)

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD. The English translation of Psalm Responses from Lectionary for Mass ©1969, 1981, 1997, International Commission on English in the Liturgy Corporation. All rights reserved. ©LPI

MISSIONARY COOPERATION PLAN

The USCCB Pastoral Statement on World Mission To the Ends of the Earth #74 states the purpose of the Missionary Cooperation Plan appeal: "We ask that you missionaries share with us your experience as well as the faith experience of the people you serve. Our faith is deepened and broadened as we learn from you." The plan is to help mission-sending societies solicit funds for their mission efforts as well as give them the opportunity to appeal for vocations to their communities.

Rev. Joseph Ekpo, from the Diocese of Ikot Ekpene in Nigeria, joins us this weekend to share information on the "work in Nigeria for evangelization and human development - building maternity clinics due to high rate of mortality during childbirth; primary healthcare; education of orphans; accommodation for refugees & displaced persons due to political instability; rehabilitation of physically & mentally challenged; education of catechists & seminarians." Thank you for your support.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

It's not uncommon to hear people complain that we Catholics often fail in communicating our faith. Fair enough. We can and should improve there. But it's interesting to notice that Jesus himself was implicitly accused by his disciples of a similar failure. This week in Matthew's gospel they are perplexed that he speaks to the crowds in ambiguous parables. The Lord's riddles leave many people more confused than before. He responds by pointing out that his parables have an intentional dual purpose: to hide (for some) and to reveal (for others) his Gospel: "Because knowledge of the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven has been granted to you, but to them it has not been granted" (Matthew 13:11). Is Jesus being unnecessarily difficult, obscurantist, or, worse, elitist?

No. We have to remember that all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge lie hidden in him (c.f., Col. 2:3). He is the word of God from heaven to be planted in the earth of our humanity to bear great fruit. However, like a lover delicately pursuing his beloved, we're dealing with a relationship, not new data. When we aren't willing to personally accept Jesus into our lives, the "info" of the Gospel will simply not make sense to us. It'll seem bizarre, esoteric, or like incoherent religious-speak. But when we are willing to accept Jesus into our lives, everything else starts to make sense. When others don't understand the Church or the Lord, let's be patient. Love is patient. Sometimes it has to hide before it is revealed.

SAINT MONICA PRAYER GROUP

Like so many Catholics today - even perhaps you - Monica wrestled daily with the pain of having a loved one fall away from the Faith. Like us, she often feared her prayers and tears were of little worth, empty, futile. Not so!!! After nearly two decades, her son, Augustine, returned to the Faith, in a big way. Revered today as Saint Augustine, he joined in holiness his mother, Monica - now Saint Monica.

Saint Monica prayer group meets every 3 months on the third Friday of the month. We begin with a potluck dinner and fellowship in the Parish Hall at 5:30PM, followed by discussion and intercessory prayer at 6:30PM. All are welcome!

Our next meeting will be Friday, September 15th. For more information, please contact Diane at dswinarski@stjudenh.com or 603-425-1795.

NIGHT OF INQUIRY FOR RCIA

Sunday, September 10th, at 6:00PM in the Church

Do you know someone not baptized? ... or baptized in a non-Catholic Christian tradition, who is thirsting to know what it means to become Catholic? Do you know someone already Catholic but who has not yet received Confirmation and/or Communion who feels they are being called to do so now? The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is a place to ask questions and seek understanding. Invite them to come to the Night of Inquiry with Fr. Bob Gorski on Sunday, September 10th at 6:00PM.

For more information, please contact:

THIRD WORLD DAY FOR GRANDPARENTS AND THE ELDERLY

In 2021, Pope Francis established the celebration of the World Day for Grandparents and Elderly on the fourth Sunday of July, near the liturgical memorial of Saints Joachim and Anne, the grandparents of Jesus (July 26). The theme for this year's celebration is "His mercy is from age to age" (Lk 1:50), recalling the Blessed Virgin Mary's visit with her cousin, Elizabeth, and "invit[ing] us to reflect on the bond that unites young and old."

Pope Francis is again extending the opportunity for a plenary indulgence "to the faithful who devote adequate time to visit, in presence or virtually, through the media, their elderly brothers and sisters in need or in difficulty" on July 23rd. For more information, please visit, <https://www.usccb.org/topics/marriage-and-family-life-ministries/grandparents-elderly>.

The U.S. bishops have approved the transfer of the celebration of World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly in the U.S. to the first weekend after Labor Day in September to coincide with National Grandparents (and the Elderly) Day in the United States as many local communities, schools, and parishes have celebrated for some time.

NATURAL FAMILY PLANNING WEEK

National Natural Family Planning Week is held every year near the anniversary of the release of Humanae Vitae (July 25). This year National Natural Family Planning Week will be held July 23rd - July 29th. The theme is "Marriage: One Flesh, Given and Received." For more information, please visit www.usccb.org.
