FOURTH SUNDAY IN LENT

From the Pastoral Administrator's Desk

LAETARE SUNDAY - FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT God's Unconditional Love and Mercy.

Dear Parishioners,

Grace and peace of our Lord, Jesus Christ be with you!

Why is pink or rose color used on the Fourth Sunday of Lent? The tradition of using the color rose is thought to come from the tradition of the Golden rose; at one time popes sent golden roses to Catholic heads of state.

Pink or rose is worn today to show joy and love as we anticipate Christ's birth and resurrection.

Today on Laetare Sunday, we are encouraged and uplifted by the Parable of the Prodigal son. "Laetare" is Latin for "rejoice" the traditional designation for the Fourth Sunday. We rejoice because of God's abundant mercy. The temptation to sin can be overwhelming and impossible as it nudges us away from God. But once we "come to our senses" and seek forgiveness, the Lord is ready to embrace us and welcome us home. God calls us to reconciliation. Let us rejoice indeed.

God's love is bigger than our differences and personality dynamics. God embraces ALL: saints and sinners! That is Good News! The implication of the parable is God's interest in reclaiming the lost. God continues to seek out those who are lost and celebrates when they get back on track.

Parables are a distinctive form of ancient storytelling designed to leave us scratching our heads and thinking deeper. Is there any character that resembles you in the story? Are you like God the Father? Are you like the prodigal son or prodigal daughter? Are you like the Pharisees that the older brother represents?

There are three characters in this parable: the Father, representing God, the older son, the Pharisees. Who is the younger son? Is he the sinner or perhaps human beings?

Such is our God and Father, the one who creates us day after day, without our being aware of it. While we go on our way, the one seeks sinners and saints whom he can fill with his treasures, marvelous gifts and blessings!

Rev. Thomas Macauley

Eucharistic Revival Prayer

Heavenly Father, we thank you for the gift of your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, who promised to stay with us always, until the end of the age.

Reawaken our wonder at His presence in the Most Holy Eucharist. May our hearts burn within us as He opens the Scriptures and breaks the bread. Give us the eyes of faith to recognize His presence in our brothers and sisters, especially in the face of the poor and the suffering. Nourished by the Eucharist, send us forth to walk faithfully as missionary disciples, proclaiming the Gospel to every heart and extending Your kingdom to every land. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Whole Community Catechesis
Readings and Questions for Discussion
FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT - LAETARE SUNDAY
March 30, 2025

Introduction:

The scripture readings today give us great reason to rejoice. In the readings today we are really feasting on God's Mercy. The prodigal son is welcomed back by His Father (Luke 15:11-32), Paul tells that Christ has reconciled us to the Father (2 Corinthians 5:18-19), and in the first reading the Hebrews celebrate their first Passover in the Promised Land (Joshua 5:9-12). The readings indeed give us many reasons to rejoice. Above all, we rejoice over God's great love and mercy for us all, including other reasons.

First Reading - Joshua 5:9, 10-12

The book of Joshua purports to be a historical account of the conquest and division of Canaan among the twelve tribes under the leadership of Joshua who had been Moses' aide-de-camp.

Responsorial Psalm - Psalm 34

"Taste and see the goodness of God." The Responsorial Psalm sings of this divine generosity.

Second Reading-2 Corinthians 5:17-21

Paul, the Apostle underscores the message of today's Gospel:

"All this is from God, who has reconciled us to himself through Jesus Christ and given us the ministry of reconciliation; namely God was reconciling the world to himself in Christ.

Gospel - Luke 15:1-3, 11-32

The context of the Parable - Jesus was receiving criticism from the Pharisees for including tax collectors and sinners into his circle. At the heart of today's gospel is the joyful news of reconciliation.

Questions for Reflection

1. How do you celebrate and give thanks for all the special moments of life?
2. How do you seek reconciliation with God?
3. Do you feel the freedom and joy of God the Father after the Sacrament of Confession or Reconciliation?

Wisdom From The Saints

"The saints are like stars. In his Providence, Christ conceals them in a hidden place that they may not shine before others when they might wish to do so. Yet they are always ready to exchange the quiet of contemplation for the works of mercy as soon as they perceive in their heart the invitation of Christ." St. Anthony of Padua, Priest and Doctor
