Our Mission

We are a Roman Catholic Community of faith, welcoming the strength found in diversity.

We are committed to using our time, talent, and treasure in proclaiming the Kingdom of God through prayer, fellowship, and service.

We experience our unity at the Eucharistic Table of the Lord, and our direction from the Word of God and the Church Teaching.

Psalm 133
How Good And Pleasant It Is When God's People Live Together In Unity!

SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

From the Pastoral Administrator's Desk

SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER, YEAR C - May 25, 2025

The Peace of Christ be with you!

"My peace I give to you." (John 14:27)

Dear Parishioners,

Grace and peace of our risen Lord, Jesus Christ be with you!

After Jesus' ascension, the disciples will face persecution and even martyrdom. But despite these trials, Jesus' peace will remain with them. They will know a wholeness and tranquility that can only be from the Lord, Jesus Christ. This is his gift to us as well.

True peace, Godly peace can be hard to come by. There has hardly ever been a time when war was not being raged somewhere in the world. Divisions of all kinds seem ever present in different countries, communities, and even churches. If we go looking for peace in the world as signs of God's love, we may find ourselves disillusioned.

Jesus taught his followers many things that the Gospels record, but he wants to continue speaking to our minds and hearts. That's why he sent us the Holy Spirit. He will lead us and guide us in every situation we face. Think of all the times you have felt his presence in your heart. Recall when the Holy Spirit helped you understand more about the Lord or guided you in a specific way. Remember how God's peace descended on you in a hectic or difficult time.

Perhaps, God is calling us to something not shallow or superficial but more profound and more enduring. God's peace is different, not reliant on world peace. Christ peace comes not from treaties or ceasefires but rather, from an indwelling of the Holy Spirit that both stirs and quiets us. We can find the peace in moments of prayer and worship; and in a living faith that guides us through our days.

World peace is still a noble goal, but it must begin with an awareness of the presence and power of God in each of us.

Peace, perfect peace, is the gift of Christ our Lord and the blessed Trinity.

Have a blessed and peaceful week!

Rev. Thomas Macauley

Eucharistic Revival Prayer

Heavenly Father, we thank you for the gift of your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, who promised to stay with us always, until the end of the age. Reawaken our wonder at His presence in the Most Holy Eucharist. May our hearts burn within us as He opens the Scriptures and breaks the bread. Give us the eyes of faith to recognize His presence in our brothers and sisters, especially in the face of the poor and the suffering. Nourished by the Eucharist, send us forth to walk faithfully as missionary disciples, proclaiming the Gospel to every heart and extending Your kingdom to every land. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Thank you for your continued generosity!

"Only the best is good enough for God."

Stewardship Thoughts

The US Bishops' pastoral on stewardship reinforces, "because its individual members do collectively make up the Body of Christ, that body's health and wellbeing are the responsibility of the members - the personal responsibility of each of us. We all are stewards of the Church."

"MAY THE GOD OF HOPE FILL YOU WITH ALL JOY AND PEACE IN BELIEVING, SO THAT BY THE POWER OF THE HOLY SPIRIT YOU MAY ABOUND IN HOPE." ROMANS 15:13

The Shepherd

The role of the shepherd extends to all leaders, the Pope, Bishops, Priests, deacons, civil leaders, church staff, volunteers, and those who are spiritually and relationally apt. Are we "church people" going above and beyond the call of duty to care for one another?

HOPE FOR TODAY - PILGRIMS OF HOPE

"May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that by the power of the Holy Spirit you may abound in hope."

Romans 15:13

"Hope...is one of the ways in which what is merely future and potential is made vividly present and actual to us. Hope is the positive, as anxiety is the negative, mode of awaiting the future."

Emil Brunner, Eternal Hope, 1954

"Hope, like faith, is nothing if it is not courageous; it is nothing if it is not ridiculous."

Thornton Wilder, The Eighth Day, 1967

Whole Community Catechesis
Readings and Questions for Discussion

SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER, YEAR C - MAY 25, 2025

Introduction:

By listening attentively to the Holy Spirit promised by Jesus, the early Church resolves the question whether Gentile converts need to observe certain Jewish ritual practices.

All are called to dwell in the heavenly Jerusalem, founded on the twelve apostles of the lamb.

First Reading - Acts of the Apostles 15:1-2, 22-29

The early church community determines, with the help of the Holy Spirit, not to impose the requirement of circumcision on Gentile Christians.

Responsorial Psalm - Psalm 67:2-3, 5, 6, 8

A prayer that all the nations sing praise to God.

Second Reading - Revelation 21:10-14, 22-23

The vision of the splendor of the heavenly Jerusalem is described.

Gospel - John 14:23-29

Jesus promises his disciples that the Father will send the advocate, the Holy Spirit.

Question for Reflection

1. What do you think is essential to salvation?
2. If you were to make three suggestions to new believers in Jesus Christ, what might be helpful to their spiritual growth, what would you tell them? Why?
3. How are love and obedience connected in today's gospel?

Prayer Chain- If you know someone that is ill, facing surgery, or some other kind of difficulty, and needs our prayers, please contact Pat Canfield at pattycafe@yahoo.com. Supporting each other with the Power of Prayer is the best medicine. If you are not on our Prayer Chain and would like to be, please call our Parish Office or contact Pat. If you choose to be updated about a particular prayer chain request, please re-contact Pat.

PRAY

Pilgrim of Hope Jubilee Prayer

Father in heaven, may the faith you have given us in your son, Jesus Christ, our brother, and the flame of charity enkindled in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us the blessed hope for the coming of your Kingdom. May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope, a yearning for the treasures of heaven. May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer throughout the earth. To you our God, eternally blessed, be glory and praise for ever. Amen.

Stewardship
