ST. JOHN THE EVANGELIST CHURCH | 29 N WASHINGTON AVE, BERGENFIELD, NJ 07621

Dear Brothers and Sisters

On Thursday August 15th, we will celebrate the greatest of all feasts to our Lady, the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary. In medieval times, pre-Reformation, this was the most popular of all summer festivals, bringing joy and happiness to God's people.

Russian and Greek Orthodox-together with all the Eastern Churches- keep this feast, the Dormition, or The Falling Asleep of Mary. Jews can readily understand, believing in the assumption of Moses and Elijah. Muslims who hold the Virgin Mary in great veneration also profess her bodily assumption. Many Anglicans also keep this feast.

The Church participates in the life of the Blessed Virgin Mary, sharing in her as life does in air. Today, on her greatest feast, the Church opens both lungs, East and West, and breathes deeply of this air.

The Church, East and West, does not simply cherish the memory of Our Lady. Memory only recalls the dead. The Church cherishes her living presence among us today in the communion of saints.

Mary is the sign and perfect image of everything the Church is called to be. Her participation in the life of Christ is a pledge and guarantee of her participation in the life of the Church today.

By the power of the Holy Spirit Christ was conceived in her at Nazareth, and born of her in Bethlehem.

By her intercession at Cana in Galilee, Christ performed his first miracle, his first sign, changing water into wine, and so his ministry was born.

In her presence at Calvary, the crucified Christ achieved his hour, his glory, and our salvation was born.

In her presence, and united with her in prayer, the Holy Spirit was poured out upon the first men and women disciples and the Church was born.

God's plan has not changed, it is the same today. The role of Mary then is the role of Mary now.

If we want Christ to be born among us again.

If we want to see signs and miracles among us today.

If we want to experience the power of the Cross to save us.

If we want to receive the outpouring of the Holy Spirit,

It must be in union with Mary, in the presence of Mary, and through the intercession of Mary.

This is the faith of the Church, East and West, proclaimed among us, and celebrated by us, on this great feast of high summer, the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary into heaven.

Siervo de Dios Darwin Ramos, un niño filipino pobre, murió de distrofia muscular a la edad de 17 años. Nunca desanimado por la enfermedad, habló de su enfermedad como su “misión para Jesús”. Muchos fueron bendecidos por su sonrisa y amistad compasiva. Era conocido como el Maestro de la Alegría.
