The U.S. Refugee Admissions Program and the Catholic Church (Part 1)

What is the U.S. Refugee Admissions Program?

The U.S. Refugee Admissions Program (USRAP) was established when Congress passed the bipartisan Refugee Act of 1980. Prior to this, refugees were resettled in the United States on a largely informal and ad hoc basis, and the reception of refugees by American communities was almost entirely coordinated by faith-based groups, including the Catholic Church.

USRAP is the formal process by which people are legally resettled in the United States as refugees.

Resettlement through USRAP is distinct from the U.S. asylum process. Any person resettled through USRAP is first screened, vetted, and approved by the U.S. government while outside of the United States. They also receive medical evaluations, a cultural orientation, and other services that maximize their ability to integrate successfully into, and contribute productively to, American communities.

Who is resettled through USRAP?

Only two groups are resettled through USRAP.

The first consists of those who qualify for refugee status under U.S. law, which requires a person to be outside of the United States and: (1) of special humanitarian concern to the United States; (2) have been persecuted, or have a well-founded fear of persecution, due to race, religion, nationality, political opinion, or membership in a particular social group; (3) not "firmly resettled" in another country; and (4) legally admissible to the United States.

The second group resettled through USRAP consists of Iraqi and Afghan nationals approved for a special immigrant visa because they assisted the U.S. missions in Iraq or Afghanistan.

Pontifical Good Friday Collection

Pope Francis has asked all parishes to support the Pontifical Good Friday Collection which helps Christians in the Holy Land, where they are now less than 2% of the population. Your support is essential to help the Church minister in parishes, provide Catholic schools and offer religious education. The Pontifical Good Friday Collection also helps to preserve the sacred shrines of Christianity, including in Jerusalem, Nazareth, and Bethlehem, to name only few.

The pandemic had hit Christians in the Holy Land particularly hard. Most of them depend on pilgrimages for work. The war made their situation even more dire. In these times of crisis, the Pontifical Good Friday Collection is necessary to meet the basic needs of the People of God still living in this Land and to maintain a Christian presence where the Church was born.

When you contribute to the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, you join with the Catholics around the world in solidarity with the Church in the Holy Land.

Lenten Almsgiving

Catholic Extension Society

Second Collection

Palm Sunday, April 13, 2025

Please be as generous as you are able to support Holy Trinity's Lenten Almsgiving to the community of El Flaco, Texas.

HOLY TRINITY 2025
LENTEN ALMSGIVING

Abandoned chapel and building that will transform into PDH 2.0

CATHOLIC EXTENSION SOCIETY

Please contribute by donating to the Second Collection on Palm Sunday - April 13, 2025

Holy Trinity Parish is partnering with Catholic Extension Society to help realize a dream for the residents of El Flaco, Texas, a rural area on the Texas-Mexico border.

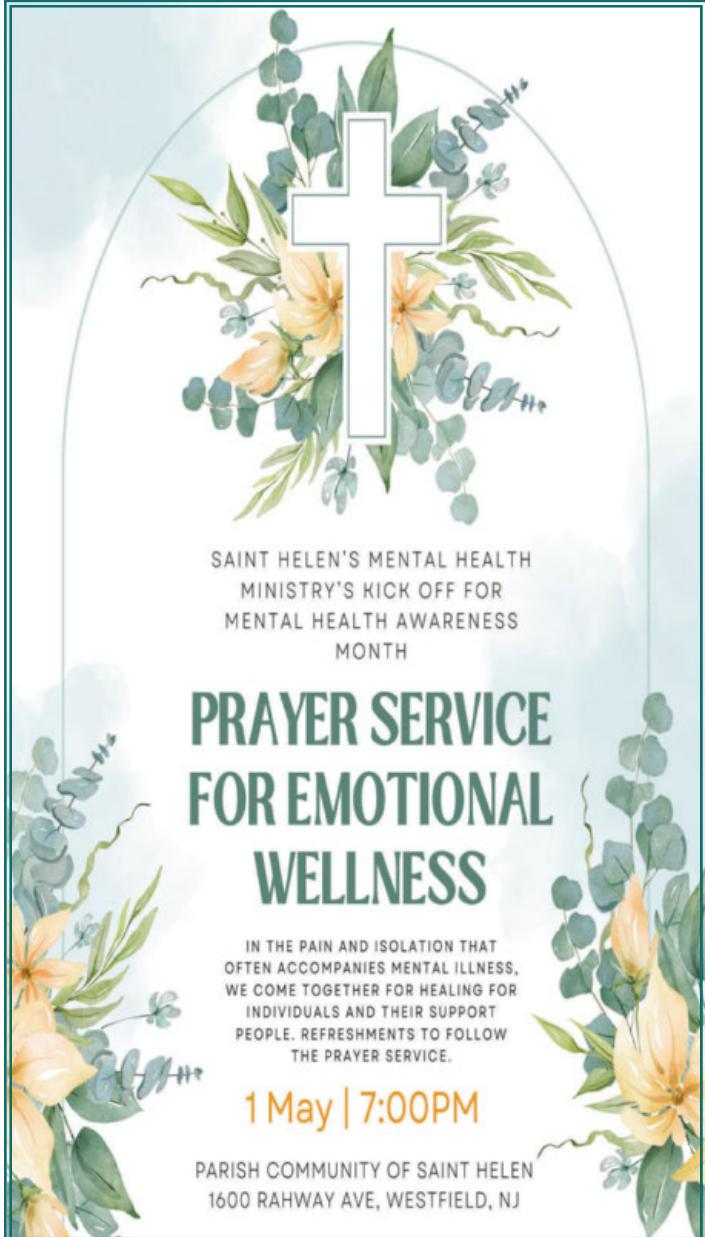

The community's vision is to transform two abandoned buildings into a second site for Proyecto Desarrollo Humano (PDH), an outreach center serving the physical, social, and spiritual needs of those living in poverty.

April 2024 - Fr. Anthony Randazzo and parishioner Roland Flores joined Catholic Extension Society on a meaningful immersion trip to the Diocese of Brownsville, TX, where they had the opportunity to visit the original PDH in Penitas and the site of the future PDH 2.0 in El Flaco.

Your Lenten Almsgiving will help fund:

- ✓ Health Services: Outreach clinics to promote wellness
- ✓ Educational Programs: After-school tutoring and adult English classes
- ✓ Community Building: Zumba and nutrition classes, leadership training, and family support
- ✓ Spiritual Growth: A chapel for religious education and sacramental celebrations.

"Although the people are materially poor, they are rich in qualities that matter much more: family, helpfulness, sharing, joy, and energizing it all the solid conviction that God is with them." - Sr. Fatima

NURTURING THE GENERATIONS

APRIL 13, 2025: PALM SUNDAY OF THE LORD'S PASSION

Love & Betrayal

Isaiah 50:4-7 • Salvation only through the Lord's servant

Philippians 2:6-11 • Jesus, compassionate high priest

Luke 22:14-23:56 • The Passion of Jesus

Now that you've heard the Word, ask yourself this question...

When have you felt that you betrayed the confidence of another,
as Peter did when he denied Jesus?

BLESSED IS HE

As Jesus rides
into Jerusalem
surrounded
by people shouting
"hosanna,"
he is concentrating
on something,
not at the crowd
does he look
or wave.

Beyond all the noise and movement,
he looks to what is ahead:

an agonizing journey of betrayal,
torture, crucifixion, and death.

He sees what nobody around him can see;
he has knowledge of things to come
far beyond anyone's understanding.

There is melancholy, but also peaceful acceptance.

There is insight into the fickleness of the human heart,
but also immense compassion.

There is a deep awareness of the unspeakable pain to be suffered,
but also a strong determination to do God's will.

Above all, there is love,

an endless, deep, and far-reaching love
born from an unbreakable intimacy with God

and reaching out to all people, wherever they might be.

Look at Christ on the donkey

and remember that you are seen by him
with all your sins, guilt, and shame

and loved with all his forgiveness,

mercy, and compassion.

BLESSED ARE WE.

The Lord did not defend or justify Himself.

Rather, He prayed to the Father,
offered mercy to the good thief, and said:

"Father, forgive them"
amid the most searing physical pain
of His Passion.

We would scream out
and give vent to all our anger and suffering.
But Jesus said: "Father, forgive them."

— Pope Francis on the Passion

O Lord, this week we see your love
in ways we had not imagined:

on its knees, washing our feet,
in agony as we sleep, under trial as we deny,
and at the cross as we hide in fear.

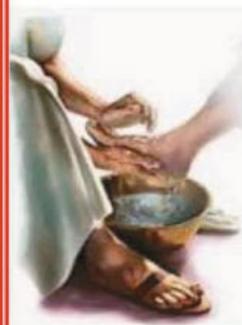

This week, O Lord, we see your love for us -
your love that extends to the heavens,
your love that humbles itself on the cross -
reaching out to us,
and embracing us
in ways we had not imagined.

Open our hearts to the wonder of this love,
to the pain of this week,
and to the cost of our salvation,

that we might know the joy
of the resurrection and love's eternal triumph
in ways we also
have not imagined.

Amen.

— Ann Weems
