(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC

Mini Reflection: Too often, we don't care about righteousness or truth. We just care about being right. We have a terrible tendency to see only decisions, and in doing so we dehumanize the people behind them. But when God looks at us, he sees more than the worst decisions we've ever made.

The Allure of Being Right

It wasn't a real question.

"The law of Moses says we should stone her. What do you say?" the Pharisees asked Jesus as they brought the adulterous woman before him. But they weren't really asking. They didn't care what Jesus' answer was. They didn't ask his opinion because they wanted to know. They asked because they wanted to use his words against him.

Righteousness, truth — that wasn't the goal. The goal was being right.

And in the middle of the whole scene, dragged before Jesus, used as a literal prop in this staged drama, is a woman. A real flesh-and-blood woman.

I find myself wanting to know more about her. She had been "caught in the act," they claimed, but I wonder what that even means. With whom was this act committed, and what were the reasons for her participation in it? Was she coerced? Was she scared? Was she confused? Was it really a cut-and-dry, black-and-white situation of adultery, of lust, of making the wrong decision?

We will never know the answers to these questions, and it doesn't matter — it's not our business. God knows the answers. God knows the truth of the matter: what she did, what she chose, what she felt. Because she wasn't a prop to Him. She was a person.

When God looks at us, he sees more than the worst decisions we've ever made.

I worry that we use one another as props even today, when we try like the Pharisees to illustrate "What is Right." We have a terrible tendency to see only decisions, and in doing so we dehumanize the people behind them.

Too often, we don't care about righteousness or truth. We just care about being right.

— Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Why do we do that?

Catholic Life Explained

Question:

If someone is interested in becoming a priest, how does he go about it?

Answer:

Discerning a vocation can happen in any number of ways. It might come as a surprise to the person called or to family or friends. Sometimes it is a gradual process, and other times it is as quick and bright as lightning. Regardless of how it starts, a vocation to the priesthood or religious life requires a process of discerning, testing, and preparing. The best place to begin would be with lots of prayer, receiving the sacraments, and attending daily Mass whenever possible. Then talk to your pastor or a priest you know and trust. Your diocese may have a vocation director who can provide you with guidance and information. The Serra Club is also a great resource for information and contacts to help you discern if indeed God is calling you.

Remember that many young Catholic men have considered the priesthood. Some are ordained and others realize this is not their calling. However, we are all called to be of service to others as we practice our faith. These are extraordinary times in which we live, and they require an extraordinary witness to faith and to God's presence in the world. Our work, our ministry as Catholics, is to be the body of Christ with and for others. The Church needs priests. If God calls you to ordained service in the church, He will provide the grace, direction, and support you need. Just listen and respond with all your heart, mind, and soul.

Church and at churches throughout the Archdiocese of New York.

PARISH HAPPENINGS

VILLAMARIN MATH AND SCIENCE SUMMER ADVENTURE

The Villamarin Math and Science Summer Adventure will be returning to St. Charles Parish for the month of July. The program is offered to current UPK 4 students through current 5th grade students. The summer camp will run from 9:00 AM to 12 Noon Monday through Friday beginning July 7th through August 1st. Our teachers are hard at work developing engaging lessons and planning fun activities! We will have weekly exciting themes. Applications will be available at St. Charles Rectory or in the vestibule of the church. Registration for camp is $135 per week or $520 for four weeks (non-refundable). For more information, contact Cathy Occhipinti at villamarinsummeradventure@gmail.com.

The Book Club has selected "When the Women Ran Fifth Avenue" by Julie Salow. Three women became the CEO's of Bonwit Teller, Lord and Taylor and Henry Bendel. They transformed shopping into a lovely day's outing for women. The customer was treated with style and elegance. Surrounded by beautiful clothes, and accessories they were able to spend time treated comfortably by the staff, have their hair done and enjoy a lovely lunch. Most of the store's merchandise was selected to appeal to the average woman. These three women, although successful in the business world, faced other challengers in their personal lives. The Book Club meeting is April 17, at 4:00 in the rectory.

ST. CHARLES YOUTH GROUP

The St. Charles Parish Youth Group will be meeting this evening from 6:00 PM – 8:00 PM in the school cafeteria. The SCP Youth Group is open to all 5th, 6th and 7th graders that attend St. Charles School or the CCD program at St. Charles. Please contact Joe Kroczyński at 917-589-7822 with any questions.

ST. CHARLES COFFEE HOUR

Our coffee hour will take place today after the 9:30 AM Mass. All are Welcome!

ST. CHARLES CHURCH FOOD PANTRY

Our pantry services those in need in our community and is open to the public on the second and fourth Tuesdays of the month. The need has been great and our shelves are running low. If you would like to help with this need, you can drop off non-perishable items to the rectory. The items we could use are canned vegetables, canned soups, peanut butter and jelly, tuna, pasta, tomato sauce, macaroni and cheese, cereal, crackers. Your generosity is very much appreciated.

The next St. Joseph's Workshop will be held on Monday, April 7th at 7:00 PM in the church. This workshop is a wonderful opportunity to learn more about our Catholic Faith. It also allows us to spend more time in prayer and faith sharing. Coffee and refreshments will be served after the workshop. Mark your calendars.

REMINDER

Please silence your cellphones before the start of the Mass. Also, please refrain from bringing food or drink to Mass or any other prayer services that you might be attending.

Heavenly Father, thank You that my sins have been forgiven and there is no condemnation to those that are in Christ Jesus. I confess that there are times when I have been critical of others, forgetting that my own sins were scarlet, but by Your grace have been washed white as snow.

PARISH AND LOCAL NEWS

Deacon Michael Coleman who was a seminarian here at St. Charles last summer, will be ordained a priest on Saturday, May 24th at St. Patrick's Cathedral. The parish is arranging for a bus to take those who are interested in attending. We will leave the church parking lot at 7:00 AM and return by approximately 1:00 PM. Please call the rectory to reserve a seat on the bus if you would like to attend.

Charitable Outreach

Thanks to the Appeal, our charitable organizations receive support to aid New York's most vulnerable. Services like food pantries, pop-up clinics, counseling services, and elder care are a few examples of the Church's commitment to accompanying those in need. Help us continue to make a difference in our communities by visiting www.cardinalsappeal.org/donate to donate today.
