Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

VIGESIMO SEXTO DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

OCTOBER 1ST, 2023

My dear parishioners,

I do not know how many of you remember my homilies from this past year's Holy Week, but I had a theme during the course of those days. I shared with you about the life and priesthood of Venerable Father Aloysius (Father Al) Schwartz. Father Al was a priest from Washington DC, who felt a strong call to serve the poor, in particular those who suffered extreme poverty. He went to South Korea after the end of the Korean War to serve those who suffered the ravages of the war.

"His heroic example caused many to listen to him and the Gospel message. He began orphanages for those who lost their parents due to the war or were abandoned due to extreme poverty. He served these children by showing them they were not forsaken by God, that they were loved and that they had something to offer the world. In his schools, they learned basic studies, the faith and some trades to prepare themselves for life outside of the orphanages. He constantly celebrated Mass for them, heard confessions and led them in prayer. He began a community of sisters, now known as the Sisters of Mary, who became spiritual mothers to the children under their care. Father Al also built hospitals, clinics and hospices to care for the homeless, elderly and the disabled. In full imitation of our Savior, Father Al washed the dirty feet of thousands who would otherwise have been forgotten." (from my Holy Thursday homily).

Why do I share this with you? It is not a test of your memory. For a few years now, I have been invited to visit the work that Fr. Al started and still continues under the Sisters of Mary. Since I have been the only priest assigned to our parish for the last four years, it has been difficult to find time to go. With Fr. Rolvin with us for the year, I now have an opportunity to pay the sisters a visit. On Monday, October 2nd, I will be traveling to Mexico for a little less than three weeks to visit Girlstown in Chalco, Mexico and maybe an additional trip to Boystown in Guadalajara. This is not a vacation as I will be serving the sisters and the girls by celebrating Mass and hearing confessions. 3500 girls attend and live at Girlstown and they currently do not have a full-time chaplain. Fr. Dan Leary, an awesome priest from Washington DC, had been their chaplain for the last three years but was recently called back to be a pastor in his home diocese.

Before I go to Girlstown, I will be making a stop to visit Mama Guadalupe at the Basilica of Our Lady of Guadalupe in Mexico City. I will pray for all of you while I am there. I invite anyone who has a special intention to give it to me and I will offer it in front of the actual image of Our Lady of Guadalupe. I have not been there in eleven years and I look forward to being there again.

If you would like to learn more about the Sisters of Mary and the good work they do in serving poor children in many countries, you can visit their website at www.worldvillages.org.

Please pray for me as I make this mission trip and I will be praying for all of you.

God bless,

Fr. O'Connor

Mis queridos feligreses,

No sé cuantos de ustedes recuerdan mis homilias de la Semana Santa de años anteriores, pero tuve un tema durante el transcurso de esos días. Les compartí acerca de la vida y sacerdocio del Venerable Padre Aloysius (Padre Al) Schwartz. El Padre Al fue un sacerdote de Washington DC, quien sintió un fuerte llamado a servir a los pobres, especialmente aquellos que sufrieron extrema pobreza. El fue a Corea del Sur después de que la Guerra Coreana terminó, para servir a aquellos que sufrieron los estragos de la guerra.

"Su heroico ejemplo hizo que muchos le escucharan a él y al mensaje del Evangelio. El comenzó orfanatos para aquellos que perdieron sus padres debido a la guerra o los que fueron abandonados debido a la extrema pobreza. El sirvió a estos niños mostrándoles que no habían sido abandonados por Dios, que eran amados y que tenían algo que ofrecer al mundo. En sus escuelas, aprendieron estudios básicos, la fe y algo de negocios para prepararse para la vida afuera de los orfanatos. El constantemente celebraba la Misa para ellos, oía sus confesiones y los guiaba en oración. Comenzó una comunidad de hermanas, ahora conocidas como las Hermanas de María, quienes se convirtieron en madres espirituales para los niños bajo su cuidado. El Padre Al además construyó hospitales, clínicas y auspicios para cuidar de las personas sin hogar, los ancianos y los discapacitados. En completa imitación de nuestro Salvador, el Padre Al lavó los pies sucios de miles que de otra forma hubieran sido olvidados". (De mi homilía el Jueves Santo).

¿Por qué les comparto esto? No es un examen de su memoria. Desde hace algunos años, me han invitado a visitar la obra que el Padre Al comenzó y continúa bajo las Hermanas de María. Como he sido el único sacerdote asignado a nuestra parroquia por los últimos cuatro años, había sido difícil encontrar el tiempo para ir. Con el Padre Rolvin con nosotros por un año, tengo ahora la oportunidad de visitar a las Hermanas. El lunes 2 de octubre, viajaré a México por un poco menos de tres semanas para visitar Girlstown en Chalco, México y quizás un viaje adicional a Boystown en Guadalajara. Estas no son vacaciones ya que estaré sirviendo a las hermanas y a las jóvenes celebrando Misa y escuchando confesiones. 3500 muchachas asisten y viven en Girlstown y actualmente no tienen un capellán de tiempo completo. El Padre Dan Leary, un maravilloso sacerdote de Washington DC, ha sido su capellán por los últimos tres años pero recientemente ha sido llamado a ser párroco en su diócesis de origen.

Antes de ir a Girlstown, haré una parada para visitar a Mama Guadalupe en la Basilica de Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe en Ciudad México. Oraré por todos ustedes mientras esté allí. Invito a todos los que tengan una intención especial a que me la den y la ofreceré frente a la imagen real de Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe. No he ido allí desde hace once años y espero con ansias estar allí otra vez.

Si desean aprender más acerca de las Hermanas de María y el buen trabajo que hacen sirviendo a los niños pobres en muchos países, pueden visitar su página web www.worldvillages.org.

Por favor oren por mí mientras hago este viaje de misión y estaré orando por todos ustedes.

Dios les bendiga,

Fr. O'Connor

The Paschal Candle

The large candle near the baptismal font is the paschal candle. The word paschal comes from the Latin for "Passover"—just another reminder of the Christian faith's Jewish roots. It is the candle lit and borne in procession at the Great Easter Vigil from which the whole church receives its light after the darkness of Good Friday and Holy Saturday. The paschal candle should be lit during the Easter liturgies and ideally when the faithful gather in church during Eastertide.

The US bishops write: "During the Easter Vigil and throughout the Easter season, the paschal candle belongs near the ambo or in the middle of the sanctuary. After the Easter season it is moved to a place of honor in the baptistry for use in the celebration of baptisms. During funerals the paschal candle is placed near the coffin as a sign of the Christian's passover from death to life" (Built of Living Stones, 94).

The paschal candle is to be made of beeswax and should be replaced each Easter Vigil with a new one. It should be sizable enough to be a recognizable focal point as the sacramental sign of Jesus Christ, Conqueror of sin and death. It's a sign of rebirth, God's splendor, and entrance to the promised land that Christ has opened to us.

EGERIA INSERTS

El Cirio Pascual

El cirio grande cerca de la pila bautismal es el cirio pascual. La palabra pascual proviene del latín para "Pascua", solo otro recordatorio de las raíces judías de la fe cristiana. Es el cirio encendido y llevado en procesión en la Gran Vigilia Pascual del que toda la iglesia recibe su luz después de la oscuridad del Viernes Santo y Sábado Santo. El cirio pascual debe encenderse durante las liturgias pascuales e idealmente cuando los fieles se reúnen en la iglesia durante la Pascua.

Los obispos estadounidenses escriben: "Durante la Vigilia Pascual y durante todo el tiempo pascual, el cirio pascual debe estar cerca del ambón o en medio del presbiterio. Pasado el tiempo pascual se traslada a un lugar de honor en el baptisterio para su uso en la celebración de bautizos. Durante los funerales se coloca el cirio pascual cerca del féretro como signo de la pascua del cristiano de la muerte a la vida" (Edificios de Piedras Vivas, 94).

El cirio pascual debe estar hecho de cera de abejas y debe reemplazarse cada Vigilia Pascual por uno nuevo. Debe ser lo suficientemente grande para ser un punto focal reconocible como el signo sacramental de Jesucristo, Conquistador del pecado y la muerte. Es una señal de renacimiento, esplendor de Dios y entrada a la tierra prometida que Cristo ha abierto para nosotros.
