NEW TO THE BULLETIN / UPCOMING EVENTS

Announcing a Lenten Book Study, starting on February 16.

Join Father Jonathan on Wednesdays at 7:00pm in St. Mary's Church Hall for an in-depth study on the book THE WAY OF THE DISCIPLE by Erasmo Leiva-Merikakis.

This book explores in depth six Gospel scenes so as to discover in these the essential elements of Christian discipleship. It describes the basic requirements for receiving the Word of God effectively in our hearts: namely, that we "become wet clay in God's hands", so that God can impress upon us any form he chooses. It also contemplates the vital position of the Mother of the Lord in the life of his disciples.

Each week we will gather to discuss a chapter of this book. We'll discover together how the call to discipleship is above all an invitation to intimate companionship with Jesus, and how what we normally call the "active apostolate" can never be an end in itself, but only the fruits of a life of prayer and adoration.

Please contact Eileen at Eileen@olqop.com for any questions and to RSVP to the study. The price of the book is $10.

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament in Lent

One-hour time slots are becoming available each week to pray before the Blessed Sacrament during Lent, which begins on Ash Wednesday, March 2.

If you are interested in taking one or more time slots at Saint Thomas Aquinas on weekdays in Lent between 1pm & 5pm, please let Father Jonathan know.

Are you grieving from an Abortion?

Trust in the mercy of God's love. Consider these words from St. John Paul II to those suffering because of abortion:

"The church is aware of the many factors which may have influenced your decision, and she does not doubt that in many cases it was a painful and even shattering decision. The wound in your heart may not yet have healed. Certainly what happened was and remains terribly wrong. But do not give in to discouragement and do not lose hope....The Father of mercies is ready to give you His forgiveness and His peace in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. You will come to understand that nothing is definitively lost and you will also be able to ask forgiveness from your child, who is now living in the Lord." (Evangelium Vitae, no. 99).

Call Project Rachel, the church's post-abortion healing program, for a confidential referral to a priest who can help: 860-861-4439.

The St. Jude Council will be changing their monthly meetings as per the following schedule. All meetings will be in the St. Mary Church hall, and on Zoom, starting at 7:30 PM. If you have any questions please contact Rick Parr at rick.parr@hotmail.com or (860) 742-9818. Thank you.

WORSHIP & MEDITATION

FIRST READING

The word of the LORD came to me,
saying:
Before I formed you in the womb I knew
you,
before you were born I dedicated you,
a prophet to the nations I appointed
you. (Jer 1:4-5)

PSALM

I will sing of your salvation. (Ps 71)

SECOND READING

So faith, hope, love remain, these three;
but the greatest of these is love.
(1 Cor 13:13)

GOSPEL

And he said, "Amen, I say to you,
no prophet is accepted in his own native place." (Lk 4:24)

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

St. Oscar Romero (1917-1980) was a "Salvadoran Roman Catholic archbishop who was a vocal critic of the violent activities of government armed forces, right-wing groups, and leftist guerrillas involved in El Salvador's civil conflict (Encyclopedia Britannica)." As a voice of the voiceless, he was an outspoken champion of the poor who were the ones most affected by the civil unrest and violence. His advocacy provoked several attempts on his life. Nonetheless, St. Oscar Romero was convinced that before all else his faith in the resurrected Christ and the values of the Gospel trumped any earthly concern or worry. He walked with complete confidence and trust. On March 24, 1980, St. Oscar Romero was assassinated while celebrating Mass. Such is often the fate of those who challenge the socio-political agendas of the day.

We may look at the example of witness of St. Oscar Romero as something extraordinary. In one sense it is. Through the power of God, an ordinary human being did extraordinary things. But, in and of himself, St. Oscar Romero was simply a humble, loving servant of God. Oscar knew not only the power of love but the risk that comes when loving unconditionally. The beauty of God's message was able to shine in and through him because he was able to step out of the way and be a vessel. One can assume that for St. Oscar Romero, one's earthly life has no merit when faith, integrity, conviction, zeal and love are jettisoned. Fear and apprehension had no grip on this man who not only saw but spoke the truth.

Do we speak the truth? It makes us feel good to speak of God as love. But have we ever considered the ramifications of this radical message? There are assaults on human life occurring daily. More and more the value and worth of a human being is being reduced and minimized. We are becoming widgets in the production of life. In our whole simple humble ways, we too are called to be prophets. Knowing who you are and what is within your means to do, how can you make God's love real, stand up for what is right, and give witness to the sacredness of all that is around you?

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

Prophets possess an intimate knowledge of God and act on their experience of God. Prophetic messages usually challenge the status quo and draw us up and out of ourselves, focusing us on the bigger picture. We often think of ourselves and our own needs first. When we listen to someone speak, we judge the merit of the message by its degree of usefulness. If the message or vision contains no personal benefit or profit but a call to stretch and grow, we can become indignant. Prophets are usually the ones whose message challenges us and calls us to see things differently and love more perfectly and deeply. God is love. When listening to St. Paul speak about love we witness the unfolding of this type of unconditional, other centered, self-sacrificial perfect God. It is an invitation to life, freedom, and happiness that can be offered to us only by God. Jesus, who is God and Love incarnate, calls us to this richer expression of love. Are we ready to listen and be challenged and stretched?

ST. BLAISE

FEAST DAY
FEBRUARY 3

SAINT OF THE WEEK

You may be familiar with the annual “blessing of throats” that many parishes in the United States use to commemorate the beloved bishop and martyr. St. Blaise lived in the fourth century in Turkey and Armenia. Due to religious persecution, he was forced to flee and hide in a cave in the back country in order to save his life.

History has it that one day a group of hunters stumbled upon where St. Blaise was living. They found the bishop kneeling in prayer, surrounded by wolves, lions and bears that he had tamed. The legend has it that as the hunters dragged Blaise off to prison, a mother came with her young son who had a fish bone lodged in his throat. At Blaise’s command, the child was able to cough up the bone and thus lived.

Today we remember the saint on his feast day by taking two candles, crossing them against the throat, and saying the following prayer:

Through the intercession of St. Blaise, bishop and martyr, may God deliver you from ailments of the throat and from every other evil. In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.
