Si algún joven está interesado, complete el folleto Quo Vadis en la iglesia o puede enviar un correo electrónico al Padre Kevin Cook, Director de Vocaciones a frcook@fallrivervocations.org.

Sister Eileen Davey, SUSA moved into the Attleboro Community in August 2020, during the midst of the COVID-19 pandemic. Sister Eileen is a retired Holy Union Sister from New York. She will be celebrating her 61-year anniversary as a religious sister on September 8, 2022. On a side note, Sister Eileen is a fan of the New York Mets baseball team.

On moving into Attleboro and residing at Christopher Heights, she visited St. John's and introduced herself to Father Craig. Although we were not yet back to church due to the pandemic, she voiced that she sincerely wanted to be an active member of the parish community in her retirement.

As she became known and so comforting to the residents at Christopher Heights, she was asked to bring ashes on Ash Wednesday and deliver palms on Palm Sunday, which she did. Sister Eileen was then asked if she would lead a prayer service on Sundays, for the residents to gather, listen to Mass Readings, and pray together. Sister then began to bring the Holy Eucharist to the residents, providing them the spiritual power, strength, and endurance that Holy Communion provides.

But Sister Eileen didn't stop there; she has taken it upon herself to “go beyond the ministry of the Church walls”, and was able to arrange for the Live-Streamed Mass to be broadcasted into Christopher Heights. An activities room is set up each Sunday for the residents to enter into a “comfortable space” that is quiet and peaceful. Her small community thus joins with our parish Mass, united in prayer and the Eucharist.

According to Sister Eileen, “the residence continuously comments on how much they appreciate being able to connect and participate in the Liturgy of the Mass each Sunday... but how extra special it is to be able to have Father Craig visit and say Mass in person”. She continued that she is “enriched by [the residents'] love of the Eucharist, which is such a spiritual necessity to their lives”. It is fulfilling for her too to bring spiritual comfort to the residents, who may have felt lost or lacking in that comfort during the pandemic.

Sor Eileen Davey, SUSA, se mudó a la comunidad de Attleboro en agosto de 2020, en medio de la pandemia de COVID-19. La Sor Eileen es una Hermana de la Santa Unión jubilada de Nueva York. Ella celebrará su 61 aniversario como hermana religiosa el 8 de septiembre de 2022. En una nota al margen, la sor Eileen es fanática del equipo de béisbol New York Mets.

Al mudarse a Attleboro y residir en Christopher Heights, visitó St. John's y se presentó al Padre Craig. Aunque todavía no habíamos regresado a la iglesia debido a la pandemia, expresó que sinceramente quería ser un miembro activo de la comunidad parroquial en su retiro.

A medida que se hizo conocida y tan reconfortante para los residentes de Christopher Heights, se le pidió que trajera cenizas el Miércoles de Ceniza y entregar palmas el Domingo de Ramos, lo cual hizo. Luego se le preguntó a la Sor Eileen si dirigiría un servicio de oración los domingos, para que los residentes se reunieran, escucharan las Lecturas de la Misa y oraran juntos. Luego, la sor comenzó a llevar la Sagrada Eucaristía a los residentes, brindándoles el poder espiritual, la fuerza y la resistencia que brinda la Sagrada Comunión.

Pero la Sor Eileen no se detuvo ahí; ella se encargó de “ir más allá del ministerio de los muros de la Iglesia”, y pudo hacer los arreglos para que la misa transmitida en vivo se transmitiera a Christopher Heights. Cada domingo se habilita una sala de actividades para que los residentes entren en un “espacio cómodo”, tranquilo y pacífico. Su pequeña comunidad se une así a nuestra Misa parroquial, unidas en la oración y la Eucaristía.

Según la Sor Eileen, “la residencia comenta continuamente cuánto aprecian poder conectarse y participar en la Liturgia de la Misa todos los domingos... pero cuán especial es poder tener la visita del Padre Craig y decir Misa en persona”. Continuó diciendo que está “enriquecida por el amor [de los residentes] a la Eucaristía, que es una necesidad espiritual para sus vidas”. También es gratificante para ella brindar consuelo espiritual a los residentes, quienes pueden haberse sentido perdidos o carentes de ese consuelo durante la pandemia.
