From the Pastor's Desk . . .

It is Christmas! I am writing this on Tuesday, December 14 because the deadline for the bulletin company is the 15th! That is very early for sure, but I know it is Christmas, a day so holy and special that the Church celebrates it for an “octave,” or eight days. During these eight days we will celebrate additional feasts such as the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph (Sunday, December 26); Saint John the Apostle, (Monday, December 27); the Holy Innocents, Martyrs (Tuesday, December 28); the Solemnity of Mary, the Holy Mother of God (Saturday, January 1); the Epiphany of the Lord (Sunday, January 2). Sadly, this year the Solemnity of Mary is not considered a Holy Day of Obligation. But it should be, so we can start the year at the altar! It is optional but I know that many will come!

This is the Catholic Faith, so rich in content, so Biblical in its worship, so relevant to the modern world!

The Octave ends in eight days but the Season of Christmas extends through Sunday, January 9, the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord. Other notable feast days during the Christmas Season are the Memorial of Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton (Tuesday, January 4); and the Memorial of Saint John Neumann, missionary Bishop of Philadelphia (Wednesday, January 5). “Ordinary Time” resumes on Monday, January 10.

I hope that Christmas has reached deeply into all of us. The fruit of Christmas includes the desire to live the truly Christian life, with the sacraments as our true light! The Eucharist, the Lord Jesus himself, is our food for the journey of life. To those who refuse this relationship, I can only bow my head in sadness. But many receive the invitation and live life so well! May your Christmas continue to be merry and holy as you observe it for another week!

Christmas at Saint Philomena is a very special experience. The faith of the people, the beauty of the Church, the sanctity of what we are doing... to quote the apostle Simon Peter at the Transfiguration, “how good it is for us to be here!” (Luke 9:33)

Review There were many great moments in Advent, many truly beautiful Christmas experiences. I think of Simbang Gabi on December 18, the beautiful Filipino celebration. I think also of the Christmas Concert in our Church on December 12. Here is a photo of Chris Pinnella, who performed with his quartet, with Catholic Charities CEO John Westervelt, and me.

As many of you know who have seen him perform here three times now, Chris can sing! The Concert is on our parish website and you can see it for free: www.stphilomena.org.

Our Aquinas Academy students also performed a Christmas Concert on Thursday, December 16. They are our greatest treasure! Our children love Aquinas and we love them.

It is New Year! Each of us is now heading into a new year, the Year of our Lord 2022. The past two years have been challenging to say the least. Since March of 2020 the entire world has been very much affected and changed. Humans are quite durable, yes, but we also feel the stresses of life, work, relationships, etc.

This week between Christmas and New Year's Day should feel special for us all. We celebrate Christ among us, and the passage to the new year might give us hope that 2022 will be better, safer, more healing for America and the world than we experienced in 2020 and 2021. The cartoon on the next page is pretty funny and has an element of truth in it:

"I've got the holiday spirit — exhausted and cranky!"

He went down with them and came to Nazareth, and was obedient to them; and his mother kept all these things in her heart. And Jesus advanced in wisdom and age and favor before God and man.

LK 2:51-52

© 2021 by St. Philomena Parish, St. Louis, MO

If you too feel exhausted and cranky, be kind to yourself this week. Fold up 2021 with some "thank-you prayers", and open 2022 with some "please prayers." Every day as I receive the Holy Eucharist I try to lift up our parish to the Lord... those who need extra grace, those who are sick or who struggle with faith, our children and our elders. God bless our parish and everyone in it! In the holiness and joy of Christmas and the hopeful expectation of the new year, I wish you peace that the world alone cannot give. Please continue to pray for your parish and your priests. I am so proud of Saint Philomena Parish and I thank you from the heart!

~ Msgr. Fuhrman

Open Your Home to Our Lady

Welcoming a beautiful statue of Our Lady of Fatima into your home is a very special way to show your love for Mary and to pray the Rosary with your family, especially your children.

A sign-up sheet to request the Statue is located in the vestibule of the Church. Mary would love to spend this time with you. You may pick-up the statue anytime after the 5 PM Mass on Saturday and return it by 5 PM the following Saturday. Mary is contained in a light blue duffle bag properly marked. It will be in the Library Room off the vestibule near the rest room. You are asked to sign-up only once every three months enabling the Lady of Fatima to be shared with others in the parish.

Reflections on Stewardship

“See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and so we are.”

(1 JOHN 3:1)

During this season of giving, let us remember a beautiful gift that we have received – being children of God! As God’s children, it’s in our DNA that we share and express our love for others as well. Tell your spouse, children, other family members and friends that you love them, every day! Also, pray for those people that are different than you, those that you may not like or those that go out of their way to annoy you. Your prayers may be the start of a new friendship.

Word of Life

“Like every other human family, the Holy Family had to confront real and concrete challenges. Yet, ‘in every situation, Joseph declared his own ‘fiat’ (PC 3). His ‘yes’ to the Lord meant that regardless of the hardship and personal sacrifice to himself, he consistently chose to put the needs of Mary and Jesus before his own. Joseph’s devotion helps reveal to us our own call to show special care for the lives of those whom God has entrusted to us.”

Saint Philomena's Religious Education Students and their Families sent 72 gift bags filled with food to Saint Michael's Food Pantry in Newark.

This Family Christmas Giving project offered the families in our Religious Education Program an opportunity to donate everything from cans of hams, chicken breast, tuna, chili, and beef stew, along with such staples as peanut butter, mac and cheese, soups, vegetables, cake mixes, fruits, cereals, pasta and sauces. Families also donated soap, shampoo, gloves, socks and Christmas candies. This supplemented the Giving Tree Project which helped people in need have the dignity to shop for their own gifts for their families, by ensuring they will have food to celebrate Christmas as well.

The 8th graders of Saint Philomena's Religious Education and of Aquinas Academy who joined together on Friday, December 10, from 5:30-9PM, had fun creating handmade crafts of Christmas trees, ornaments, and holiday cards with personalized messages. They then lined up and stuffed large "Happy Holidays" tote bags with all these items in hopes to bring cheer to these families in need. They learned how this giving is a part of their lives as followers of Jesus' message. This message is reinforced in Catholic Social Teaching about the life and dignity of every human being as we are all made in the image and likeness of God.

Saint Michael's Church in Newark is in a difficult area and has many people who wait in line to receive some food from their food pantry which aids families who cannot afford buying sufficient food after paying their rent, utilities, and other bills.
