OUR PARTNERSHIP WITH THE GREATER BOSTON FOOD BANK CONTINUES!

The Greater Boston Food Bank would like to thank Temple Israel and recognize the hard work and dedication in helping fight hunger in Eastern Massachusetts. The need has never been higher with the statistics now showing 1 in 3 people are food insecure in Eastern Ma..

Temple Israel is our longest tenured food drive partner and the support you have given over the past 25 plus years has helped us get that much closer to the mission of ending hunger. We deeply appreciate your support and look forward to continuing this relationship in the future. The food drive you held collected 5248 pounds of food, which is equivalent to 4373 meals for those in need.

While hunger is a growing problem in Massachusetts and across the country, it is one that we can solve. We continue to collect and distribute food for those who need it most in our communities. Your efforts over the last 25 years have brought us one step closer to ending hunger in America. If you are in need of any information or clarification regarding hunger or hunger-relief in Massachusetts please don't hesitate to contact us.

On behalf of the families you have helped feed, we thank you for your time, effort, and dedication in these difficult times.

Sincerely,

Brian A Morrill

FROM OUR SENIOR RABBI

"Not Hidden"

At Chanukah, we are commanded to publicize. In fact, it is a sacred act. The directive, however, has nothing to do with the consumerism that consumes us wherever we look or read these days. Where we place the Chanukah menorah and how we regard the lit candles in it make all the difference. The liturgy instructs what the candles' specific purpose is:

הנרות הללו קדש הם These Chanukah candles are Holy

אין לנו רשות להשתמש בהם and we are not to make any practical use of them,

אלא לראותם בלבד but just gaze upon them.

And then it goes on to explain the reason: to publicize the miracle we celebrate. They are not to be used for anything else. Not for illumination. Not for warmth. Not for beauty. To see them is to remember the ancient story of the impossible made possible.

The mythic story is hard to forget. Over 2,000 years ago, the Jews lived in a time when a tyrant threatened their observance of Judaism. Their physical safety, their psychological security, and their ability to celebrate was so precarious they could be attacked simply by being Jewish. And often they were. Some resisted, known as the Maccabees. They helped to lead the rebellion and regained the Temple. That was the first miracle. When everyone seemed against them, they persevered. Then, they found enough oil to last a single night, but it burned for 8 days. Such is another version of the magnificent and miraculous. We light candles, adding one each day. They are holy simply by their presence.

But, they are not hidden.

They are to be placed in the window in order to publicize, to advertise that in those days long ago, the Jews triumphed against a tyrant out to destroy them. In the end, it was actually the people who transformed the Temple into a hallowed sanctuary, a place to celebrate and express their joy and gratitude. They had to own the ultimate redemption and salvation to establish not just the holiday, but also its very reason to exist.

So, we "publicize the miracle" as the Talmud instructs us to do, by placing our Chanukah menorah in the window so that passersby can see it. We are all part of this magnificent story of engagement in our own redemption and opportunity to treasure our tradition and its lessons offered by our ancestors in days of old, in this season. The candles and we are not hidden in our joy and gratitude to celebrate.

NOTES TO OUR COMMUNITY

Jessica Greenfield

Board President

As we approach the darkest time of our year, I would like to extend my warmest gratitude to each of you and your families for your presence at Temple Israel. Chanukah is a time to celebrate the triumph of light over darkness, of faith over adversity, and of hope in the face of challenge. It is a festival that reminds us of the enduring power of resilience, unity, and the power of our traditions. As we gather around the menorah, lighting one candle each night to increase the light, we are reminded of the miracles in our own lives — both big and small — and the ways in which we continue to share our light with others.

Jessica Greenfield

Board President

At Temple Israel this fall, I witnessed an extraordinary High Holy Day worship experience. The High Holy Day cycle concludes with the joyous celebration of our sacred Torah. On Simchat Torah, as we renew the annual cycle of our sacred scrolls, we also consecrate our new religious school students. As is Temple Israel's tradition, during a beautiful ceremony new students were called to the bima and allowed to select a miniature Torah of their own. Our clergy sanctified the occasion, blessing the children as the "light of our community" who on this special day reflected the "light of creation in the light of their souls."

We are living Judaism together through discovery, dynamic spirituality, and righteous impact. This year, as we celebrate the miracle of the oil that burned for eight days, let us also remember the countless ways in which our Temple Israel community lights our way. As we light our menorahs, may our eyes also sparkle with the light of Torah. May this Chanukah bring you peace, joy, and an abundance of blessings.

Dan Deutsch

Executive Director

I spend so much of my time thinking about and helping to carry out our mission: Living Judaism together through discovery, dynamic spirituality, and righteous impact. I find so much power in that third word "together." One of the most important aspects of our congregation is that we are a collective created of individuals; somehow being together allows us to carry out our Judaism and with so much more meaning and purpose. Recently I have been focusing on how we as a congregation can come together for communal experiences and wanted to share the impact I felt from a recent experience.

In October, Temple Israel was able to host Daniel Vaknine, a survivor of the Nova Music Festival. Daniel is a DJ and was packing up as the sun came up and signs of the October 7th attack began to unfold. He spoke at Qabbalat Shabbat and shared his personal experience of finding safe shelter on a nearby kibbutz. I have spent so much time this past year trying to make sense of the ongoing conflict in Israel, Gaza, and beyond. Sitting and bearing witness with fellow Temple Israel members was one of the most important steps I have been able to take this year. Listening with TI members made my personal experience complete; there was so much power in being in Levi Auditorium and making Daniel's story part of our congregational history. Daniel spoke so eloquently about what he saw and experienced, and about our need to remember the lives of those lost and to make sure that we continue on our path towards peace.

This is just one recent way in which our community has come together. I encourage you to lean in and be a part of all that we have to offer. Please visit our website frequently to learn more.

It's more than just our tagline.
We really are living Judaism together!

October 7th survivor, DJ Daniel Vaknine, shared his experience at Qabbalat Shabbat.

LIVING JUDAISM TOGETHER.

RELATIONSHIPS. TORAH. SPIRITUALITY. JUSTICE. ISRAEL. DIVERSITY.

HIGH HOLY DAYS 5785: A LOOK BACK

From the introspective prayers of S'lichot to the joyous dances of Simchat Torah, our High Holy Days journey embraced moments of reflection, renewal, and celebration, capturing the spirit of community and tradition that brings us together each year.

HIGH HOLY DAYS 5785: WHAT WE'RE HEARING

The Rosh Hashanah family service was so well done. It spoke to everyone in our family—from our first grader through to grandparents."

I was honestly very impressed with how easy it was to participate online and I sincerely appreciate you making these services available for people to join."

Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur services were perfect. Attending online, it was so great to have the prayers onscreen so I didn't feel excluded by not having a prayerbook. The sermons were thoughtful, and I was so touched by how welcomed you made me feel."

This was our first High Holy Days as new congregants at TI and we felt so welcomed with the warmth and spirituality from the start!"

The High Holy Days at TI are just the tip of the iceberg of the deeply meaningful and fun experiences available to us as a TI family."

On Yom Kippur morning, the Rabbi asked members of the congregation to briefly greet the person next to them. I was sitting alone in an empty row and someone came over and introduced himself and wished me an easy fast. It was a small moment but, for me, a moment of connection that brought me into the community and into the generations, one worshipper in a huge sea of those present, those who came before, and those who will follow."

I love how there are multiple and varied extraordinary things happening under our roof at the same time. A transcendent community service happens while a very different but equally magical family service happens across the hall. You create your own bespoke experience."

Thank you so much for the livestream services! I was evacuated from Hurricane Milton in Florida. Luckily, the power was restored here Wednesday evening, so I was able to watch your services. Much appreciated!"

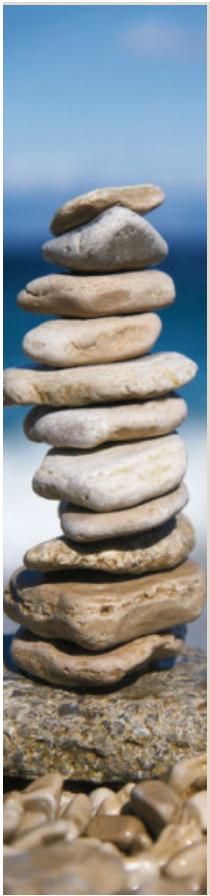

I think it is unique and amazing to attend High Holy Day services with just so many people. Hearing the Sh'ma recited by a thousand people gives you goosebumps."

I love how you keep changing things and keep them the same — bringing new energy in while leaving us grounded in tradition. The clergy team is stupendous. All so different, each with a unique world view that amplifies the beauty of our traditions."

Mindfulness Retreat

Saturday, February 1, 2025, 10:00 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.

Explore another side to dynamic spirituality at Temple Israel for a one-day, onsite mindfulness retreat with Cantor Stillman! Mindfulness is an awareness and appreciation for what we are thinking, feeling, and how we experience the world around us. It enhances our ability to be present and alive in this moment with curiosity, joy, and expansiveness. And it can change our world.

Mindfulness practices can create a mikdash mei'at, a small sacred space within ourselves, where we can turn inward to cultivate a greater sense of emotional, physical, and spiritual wellness in a uniquely Jewish setting.

Practicing mindfulness as a Shabbat retreat offers an opportunity to capture the restful and creative spirit of Shabbat. The novelty of being "away" creates space for change and transformation and can spark an intense and unique experience. It is an opportunity for a pause to self-nurture and explore how to bring mindfulness into our everyday lives. During our one-day retreat, we will experiment with a variety of mindfulness modalities and practices with local facilitators: music, prayer, movement, meditation, meals, and close with Havdalah as we transition back to our week.

We will pray, breathe, move, sing, observe, calm, and stretch to become a more full and vibrant version of ourselves – together. No experience necessary! If you are hoping to discover or deepen a personal mindfulness practice, please join us.

Shabbat Shirah

February 7-9, 2025

Shabbat Shirah is the most musical Shabbat in the Torah, celebrating the triumphant moment when the Israelites crossed the Red Sea and burst into song and dance, praising their newfound freedom. This Shabbat's narrative inspires the very sound of the Torah itself, as its chant takes on a special melody to mark this joyous occasion. To honor this powerful celebration of liberation, we, too, lift our voices in song, joining in the ancient rhythm of freedom and joy.

The weekend of February 7-9, 2025 we welcome Artist-in-Residence, Cantor Becky Mann. A composer, guitarist, and cantor, Becky Mann has been called "one of the brightest voices of a new generation of Jewish songwriters carrying our tradition forward in new and exciting ways." She is passionate about creating community through music and meaningful worship, and inspiring communities through her heartfelt interpretations of prayer. Originally from Las Vegas, Mann graduated from Indiana University with a degree in Jewish sacred music. She received her masters of sacred music from the Debbie Friedman School of Sacred Music at Hebrew Union College – Jewish Institute of Religion in New York, where she was ordained as a cantor in 2023.

Mann's compositions have been featured in worship services, workshops, and concerts at many cantorial conventions and Jewish conferences, and her music can be heard in congregations around the country. She will be leading an enhanced Qabbalat Shabbat service with our musicians that will engage all of our musical cohorts, and join us for a variety of musical offerings throughout the weekend.

We lift up and celebrate the meaningful tzedek (justice) and chesed (compassion) work with which our community is engaged, alongside our partners in the Greater Boston area and beyond. During the service, children are invited to participate in an age-appropriate session while babysitting is offered to our youngest attendees. After services, dinner is served to all catered by our Black-owned business partners.

THURSDAY IS TILLI DAY!

by Barbara Koff and Priscilla Golding, TILLI Co-Chairs

TILLI looks forward to joining together with you. For the first time, over 100 participants are registered for our diverse study group programs, theater, museum tours, and music. Thursday is TILLI day!

Our fall semester began October 31 and runs for 6 weeks, until December 12. We come together to join new and old friends for study groups. We have seven classes, including short stories, country music, Old Testament, Shakespeare, Jews of Spain, Jewish genealogy, and Jewish Justices of the Supreme Court. Even if you can't attend a study group, you can join us for our Lunch and Learn speaker series. This semester we are learning about a range of topics including Isabella Stewart Gardner, the Metropolitan Waterworks Museum, and Judaism and the Environment. Study groups and speakers are an opportunity to get to know and learn from some of the talented members of our congregation, as well as outside speakers.

In addition to our fall and spring semesters, TILLI now has Thursdays scheduled throughout the winter and summer! This winter, we are planning programs in art and music, including speakers on Jazz, Blues, and Ballet. There will be trips to Hebrew College for an art show and virtual trips to Mishkan Museum in Israel and the Paul McCartney exhibit in San Francisco. Look for the final program announcements in December. Summer brings us to outside activities, such as discounted tickets at Huntington Theater, a trip to Tanglewood, and tours of West End and Studio without Walls. Please join us!

We need more talented study group leaders to facilitate discussions and enlarge our program offerings. Is there something you are enthusiastic about or want to learn about? What better way than to present your ideas to a group of interested learners! If you want to lead a study group in the spring, please contact Emma Glaser at eglaser@tisrael.org.

BOSTON PRE-K AT THE FJECC PRESCHOOL

This is our first year welcoming children to FJECC via Boston Public Schools' Boston Pre-K program. There are 17 children enrolled in the Green Room, and 11 of those are funded through Boston Pre-K. Some things are different, and many things are the same. More families in Boston, Jewish and otherwise, will be able to experience the magic of the FJECC, while our program will be robustly enrolled from the youngest to the oldest classrooms.

Here some basic facts about Boston Pre-K at the FJECC:

WHAT IS IT?

- Boston Pre-K is a high-quality Pre-Kindergarten program available to families who are Boston residents, funded and administered by Boston Public Schools.
- "Focus Curriculum," is a nationally- recognized, play-based curriculum focused on early literacy and whole-child development.
- It is a guide for the Green Room teachers that aligns with FJECC educational values and philosophy, with room for flexibility from the teachers to meet children where they are.
- Children in the Green Room will continue to benefit from our commitment to supporting open-ended play, social development, time in the outdoor classroom, and plenty of sensory play.

WHY ARE WE DOING IT?

- The FJECC strives to be accessible to more Temple Israel families, the greater Boston Jewish community, and the broader Boston community.
- Equal access to quality education is a fundamental right that the FJECC is honored to be able to support in the city of Boston and aligns with Temple Israel's commitment to racial equity, diversity, and inclusion.
- Sustaining robust enrollment in the FJECC's Pre-K classrooms is a fiscally sound practice, and it supports proper opportunities for social interactions as children prepare for kindergarten and first grade.

WHAT DOES THE DATA SHOW?

- 8 children have been at the FJECC for 1-3 years.
- 5 children attend Temple Israel Religious School on Sundays.
- 7 children are completely new to the FJECC and/or Temple Israel.
- 5 different languages are spoken in the homes of Green Room families (as a comparison, 4 languages are spoken in the homes of Yellow, Red, and Blue Room families).

Temple Israel of Boston's Ner Tamid Society

For more than 165 years, Temple Israel has provided a home to the Boston Jewish community. We are proud to uplift our spirits in song, to unite in our commitment to justice, and to serve as a refuge in times of joy and in times of sorrow.

The Ner Tamid is the light that shines above the ark in every synagogue of the world, a symbol of our presence and determination to sustain our traditions, even as we respond to change. The Ner Tamid Society honors supporters who perpetuate the legacy of Temple Israel. By including Temple Israel in your estate plans, you ensure that the eternal light continues to burn strongly for generations to come.

With your bequest or other planned gift to Temple Israel, you become a member of the Ner Tamid Society. Your name will be inscribed in the Ner Tamid Society honor roll, and you will be invited to events exclusively for Ner Tamid Society members. Join us, and be part of a legacy that lives on in every generation of Temple Israel.
