SJS LANCER CAFÉ WELCOMES SPECIAL GUESTS

The Lancer Café is a luncheon hosted by a different grade each month during which students practice their table manners and conversation skills with distinguished guests. The meal is prepared by RPM Dining Services and served by parent volunteers.

ARCHDIOCESAN TEACHER OF THE YEAR IS SAINT JOSEPH'S OWN JESSICA VALDES

LEARN MORE ABOUT THE CATHOLIC FAITH

RCIA, or Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, is an opportunity to learn more about Catholicism and to become fully initiated into the Catholic Church.

Anyone who would like to inquire about becoming a fully initiated Catholic through the sacraments, or any Catholic adult who would like to be confirmed, is welcome and should contact Msgr. David Hubba at 201-261-0148 ext. 11.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

This week has two of the Church's most important days of worship. Monday is All Saints Day (not a holy day of obligation this year), when we recall the famous and ordinary people who have reached the life of Heaven. Tuesday is All Souls Day, when we pray for all the dead, especially those completing their readiness for Heaven in Purgatory.

■ One saint of great importance who is not widely known today is St. Anselm (c. 1033-1109), a Doctor (or key teacher) of the Church, whose life was too complicated to describe in a few paragraphs. A native of the border region of today's Italy and France, he became an exemplary Benedictine monk who relished his monastic life but was called on to serve the Church as Archbishop of Canterbury, England's chief diocese, at a time when the usual heavy demands of that office were entangled with the difficult political realities of dealing with kings and the pressures their expectations of loyalty often imposed. Pressed between this and a need to pursue reforms in the Church, Anselm once said, "I saw in England many evils whose correction belonged to me and which I could neither remedy nor, without personal guilt, allow to exist." In addition to this dilemma, he was twice forced into exile.

Anselm is probably best known now for his contributions to philosophy. His briefly stated attempt to prove God's existence argues that since God is "that than which nothing greater can be conceived," he must have existence since, without it, we could conceive a superior entity. We can chew on that for quite a while, as philosophers have for centuries, whether praising or disputing its validity.

Anselm's spiritual guidance is far easier to comprehend. I've always valued these words he once wrote as a fine way to begin a session of prayer:

Come now, little man, put aside your business for a while, take refuge for a little from your tumultuous thoughts; cast off your cares, and let your burdensome distractions wait. Take some leisure for God; rest awhile in him ..., put out everything except God and whatever helps you to seek him. ... Say now to God with all your heart, "I seek your face, O Lord, your face do I seek."

■ James Monti, who writes about the history of the liturgy, translated a medieval hymn for the excellent prayer periodical Magnificat. It offers consolation to anyone who has seen a loved one die, especially in its lines

In a verdant place, O Lord,
set them there;
On the water of refreshment,
lead forth their souls to life.

At our customary All Souls Day Mass (Tuesday evening at 7:30) we will read out the names of those who have had funerals at Saint Joseph this past year. If you will be attending this Mass and have experienced a recent loss of someone whose funeral took place elsewhere, you are welcome to submit his or her name so it can be added to the list.

We can all take heart from Bach's cantata "Gladly I Bear the Cross" as we ponder the inevitability of death. It says, at one point:

My journey through life is like a
voyage at sea,
affliction, trouble and distress engulf me
like waves and daily threaten me
with death;
but my true anchor is God's mercy,
which often gladdens my heart.
He tells me that he will never forsake or neglect me.
And when the angry tempest is over,
I shall step from the ship into
my own city, the heavenly kingdom,
to which I shall attain with the
blessed, freed from cares.

Msgr. David Hubba

ALL SAINTS DAY—MONDAY, NOVEMBER 1

Because it falls on a Monday this year, the Solemnity of All Saints in 2021 is NOT a holy day of obligation.

MASSES are Monday, November 1 at 7:00 am, 8:30 am and 7:30 pm

ALL SOULS MASS—TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 2

A special Mass commemorating the faithful departed will be celebrated at Saint Joseph Church on Tuesday, November 2 at 7:30 pm during which the names of those who have died this year will be read aloud.

IN SAINT JOSEPH'S FOOTSTEPS
30 DAYS OF MEDITATIONS
—STARTING NOVEMBER 8

In honor of this Year of Saint Joseph, our parish is offering parishioners the opportunity to purchase the book In the Footsteps of Saint Joseph, a 30-day meditation by Fr. Mark Toups, published by Ascension Press.

There is a limited supply of books available, so be sure to get yours now. The cost is $14 per book. If interested, please contact Teresa Glenn at tjk1025@aol.com or Marilyn Ivory at mclivory@gmail.com

PLENARY INDULGENCE

In conjunction with the three usual conditions (sacramental Confession, reception of Eucharistic Communion and prayer for the intentions of the Holy Father), individuals participating in these days of meditation and the consecration to St. Joseph can receive the gift of a plenary indulgence during this special Year of St. Joseph (which concludes on December 8, 2021).

YOUTH AND ADULT
ALTAR SERVERS NEEDED

Saint Joseph Parish is looking for volunteers who would like to be trained to assist at Mass as

Youth or Adult Altar Servers.

This ministry not only provides assistance to the parish priests, but also is a great way to deepen one's prayer life and experience at Mass.

The sign-up form for Youth/Teen Servers can be found in the back of the Church.

The completed form should be dropped off in the parish office/rectory mailbox or scanned and emailed to Fr. Christian at fatherchristian@sjcnj.org or to Jen Sullivan at jensullivan07@gmail.com

Adults who wish to serve should contact Mike Petrella at mopetrellamd@gmail.com to sign up.

This ministry is open to anyone Grade 4 and above including teens and adults! Training will be offered on Saturday, November 13 at 11:30 am.

Please contact Fr. Christian or Jen Sullivan with any questions or concerns regarding Youth/Teen servers, or Mike Petrella at mopetrellamd@gmail.com for questions regarding Adult altar servers.

STEWARDSHIP HEART

“And ‘to love him with all your heart, with all your understanding, with all your strength, and to love your neighbor as yourself’ is worth more than all the burnt offerings and sacrifices.” (Mark 12:33)

Of all the gifts that God gives us, the one He wants the most is our heart. He wants us to be Stewards out of our love for Him, not out of obligation. Using our talent in parish ministry and contributing money to support our parish mission is important, but it's more important to spend time in prayer with God daily and discern how He is calling us to be generous with all of our gifts. Not just the visible ones, but the invisible ones like love, mercy and forgiveness.

BREAD & WINE INTENTION

The bread and wine for the week of October 31, 2021 is offered in loving memory of the

GOSPEL

Love God above all things. You have choices. You choose whether to let your younger sister play a game with you. You can give four quarters to the poor or you can buy a candy bar. You can eat the whole candy bar, or share it with a friend. In church you can fidget and complain, or you can say, "OK, Lord, I am sitting quietly because I love you."

PRAYER

Dear God, help me love you better than toys, movies, candy and games.
