The Most Holy Body And Blood Of Christ ~ June 2, 2024

THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, and they all drank from it. He said to them, "This is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed for many. Amen, I say to you, I shall not drink again the fruit of the vine until the day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God." - Mk 14:23-25

A note from Fr. Christian

The Eucharist, the REAL PRESENCE of Jesus - body, soul, and divinity - is central to our faith. There's something truly special about walking into any Catholic church and seeing the tabernacle with that sanctuary lamp burning brightly near it... showing us that Jesus Christ is truly present within our midst. Regardless of what a church's architecture looks like or anything else... we can still feel a tremendous inner warmth because of our awareness of the Real Presence of Jesus that fills us with love, peace, and security.

Some years ago, I had an opportunity to travel to many Catholic churches in the Holy Land and Rome. Many of these churches were truly beautiful. One could sense the hard work and devotion of the people who gave their time, talent, and resources into constructing their walls, crafting their art, and decorating the worship space. And yet, no matter what church building we entered... one could sense that it was the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist, present in the tabernacles, that made everything special.

As we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, Corpus Christi, may we strive each day to recognize the precious gift of the Eucharist and actively work to conform our hearts to become more like that of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

*With prayer,
Fr. Christian*

Join us in thanking the Children's Choir (seen here with Cantor, Josephine Peacock) as they break for the Summer. Their beautiful singing has brightened the spirits of all who attend the 9:00 am Mass on the first Sunday of the month. If your child (grades 3-8) is interested in joining the Children's Choir when they return in the Fall, please contact our Director of Music, Monroe Quinn at quinnm@sjcnj.org.

BIG THANKS to the Adult Choir as they take a very well-deserved break for the Summer. In addition to dazzling audiences at our annual Christmas Concert and singing so beautifully at the 10:30 Mass each and every Sunday, their dedication and hard work helped make this past Triduum extra special. If you wish to join the Adult Choir when they resume in September, please speak with Director of Music, Monroe Quinn after Mass, or email him at quinnm@sjcnj.org. (Photo courtesy Ellen Solinas)

The Society of Saint Lydia at St. Joseph's Church

We are excited to announce a new chapter of the The Society of Saint Lydia here at St. Joseph's Church! We invite all Catholic women to join us, as we follow the example of Saint Lydia to live a life of devotion to God and service to the Church. Our community has small group gatherings and events here at our parish, and at other locations, that include days of reflection, workshops, and retreats. In our small group gatherings, we encourage each other through prayer, study, apostolate, sorority, and witness. Together, we gently foster our communities, lead others in the faith, and spread the Gospel. You may have seen one of us at Mass wearing a silk purple shawl. Please consider this purple shawl an open invitation to ask us about Saint Lydia and our beautiful society. For more information, please email thesocietyofsaintlydia@gmail.com or visit our website at thesocietyofsaintlydia.org.
