THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

They were overjoyed at seeing the star, and on entering the house they saw the child with Mary his mother. They prostrated themselves and did him homage. Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. - Mt 2:10-11

Virtues for 2022 In the big and the small things

"Whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things." (Philippians 4:8)

If someone proudly exclaimed to you "I am a good person! I have never murdered anyone!", you would hardly be compelled to present him with an award or certificate of achievement. Murder is a grave moral evil and, therefore, among the very last acts anyone should ever commit in his or her life! As such, it is truly a minimal measure of a person's "goodness" if they can claim to have restrained themselves from committing the act. We would want to know much more about that person: Do they tell the truth and live by it? Do they respect the full dignity of other human beings? Are they honest in all of their dealings? Etc. etc. etc.

Consider if you were to experience me as a liar in the many small things of life: I lie about my weight. I lie about my wealth and accomplishments. I routinely lie to simple and direct questions posed to me. And, if I am not routinely lying in the strict sense, then I engage in exaggeration and other such distortions. Would you trust me with your money, or your business, or the lives of your children? If I am not committed to the truth in the smallest of things, should you trust me in the really big matters?

The issue at hand in this column concerns good, human character in general and Christian Character in particular. In our day and age people are looking for spouses or 'significant others' on specifically Christian or Catholic dating sites on the internet. And one assumes that such people are not simply looking for a person who gives intellectual assent to propositions in the Bible and/or the Catechism. No! They are looking for a person whose life is shaped, through and through, by the values of the Gospel and the person of Jesus Christ. Such is to say, one is looking for a person of a Catholic/Christian character. And this is not merely a matter of ensuring compatibility but because a person who has habituated Christian virtues in his/her life has the best foundation for sharing his/her life with another in sacrificial love.

We need not appeal to such an intimate union as marriage to value good character in a person. If you wanted to hire someone for your business, and you are a person who adheres to the highest, ethical standards, you would certainly attempt to discern, not only the technical capabilities of an applicant but their moral character. A person may be a great salesman but if his character is sketchy with respect to his relationship with the truth or his treatment of people then you can expect a failure down the line, even if sales go through the roof in the meantime. Is it worth it? Do the ends justify the means? What ethical compromises, in your name, will be made in the course of that person's employment?

Gravely serious matters like murder, adultery, thievery and bearing false witness, (among many others), are certainly founded on character which has habituated itself to lies or radical self-centeredness or some other moral pathology. It isn't any sort of profound discovery to connect the really big moral failures with failure in the smaller things.

Judge not lest you be judged! Jesus words from Matthew 7 are misconstrued as an absolute prohibition against judging people. However, in context, the point is that judgement must be made according to God's standards and as part of a careful discernment aided by the Holy Spirit. We cannot make judgements of other people as if we occupy a higher moral plane; we are all sinners. However, we can measure the character of others against the Holy Word of God to guide our decision making. In fact, we must engage in this sort of discernment if we are going to make good decisions about friendships, marriages, business partners and so much else. Again, when we see bad character in small matters, why should we not expect such in more serious things?

Holy Hour for Vocations

Each Wednesday, from 9:30am to 10:30am we will have a Holy Hour for Vocations at OLV. Please consider joining us as we pray for an increase in vocations to the priesthood and religious life in the Diocese of Fall River.

Gathering Grandmothers

The Gathering Grandmothers meet each Friday at OLV at Noon. We welcome all new members. Please join us.

Faith in Action Opportunity: Wedding Coordinators, A Joyful Ministry!

We are happy to offer a wonderful, rewarding ministry opportunity! We are looking for a few people to join our wedding coordinator ministry. You'll work with couples on a one-on-one basis a couple weeks before their wedding, and assist at their rehearsal and wedding day. Please contact Kelley, kjs@olvparish.org for information.

Cape Cod Hospital: Clergy Visit

There is a priest on call at all times at Cape Cod Hospital. If someone you love is ill, and in need of a priest, the fastest way to contact the priest on call is to ask the patient's nurse to page the priest on call or to call the Cape Cod Hospital switchboard and ask to have the Catholic Chaplain paged. If it is not an emergency, you may also call the office at 508-862-5287. Please do not call local parishes looking for a priest as this is likely to lead to confusion and delay. Remember: Sacraments can only be given to the living, so call the Chaplain as soon as possible.

Weather Cancellations

During the week, if Barnstable schools are cancelled, Mass and all activities, whether parish or community sponsored, are cancelled as well.

If schools are delayed, morning Mass is cancelled, but the Parish Office will be open as soon as we can safely travel. All morning events, parish or community event, held in the Church or Parish Center will be cancelled; afternoon activities will be held.

On the weekends, we will make the decision as early as possible.

In any case, please use your best judgment on travel, since conditions can change rapidly.

We will post closings on the TV on WCVB, and on the radio stations WXTK, WCOD and Cool-102, as well as WQRC, WOCN, WKPE, and capecod.com. If we are able, we will also post on Facebook as well as our websites.

Our Lady's Guild

Mission Statement: To bring the women of the parishes together in community and to promote our spiritual, charitable and social activities. Now that the holiday rush is over, please join us on Thursday, January 13, 2022 at 1PM at Our Lady of the Assumption for some New Year Fellowship and a soup lunch for which we request a $5 Free Will offering upon arrival. Location for the meeting will depend on the response. Please bring your donation of White Socks for St. Joseph House, and as always please bring a friend. RSVP to: Marie Greer 508-420-1687.

On-Line Giving Is Easy At OLV and OLA

Please prayerfully consider giving to our parish community online as it does benefit our parish in many important ways. It's safe. It's simple. It's convenient. Donations can be made using credit or debit cards, checking or savings account. Go to olvparish.org or assumption-capecod.org and click on the WeShare link. Thank you!

Knights of Columbus: Solidarity Cross Project

To date the Knights have given away more than 1,700 small white crosses. We are fortunate that we have a Knight who has been producing these great expressions of our belief that we are a Christian nation. We are in need of help to produce these crosses. The Knights will supply the materials and instructions on how to make them. If you are handy and have a bench saw, drill press, and a dado set and are willing to help us, please contact us by sending an email to council2525@yahoo.com.

Prayers For The Military

Please look at the names on the lists. Remember in your prayers those serving our country. If there is a name/rank of someone that should be updated or removed, please let me know: Kim@OLVParish.org

Calendars Are Now Available

The 2022 calendars are available to be picked up at the church entrances and in the office. Please take one home with you. They have lovely images and all the important dates in the liturgical year. Thank you to the Cape Cod Package Store for donating these calendars.

We are committed to provide as safe an environment for worship as possible. Please continue to utilize hand sanitizer and if you are ill, please worship with us from home. The Diocese of Fall River continues to strongly encourage all parishioners to wear masks while attending Mass or any other liturgical celebration unless unable because of a medical condition or under the age of two.

Men's Spirituality Group: Working on Becoming Saints

Join us for the Men's Spirituality Group in Remembrance of Bobby Brown. Deacon Ted Lukac will lead us in prayer and discussion. We will be studying the lives of saints to learn how they became holier and then have discussion on how we can emulate their great examples of love of God.

We meet on the first Monday of each month from October to June from 7PM to 8:15 PM at the OLV Office, Room M-1. Next meeting will be January 3 All men of the parish of OLV, OLH and OLA are welcome. These men come from every walk of life and the only requirement is that you want a greater relationship with God. So mark your calendar.

Pavers For St. Clare's Garden

The St. Clare's Memorial Peace Garden at OLV was dedicated in memory of Mary P. Lees. St. Clare was a beautiful Italian noble woman who became the Foundress of an order of nuns now called Poor Clare Sisters. When she heard St. Francis of Assisi preach, her heart burned with a great desire to imitate Francis in serving God by living a poor humble life for Jesus. So one evening she ran away from home, and in a little chapel outside Assisi, gave herself to God. Statues of both St. Clare and St. Francis are installed in the garden. Pavers in the Garden can be purchased "In Honor of" or "In Memory of" a loved one. Consider purchasing one as a thoughtful gift. Pavers are $125 for 6x6 size and $150 for the 6x9 size. Donation forms can be filled out in the OLV Parish Office during normal business hours. We hope the garden serves as a place for quiet reflection and prayer.

We are pleased to announce a new session of divorce ministry for men and women who have suffered from divorce: Surviving Divorce. SOLEMNITY OF THE
EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

The sanctity of home

"Home is where the heart is" is an ancient proverb. Many folks find their deepest level of satisfaction and fulfillment in family life. But home is also where the hearth is: the place to which we come in from the cold to restore ourselves, where we put up our feet, sigh, and relax. Our homes are sacred to us; why not commend them to God? On Epiphany, we're invited to gather with our loved ones to bless the door, walls, and table of our dwelling. Compose your own blessing together or visit the USCCB's Blessing of the Home and Household on Epiphany for the rite of home blessing. "The star they had seen at its rising preceded them, until it came and stopped over the place

MEMORIAL OF THE MOST HOLY NAME OF JESUS

Initial reflections

Do you have anything monogrammed with your initials, perhaps towels or clothing? While monogramming is decorative, it also marks your belongings as yours. Jesus has a monogram too: "IHS," which stands for the first three letters of the Greek spelling of the name of Jesus. Later the monogram was associated with the Latin phrase Iesus Hominum Salvator (Jesus Humankind's Savior). There is power in the very name of Jesus and so Catholics venerate it. Perhaps you've seen this monogram on altars or vestments. Jesuits use the IHS monogram as the emblem of their society. You can bear his monogram too—by calling on his name and showing to the world that you belong to him.

MEMORIAL OF ELIZABETH ANN SETON, RELIGIOUS

Fed by the bread of life

Raised Episcopalian, Elizabeth Ann Seton knew about Jesus multiplying loaves. On Sundays, she was a devout communicant at historic Trinity Church on Wall Street. But it wasn't until Elizabeth went to Italy with her children and husband in 1803, attending Mass with Catholic friends, that she was drawn to the Real Presence in the Eucharist. "How happy would we be, if we believed what these dear souls believe," she wrote, "that they possess God in the sacrament, and that He remains in their churches and is carried to them when they are sick!" In honor of Mother Seton, the first U.S.-born saint, resolve to receive Communion more often this year.

MEMORIAL OF JOHN NEUMANN, BISHOP

Get to know your neighbors

Today we celebrate the feast of Saint John Neuman, the first Redemptorist priest ordained in the United States and the first male U.S. citizen named a saint. Neumann, who emigrated to the United States from Bohemia as a young man desirous of being a missionary, is revered for his tireless work among immigrants in the Northeast. He had a talent for understanding people and knowing what would bring them peace and comfort. Seek to emulate this holy man, who one of his fellow bishops observed, "had a solution for every question posed," and an "unruffled composure, which betokened deep humility and perfect self-control. I always regarded him as a saint."

"If we love one another, God remains in us, and [God's] love is brought to perfection in us."

MEMORIAL OF ANDRÉ BESSETTE, RELIGIOUS

The comeback kid of Québec

Saint André Bessette’s remarkable life began when he was born into poverty in 1845. Orphaned by age 12, considered a failure in school, he practiced unskilled trades until his pastor encouraged him to join the Congregation of the Holy Cross. The congregation reluctantly admitted him, concerned about his frail health. Brother André defied expectations, living to age 91 and becoming famous throughout Québec for the many healings people experienced after visiting him in his role as a humble doorkeeper. Why not ask Brother André for his intercession, be it for mental, spiritual, relational, or physical healing?

“The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring glad tidings to the poor.”

MEMORIAL OF RAYMOND OF PEÑAFORT, PRIEST

Make straight your path

Through its long history, the church has been careful to make a distinction between the canons, or rules, of the church and the laws of the state. The canons, from the Greek kanon for “straight,” were meant to guide Catholics toward the mission of the church—to keep them on the straight and narrow of faith, so to speak. There are 1,752 canons, many that pertain to all of us. For example, Canon 210: “All the Christian faithful must direct their efforts to lead a holy life and to promote the growth of the church and its continual sanctification, according to their own condition.” In honor of the patron saint of canon lawyers, Saint Raymond of Peñafort, do your best to follow the rules of the church and give witness to God’s saving love. “God gave us eternal life, and this life is in his Son.”

Increasing Christ

Tomorrow, the Baptism of the Lord, marks the end of the Christmas season and the beginning of Ordinary Time. The days, dates, and seasons of the church’s liturgical calendar focus the whole People of God on the same celebrations. During Advent we prepare. In Christmas we welcome. Lent is a time of reflection and repentance. Easter is new life. In Ordinary Time we celebrate the ongoing effects of God’s grace. So when “Silent Night” or “We Three Kings” is sung throughout the world, the air fills with the grace generated by God in our hearts. Sing a Christmas hymn today and know that the stars are singing with you.

“He must increase; I must decrease.”

Faith Demands
Worship

Pope Francis prayed that at the start of the new year, we might “discover anew that faith demands worship.” Adoration, he said, “means putting the Lord at the centre, not ourselves.” <https://www.vaticannews.va/>

Please Pray For A Priest Each Day

Lord God, Let us pray that our gratitude for those in ordained life may inspire us to serve with open hearts.

The Green Team

You may be heating your home and the outdoors due to faulty windows and doors. Faulty doors and windows allow cold air from outside into the house through the edges due to poor weather stripping or inability to close properly. Consider buying new weather stripping and installing it on your doors and windows to prevent air leakage. Ensure that you have double-pane or triple-pane windows because they provide maximum insulation hence your warm house will not lose heat through the single-pane glass.

To support married couples during this time of social distancing, Worldwide Marriage Encounter is sponsoring virtual marriage experiences. Some are on weekends and are seven sessions on weekdays from 7:00pm to 9:30pm. Couples will explore their individual personality styles, improve listening and communication skills, understand God's plan for their marriage, and learn how to keep their relationship a priority. Registration is limited and a $100 application fee is required. For more information or to apply, call at or visit them at <https://wwmema.org/>

Adoration at St. Francis Xavier Church

Join us Monday through Friday, Noon to 3pm for Adoration. All are welcome. 19 Cross St., Hyannis.

Epiphany of the Lord

The song "We Three Kings" details the gifts of the Magi, but do you know what you're singing? "Born a king on Bethlehem's plan, gold I bring to crown Him again." This one is the most straightforward - gold symbolizes the Kingship of Christ. "Myrrh is mine: its bitter perfume breathes a life of gathering gloom." Myrrh is an embalming spice. Already at Christ's birth, we have the symbolic reminder of his death. "Frankincense to offer have I. Incense owns a deity nigh." In many religious traditions, incense symbolizes prayers rising to heaven. In some pagan traditions, it is thought to help "call down" the deity. The gift of frankincense symbolizes Jesus' role as the Great High Priest, sanctifying the world through his sacrifice.
