St. Norbert | June 6

Born to nobility, St. Norbert of Xanten, was ordained as a subdeacon and served in the court of Henry V, Emperor of Germany, however, at court it was easy to be distracted by wealth, power and luxury and he lived a worldly and corrupt life there. By the grace of God while traveling in a storm he was nearly struck by lightning and almost killed. This experience changed St. Norbert and he became penitent, left his court post, and after a period of discernment in a monastery, felt called to be a priest.

Norbert became an itinerant preacher, preaching against worldly attitudes but at the Pope's request finally settled in northern France and founded the Norbertine order established according to the rule of St. Augustine. The order grew rapidly and soon founded a women's branch. Norbert traveled and preached across Germany where he also founded a lay branch of the Norbertines. In Belgium he preached against heresies which denied the Blessed Sacrament.

Eventually he was made Archbishop of Magdeburg, Germany, and later he traveled to Rome in support of Pope Innocent II, against the antipope. Afterward he returned to Germany to court of Emperor Lothar as advisor, at end of life, in failing health, St. Norbert was carried back to Magdeburg where he died.

Did you Know?

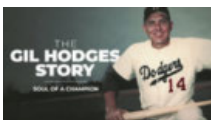

Who can take Holy Communion to the sick and homebound?

The Church entrusts bishops, priests, and deacons with the ministry of taking Holy Communion to the sick. The clergy are ordinary ministers of Holy Communion. When a layperson takes the Eucharist to the sick, they act as an extraordinary minister of Holy Communion. In other words, he or she acts in an extraordinary capacity because the priests and deacons are unable to meet the needs of all the Catholics in a specific area.

Canon Law 910 explains, a layperson may become an extraordinary minister of Holy Communion in two ways. First, if any layman receives the ministry of acolyte. An acolyte automatically becomes an extraordinary minister of Holy Communion, in the same way that a deacon becomes by law, an ordinary minister of Holy Communion upon his ordination. Canon 230 provides for the possibility of other lay people to become extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion. They may perform these duties at Mass, or, if trained, outside of Mass. Yet they may only do so when the number of clergy and acolytes are insufficient to carry out this duty. Lay ministers of Holy Communion should always maintain open communication with the pastor, as well as any other priest or deacon or pastoral associates who oversees the layperson's ministry to the sick.

All must show proper reverence toward the Eucharist at all times. This includes the time spent transporting and handling the Holy Eucharist. Lay ministers should observe the proper liturgical rite when taking Holy Communion to the sick. There are several different rites that can be used outside of the Mass. A lay minister should consult with the pastor when he or she is uncertain which rite to use. A lay minister should also prepare carefully, making sure that he or she is familiar with the rite and completely understands it. A lay minister that has not been trained by whoever oversees this ministry CANNOT take the Eucharist out of the Church. Furthermore, no one should ever take the Eucharist from the tabernacle themselves or ask another lay person to do this for them. Only the Priest, Deacon or acolyte can give Holy Communion out to those administering the rite of communion outside of Mass.

THE CATHOLIC FAITH.
ON DEMAND.

This week kids let's watch Lukas tell us the story of, "Saint Luke and the call to be a Saint." In this inspiring episode, Lukas helps his friends discover the meaning of their names as they learn about their patron saints, while Lukas recalls his own encounter with Jesus and how it changed his life forever.

Setting Our Hearts Aflame

Let's Set the Church on Fire on Pentecost!

No, I am not advocating arson! Back in October of 2008, I began writing this column in response to a book I had read on pastoral planning and the renewal of parish life. I had written "In the very near future our diocese will be faced with a shortage of priests and we must start thinking now what this will mean to us and how we practice our faith." This day has come. We formed the Cranberry Catholic Collaborative (three churches/2 parishes) as part of a response to the priest shortage and then later, as the pandemic worsened the priest shortage, we formed our newish St. Isidore Parish. We have spent the past few years reflecting upon better ways of "being Church." We, the laity, people like you and me, need to rise to the challenge. God calls, we respond.

We have a good parish here at St. Isidore Parish. Are we content with being only good or do we want to "set the church on fire" with the Holy Spirit to become a truly great parish? Forming a great parish depends upon us, the parishioners. Jesus depended on His apostles, who were everyday people to form His Church and now we take up His call to discipleship. As we go forward, ask yourselves "Where does God need me? What can I do to help? Where do I fit in?" Please begin your reflection with prayer for our parish. We live in exciting times and Jesus needs our assistance to keep the enthusiasm going and growing!

The day of Pentecost is often called the "birthday of our Church". It is the moment when the earliest apostles and followers of Jesus heard the call of the Holy Spirit to go forth and spread the Gospel and to share their witness to Jesus' life, ministry, death and resurrection. Are we ready to heed God's call as well? It is time to "set the church on fire" with the Holy Spirit and become a truly great Church and may God bless our parish of St. Isidore (the Farmer) and those who live in our communities who yearn to hear our stories, our faith, and the love Jesus has for all of us. Peace be with you, Holly

PS: Please consider sharing your story of faith with us in the bulletin, small group setting, or perhaps with your friends and family. One-by-one we set the world on fire!

Sts. Martha and Mary Music News

This Sunday, June 5, is the final choir Sunday of the season with both the adults and children singing together. I want to thank both the adults and the children for giving their time, the adults during the full season and the children whom Rita and I reorganized as a group just prior to Easter, and thus for Easter Sunday, Divine Mercy Sunday, and for today. My hope for the future is that more children will get involved so that next year the children may be able to sing at Mass by themselves once every two months.

The children today include the following singers: Daniel Kane, Brianna Falzone, Tyler Falzone, Alexis Willey, and Ellie Wright. Our adult choir members are sopranos: Carol Cannizzo, Diane Enos, Maureen Gaudet, Paula Goodwin, Victoria Leonard, and Rita Rondelli; altos: Marjie Beaton-Kane, Liz Platt, and Michelle Silva; tenors: Henry Rondelli and John Rondelli; basses: Jay Enos, John Paul Silva, and Frank VanDenBerghe. Dylan Lynch is the choir's violinist, John Rondelli is the choir's trumpeter, and of course, Jimmy Dolan is the accompanist.

Once again, many thanks to our music volunteers, both children and adults, who have helped to provide musical leadership and enhance the liturgies!

Henry A. Rondelli, Director of Music
