They were overjoyed at seeing the star, and on entering the house they saw the child with Mary his mother. They prostrated themselves and did him homage. Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. - Mt 2:10-11

GOSPEL MEDITATION
THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

In his Apostolic Exhortation, The Joy of the Gospel, Pope Francis references a thought from Pope Benedict XVI: “Being a Christian is not the result of an ethical choice or a lofty idea, but the encounter with an event, a person, which gives life a new horizon and a decisive direction.” Today we celebrate an encounter with the Person of Jesus Christ! This simple but holy event in time dramatically changes human life, pointing it toward a new horizon and giving it a decisive direction. This is a message and truth that is not meant to be shared with only a select few who qualify but with the entire world. Pope Francis continues saying, “Thanks solely to this encounter or renewed encounter with God’s love, which blossoms into an enriching friendship, we are liberated from our narrowness and self-absorption. We become fully human when we become more than human, when we let God bring us beyond ourselves in order to attain the fullest truth of our being.”

Look around at people. Where is life heading for them? What gives them direction? Even we who are people of faith can get distracted and lose our focus. God, in all of His fullness, is revealed in Jesus Christ and we can encounter Him! God is tangible, real, vulnerable, poor, and full of wonders, surprises, and opportunities. For those who are struggling and lost, today is a day of great joy. All they have to do is reach out and touch the truth of Christ. This presence is revealed in the poor, exploited, and vulnerable ones who cry out for compassion and love. But it is also found in the faithful ones who see in the Epiphany of God a liberation from structures and systems that hurt us, a narrowness of mind and heart that constricts us, and an absorption in our self-agenda that prevents us from seeing anything other than ourselves as important.

We have been given the charge of preaching this Good News. If only we could find a way to be more effective, it might stand a chance of doing what God intended it to do. There is always tomorrow and our memory of that bright new light that shone so brilliantly that Bethlehem night pointing us to truth and reminding us that we are loved.

GO GREEN AT CHRISTMAS!

Check out the flyers at the doors for suggestions on going green at Christmas. How about using comics from the newspapers for wrapping paper, or recycling Christmas cards? How about considering some alternative gift ideas? There is a farm that would love to feed your Christmas tree to their goats in the new year. Give a gift to the world and be a good steward of the limited resources we have by going green for Christmas.

Everyday Stewardship - The Light of the Moon

If you own a television that has been turned on at any point in the last month or so, chances are you've caught at least a scene or two of the 1946 classic film "It's a Wonderful Life."

If you're not familiar with the movie, it follows the life of George Bailey from childhood through adulthood. A dreamer by nature, George has big plans for himself that involve world exploration and adventure - but family and community obligations keep him tethered to the same spot on the map, leading an altogether ordinary life.

One of the most memorable scenes from that movie is of George dancing with his sweetheart Mary while they sing "Buffalo Gals - Won't you come out tonight/And dance by the light of the moon?"

That lyric always catches my ear. Of course, the moon doesn't have any light of its own. All the moon has is the ability to reflect the light that shines upon it.

The same holds for us, doesn't it? Our stewardship is purely a reflection of the grace granted to us by another. "Upon you the LORD shines," writes Isaiah, "and over you appears his glory." Every good action we will ever take begins in the mind of God. The fact that we have the honor of carrying it out on His behalf is a beautiful gift. It is God that makes our ordinary lives extraordinary.

In the end of the movie, George Bailey realizes that he had a far greater life because, instead of being the hero of his own story, he allowed himself to reflect goodness onto others.

Remember - the magi didn't chart their own course. They merely followed the star.

PRAYER HELPERS OF THE PRECIOUS BLOOD MONTHLY PRAYER FOR PRIESTS IN THE DIOCESE OF SPRINGFIELD, MA

"Who then is the priest? He is the defender of truth, who stands with angels, gives glory with archangels, causes sacrifices to rise to the altar on high, and shares Christ's priesthood."

—St. Gregory Nazianzen

Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of God and Queen of the Clergy, these are difficult times in the world, the country, and the Church. The powers of darkness appear to have free rein. Nevertheless, with great trust and confidence, I come as your child to beg your powerful assistance. I ask you to intercede for our priests as only You can. Encourage them in their vitally important ministry, and preserve them in the love of your Son, Jesus. Keep [Name] and all his brother priests close to you, tucked safely under your protective mantle, where they will be shielded from the evil that surrounds them. After their years of earthly service are complete, lead them back safely to the Heart of our Heavenly Father. Amen.

St. Mary's School
... where every child shines!

HAPPY NEW YEAR! Christmas Break is going well. The school is getting a good winter cleaning, our students and faculty are getting some well deserved rest. We will continue to pray for all parishioners, alumni, benefactors and friends of our school. Thank you for your support. May God bless you in the New Year. Happy New Year!

SAVE THE DATE: St. Mary's Golf Tournament is scheduled for May 21, 2022. More details in the Spring. Let it snow for now, but when Spring comes, let the golf balls fly!
