The theme for the 2022 Catholic Schools Week is “Catholic Schools: Faith. Excellence. Service.”

As communities of faith, Catholic schools instill in students their destiny to become saints. Academic excellence is the hallmark of Catholic education intentionally directed to the growth of the whole person – mind, body and spirit. Finally, service is fundamental to Catholic education and the core of Catholic discipleship. Service is intended to help form people who are not only witnesses to Catholic social teaching, but also active participants through social learning.

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

In Saint Peter’s Square on The Feast of the Epiphany 2013, Emeritus Pope Benedict preached this Angelus:

“[T]oday we are celebrating above all the Epiphany of the Lord, his manifestation to the nations, while many Eastern Churches, according to the Julian Calendar, celebrate the Birth. This slight difference that makes these two events overlap highlights that that Child, born in the humility of a grotto in Bethlehem, is the light of the world, who orients the path of all peoples.

“It is a juxtaposition which also makes us reflect also from the viewpoint of faith: moreover, at Christmas in front of Jesus, we see the faith of Mary, of Joseph and of the shepherds; and today on the Epiphany the faith of the three Magi, come from the East to worship the King of the Jews.

“The Virgin Mary, together with her husband, represents the ‘stump’ of Israel, the ‘remnant’ foretold by the prophets, from which the Messiah was to spring. Instead the Magi represent the peoples, and we can say even civilizations, cultures, religions that are — so to speak — on their way to God, searching for his kingdom of peace, justice, truth and freedom. There was first a nucleus, embodied above all by Mary, the ‘daughter of Zion’: a nucleus of Israel, the people that know and have faith in that God who revealed himself to the Patriarchs and on the path of history. This faith is fulfilled in Mary, in the fullness of time; in her, ‘blessed because she believed’, the Word was made flesh, God ‘appeared’ in the world. Mary’s faith becomes the first fruits and the model of the faith of the Church, the People of the New Covenant. But from the beginning this people is universal and we can see this today in the figures of the Magi who arrive in Bethlehem, following the light of a star and the instructions of Sacred Scripture.

“St Leo the Great says: ‘A promise had been made to the holy Patriarch Abraham in regard to these nations. He was to have a countless progeny, born not from his body but from the seed of faith’ (Sermo 3 in Epiphania Domini, 1: PL 54, 240). Mary’s faith can be compared to Abraham’s. It is a new beginning of the same promise, of the same immutable plan of God which now finds fulfilment in Jesus Christ. And the light of Christ is so clear and strong that it makes both the language of the cosmos and of the Scriptures intelligible, so that all those who, like the Magi, are open to the truth can recognize it and come to contemplate the Saviour of the world. St Leo continues: ‘Let the full number of the nations now take their place in the family of the patriarchs... let all people adore the Creator of the universe; let God be known, not only in Judaea, but in the whole world’ (ibid.)”¹

Live for God.
Be transformed by His Grace.
Go and make disciples.
Peace in Christ, Father Michael

Father Michael Reid will be on a MISSIONARY PILGRIMAGE from February 5-12, 2022 to work with the Franciscan Sisters of Divine Providence in Mexico. Your prayer requests and generous gifts to the Padrino Fund will be delivered to the Sisters at that time.

First Penance

will be celebrated in the Church on Sunday, January 30th at 9:00 a.m. (between the two Masses).
