Father Michael Reid and Deacon Bill Roesch will be on a MISSIONARY PILGRIMAGE from February 5-12, 2022 to work with the Franciscan Sisters of Divine Providence in Mexico. Your prayer requests and generous gifts to the Padrino Fund will be delivered to the Sisters at that time.

FISHERS OF MEN

One of the greatest needs the Church has, is that of vocations to the priesthood and religious life. The Diocese has a special fund raiser called "Fishers of Men", to raise money in support of our seminarians. There used to be a dinner in Harrisburg with donors and seminarians. The existing CoViD precautions make this no longer possible. But the need remains.

Please consider including an envelope with a donation for "Fishers of Men" and drop it in the offertory basket during this season. I hope that our Parish is able to raise at least a

Gratitude for Giving

The Parish Council of Catholic Women are grateful to all of our parishioners for their support of our Christmas Charity Tree. The scarves, gloves, hats, etc. filled four large boxes of items to be shared with the poor of Hanover. God's blessings to you and your family for thinking of others during this time of winter and cold weather.

Thank you for Helping to Combat Hunger

The Parish Council of Catholic Women would like to thank all parishioners who helped to combat hunger by purchasing a tray of cookies during "The Cookie Sale To Combat World Hunger". Seventy-one (71) trays of cookies were sold and some donations were received. $1,095 was raised for this project. Moneys will be used to feed the poor in places such as Haiti and the Dominican Republic.

Thrift Shop

Thank you to our Thrift Shop volunteers! We received a check for $1,500.00 for the education of our youth in Catholic Schools.

thousand dollars, the cost of sponsoring one table at the dinner. We can do this and help our Diocesan Vocations Director, Fr. Jonathan P. Sawicki, help our seminarians. Add to your donation a spiritual gift of prayer asking God to hear our intercession for vocations to the Priesthood.

Also, the new 2021-2022 daily prayer card for our seminarians and ordained Priests is available. It is a very simple way to remember to pray for our vocations and our Priests. I know I need your daily prayers as do all of our Priests. Please consider taking home one of the 'Pray for our Priests' cards in the back of the church. Fr Michael

Hanover Area Council of Churches

We are renovating the Clothing Bank to turn it into a Heavenly Thrift Shop! We need to clean, paint, sort clothes and cut down on our inventory.

We need volunteers on Monday—Thursday from 9:00 am to 12:00 pm to help our customers find what they need as well as volunteers to help maintain our store. I can host groups at most anytime! I am currently hosting youth, who often need service hours for their schools on Saturdays at 1:00 pm.

This is a fun place to volunteer, and they can shop while they are here! All clothing and household items are either free or at a minimal cost! We can't have a quality Thrift Store without your help. Please encourage families and other organizations to call me or come by and see me at Hanover Area Council of Churches.

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

In Saint Peter’s Square on the Third Sunday in Ordinary Time in 2013, Emeritus Pope Benedict preached this Angelus:

“Today’s Liturgy brings together two separate passages of Luke’s Gospel and presents them to us. The first (1:1-4) is the Prologue, addressed to a certain ‘Theophilus’. Since this name in Greek means ‘friend of God’ we can see in him every believer who opens himself to God and wants to know the Gospel. Instead the second passage (4:14-21) presents Jesus who, ‘in the power of the Spirit’, goes to the Synagogue in Nazareth on the Sabbath. As a strict observer, the Lord does not disregard the pattern of the weekly liturgy and joins the assembly of his fellow citizens in prayer and in listening to the Scriptures. The ritual provides for the reading of a text from the Torah or the Prophets, followed by a commentary. That day Jesus stood up to read and found a passage from the Prophet Isaiah that begins this way: “The spirit of the Lord God is upon me, because the Lord has anointed me to bring good tidings to the afflicted” (61:1-2). Origen’s comment was: “It is no coincidence that he opened the scroll and found the chapter of the reading that prophesies about him, this, too, was the work of God’s providence” (Homilies on the Gospel of Luke, 32, 3). In fact when the reading was over in a silence charged with attention, Jesus said, ‘Today this scripture has [now] been fulfilled in your hearing’ (Lk 4:21). St Cyril of Alexandria says that ‘today’, placed between the first and the final coming of Christ, is related to the believer’s ability to listen and to repent (cf. PG 69, 1241). But in an even more radical sense, Jesus himself is ‘the today’ of salvation in history, because he brings to completion the work of redemption. The word ‘today’, very dear to St Luke (cf. 19:9, 23:43), brings us back to the Christological title preferred by the Evangelist himself, namely: ‘Saviour’ (sōtēr). Already in the infancy narratives, it is present in the words of the Angel to the shepherds: ‘For to you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, who is Christ the Lord’ (Lk 2:11).

“Dear friends, this Gospel passage also challenges us ‘today’. First of all, it makes us think about how we live Sunday, a day of rest and a day for the family. Above all, it is the day to devote to the Lord, by participating in the Eucharist, in which we are nourished by the Body and Blood of Christ and by his life-giving Word. Second, in our diversified and distracted time, this Gospel passage invites us to ask ourselves whether we are able to listen. Before we can speak of God and with God we must listen to him, and the liturgy of the Church is the ‘school’ of this listening to the Lord who speaks to us. Finally, he tells us that every moment can be the propitious ‘day’ for our conversion. Every day (kathēmeran) can become the today of our salvation, because salvation is a story that is ongoing for the Church and for every disciple of Christ. This is the Christian meaning of ‘carpe diem’: seize the day in which God is calling you to give you salvation!

“May the Virgin Mary always be our model and our guide in knowing how to recognize and welcome the presence of God our Saviour and of all humanity every day of our lives.”¹

Live for God.

Be transformed by His Grace.

Go and make disciples.

Peace in Christ, Father Michael
