Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

DROVE OUT MANY DEMONS

In light of the Gospel this weekend, "So they went off and preached repentance. The Twelve drove out many demons." I thought it was important to speak about Spiritual Warfare. Not to sound dramatic, but we do live in a "world at war." I would like to draw from the wisdom of Fr. John Bartunek, LC and give us all some things to ponder as we seek to be DISCIPLES IN MISSION, who take their call to holiness seriously and desire to be witnesses to the power of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, in both word and deed.

Spiritual Warfare Intro: Part I of IV

Father John Bartunek, LC

<https://spiritualdirection.com/2009/10/26/introduction-to-spiritual-warfare-part-i-of-iv>

Grappling with Spiritual Warfare

I am tempted to bombard you with Scripture quotations in order to clearly reveal that we, as followers of Christ, are by definition soldiers in an ongoing spiritual battle. But there are so many passages that I wouldn't know where to stop. Instead, I will share one of my personal favorites from the documents of the Second Vatican Council. It's from the Constitution on the Church in the Modern World, better known as Gaudium et Spes, paragraph #13:

Although he was made by God in a state of holiness, from the very onset of his history man abused his liberty, at the urging of the Evil One. Man set himself against God and sought to attain his goal apart from God. Although they knew God, they did not glorify Him as God, but their senseless minds were darkened and they served the creature rather than the Creator... Therefore man is split within himself. As a result, all of human life, whether individual or collective, shows itself to be a dramatic struggle between good and evil, between light and darkness. Indeed, man finds that by himself he is incapable of battling the assaults of evil successfully, so that everyone feels as though he is bound by chains. But the Lord Himself came to free and strengthen man, renewing him inwardly and casting out that "prince of this world" (John 12:31) who held him in the bondage of sin.

This "dramatic struggle between good and evil," whose primary arena is every human heart, is what we mean by spiritual warfare. Every day, we are faced with decisions about how to use our time, talents, and treasure, about how to treat those around us, about how to respond to difficulties and opportunities. Our ability to make those decisions, those free choices, is what makes us human – squirrels don't make free choices, they are driven purely by instinct. The quality of those choices determines who we are as human beings, both now and for all eternity. If we repeatedly choose what is good and right, we grow in our communion with the Author of all that is Good and Right, God. If we choose what is evil and self-centered, we distance ourselves from God. And since the very purpose of our existence is to live in communion with God, it is these choices, these free decisions that we make every day, in the most normal circumstances, that determine our everlasting destiny.

As a result, the forces of evil (the devil and his minions, the demons – these are fallen angels who exist in permanent rebellion against God) are interested in influencing those decisions. They want to lure us away from God, expanding their rebellion. They work their influence through temptation. At the same time, God and his servants (the angels and the saints) are working to strengthen us against temptation, so that we can overcome the attacks of evil. This is the normal state of affairs here on earth, and it will be so from now until our Lord comes again at the end of history.

An Imaginary Exercise

If there were a "Spiritual Warfare Daily News," its headlines would differ wildly from the headlines of our newspapers. Earthquakes, forest fires, wars and rumors of wars, stock prices, sports scores, fashions – all these external realities that tend to monopolize our attention would only appear in the background of the main stories. Instead, headlines would say things like, "Plumber Endangers Soul by Overcharging Widow," or "School Teacher Conquers Greed by Cancelling Credit Card," or "Girl Opens Flood of Grace by Being Patient with Her Brother."

FR. MATT'S CORNER

From the point of view of spiritual warfare, which is the point of view of eternal life – God's point of view, the circumstances of the world around us, however dramatic they may appear, are like the stage sets of a theatre play: what really matters is how the characters, you and I, respond to them, confront them, work with them, and carry out our life-mission (to know, love, and follow Christ and helps others do the same) within their parameters.

THANK YOU | RE: OPPORTUNITIES TO GIVE TO SPECIFIC NEEDS

Thank you for the many ways you generously support the mission of Saint J's! It's awesome! Special thank you to those who have generously given to support our most recent giving opportunities. We are so thankful!!!

We recently purchased new audio and visual equipment for the use of our parishes. Most pressing was the need to upgrade our sound system for outdoor events/liturgies, especially the 11am Outdoor Mass, as well as our live-streaming technology (11am gets a lot of traffic and we have been borrowing from others to make it work). We are grateful to the Holy Name Society who said they would help with the costs. All donations are welcome.

Total Need: $5,051.10

Total Donated: $500

This weekend (July 9th-11th) a number of our young people will be traveling to Franciscan University of Steubenville for one of their annual youth conferences. Due to the number of people going, I decided that it was safer for us to get a bus rather than a couple of fifteen passenger vans. This will also allow us time to bond as a group, pray and process well and have a jolly old good time! If 11 parishioners (it was 12) gave gifts of $500 each it would almost cover the entire cost of the bus. It was a parishioner who proposed this idea and then said he would support it and believes we would easily find 11 others. :). Thanks Dad!! I know that is bold, and of course our teens and their families are so grateful for assistance offered; most especially your prayers for a life-changing encounter with Jesus Christ. Thank you for your prayers and consideration.

Total Need: $6,000

Total Donated (7/6/21): $3,500

54 DAY ROSARY NOVENA (June 30-August 22)

The Novena has already begun, but it is not too late begin today. The first 27 days of the novena we will be offering the following petition to Our Lady. Please pray this petition as part of your Rosary.

Saint J's Joy Movement Petition to Our Blessed Mother (1st 27 Days):

Oh Most Gracious Beautiful Mother of our Savior, Spouse of Saint Joseph, Aunt of Saint John the Baptist, and Loving Mother of us all. We come before you begging your intercession for our Saint J's Collaborative. We ask that you, who are the cause of our JOY, intercede for miraculous results through our JOY MOVEMENT. May every parishioner give lovingly and generously of their time, talent and treasure; making J.O.Y. the center of their lives. We pray that our churches will be overflowing with worshipers of Your SON - Our Lord Jesus Christ. We pray your children will love and care for one another and our Church, putting our faith into action. We pray for financial miracles; that as our family grows and tithes, we may be ABUNDANTLY blessed by the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. We pray for the Spirit's gift of NEW LIFE for our parishes and our families, to Jesus through Mary. AMEN!

Until next time, have a JOY-filled week.

Your Brother in Christ,
Fr. Matt+

Greeting

Priest: The Lord be with you.

People: And with your spirit.

Penitential Act Form A (The Confiteor)

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done, and in what I have failed to do, through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

People: Glory to you, O Lord.

After the Gospel reading

Priest: The Gospel of the Lord.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.

The Nicene Creed (continued)

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Blessing over Bread and Wine

People: May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our good and the good of all his holy Church.

A. We proclaim your Death, O Lord, and profess your Resurrection until you come again.

B. When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup, we proclaim your Death, O Lord, until you come again.

C. Save us, Savior of the world, for by your Cross and Resurrection you have set us free.

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.

LIVE THE LITURGY Inspiration for the week

God calls us to bring His Word to all corners of the earth. What does that mean for you and me? We are just simple and humble folks trying to find our way through the Gospel and our world. After all, we are not professional preachers but gentle servants. Jesus summons us to take his message on the road and bring it from the pew to the pavement. We cannot keep the joy of the Gospel to ourselves but must bring it into every aspect of our lives: our families, our schools, our work, our corporations, our politics, our social circles, and our philosophies. We cannot just accept the wisdom of the world as true and conduct our lives as if the Good News is a separate matter. They are one. Jesus never asked his friends to go and construct buildings where people could come to hear the truth. He asked them to go to their homes and meet them one on one, face to face. When the rubber meets the road and the message is challenging, rejection is quite possible. That's the litmus test for whether we're really doing what we have been asked.
