16TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

When he disembarked and saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things. - Mk 6:34

Welcome! We welcome all who have come to worship in our parish community. If you are new to our parish, please introduce yourself to any of the priests. We encourage you to register in the parish by calling the rectory or visiting our website to fill out a registration form. Your presence at our parish is greatly appreciated and welcomed.

FR. MATT'S CORNER

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

May the Lord give us His peace+

I begin this post by thanking all of you for your prayers and support for our young people who attended the Franciscan University Youth Conference this past weekend (July 8th-11th), in Steubenville, OH.

My favorite part of events, retreats and conferences like this is the glow radiating on the faces of the attendees, the light/sparkle in his/her eyes, and the JOY on their faces because of an authentic encounter with Jesus Christ, in the power of the Holy Spirit. Given our 10+ hour journey home, we had ample time for our young people to give their testimony on what happened to them this weekend and how Jesus touched their lives. You would have been amazed to hear what God was doing in their hearts, and how they wanted to bring their faith home and share it with others.

I AM HAPPY TO SAY

THANKS to the generosity of you, our beloved parishioners who love our youth, we have raised $5,000 toward our goal of $6k, to cover the cost of the bus for our trip to Steubenville, OH. As you know, I decided that it was safer for us to get a bus rather than a couple of fifteen passenger vans. We were able to spend more time bonding as a group, as well as praying and processing.

Total Need: $6,000

Total Donated (7/14/21): $5,000

Thank you also to those who have supported the financial need we have for purchasing new audio and visual equipment for the use of our parishes. Most pressing was the need to upgrade our sound system for outdoor events/liturgies, especially the 11am Outdoor Mass, as well as our live-streaming technology (11am gets a lot of traffic and we have been borrowing from others to make it work).

Total Need: $5,051.10

Total Donated (7/14/21): $1,000

Spiritual Warfare Intro: Part II of IV

Father John Bartunek, LC

<https://spiritualdirection.com/2009/11/02/introduction-to-spiritual-warfare-part-ii-of-iv>

An earlier post addressed the fact of spiritual warfare: it is our normal state of being while we are still residents of this fallen world. The earlier post also explained that the arena of this warfare isn't somewhere "out there," but right inside our hearts. Our day-to-day decisions, how we respond to the most mundane circumstances, temptations, and opportunities, constitute the battlefield. When we choose what is good and right, we advance Christ's Kingdom; when we choose what is self-centered and skewed, we deflect God's grace.

Every war has two sides, and spiritual warfare is no different. In order for us to fight effectively, we need to identify the enemy. Spiritual writers have traditionally identified three enemies, actually: the world, the flesh, and the devil. Jesus himself pointed this out in his parable of the sower (Matthew 13). The sower sowed his seed in four different places, but that seed only bore fruit in one place. In the other three, the enemies stifled it.

Enemy #1: The World

Some of the seed fell in decent soil, but weeds (thorn bushes) grew up around it and choked it. The weeds didn't kill the good plant; they just stunted its growth, they kept it from reaching its fulfillment. These weeds Jesus describes as the "cares of the world and the lure of wealth." This corresponds to the first enemy, "the world." The world as God created it was "very good" (Genesis 1:31), but its original harmony was shattered by original sin. Since then, both the physical world around us and also human society have been a mixed bag. The beauties of creation inspire us, but the forces of nature often batter us. The achievements of human culture can lift our hearts towards God, but the horrors of social injustice can throw us almost into despair. The basic direction of human society in this mixed bag of a fallen world tends to drag us towards an illusion, the illusion that with the right combination of material goods (wealth, power, reputation), we can achieve heaven on earth. Every day we are smothered with invitations to believe in this illusion: billboards, commercials, advertisements, books, movies, and the seductive pleasures all within arm's reach whisper in our ears and draw us away from a Christ-centered life. This is enemy number one: the world.

FR. MATT'S CORNER

Enemy #2: The Flesh

The seed sowed on the rocky soil started to grow, but it dried up in the hot sun – just as our good resolutions and desires often dry up when we realize that fulfilling them will involve self-discipline and self-sacrifice. This laziness and reluctance to follow Christ's narrow way, this tendency towards egoism that resides within our very selves, corresponds to "the flesh," enemy number two.

This term is often misunderstood in contemporary spiritual writings, and especially in the writings of those who are critical of Catholicism. Critics misinterpret "flesh" to mean "the body." Our bodies are not our enemies. Our bodies are part of our human nature, created and redeemed by God. Jesus and Mary are in heaven right now, with their bodies.

In terms of the spiritual life, "flesh" refers rather to the self-centered tendencies of our fallen nature. It's kind of a code word for these tendencies, which God in his wisdom allows to endure, even after baptism and even as we grow in holiness. These are the tendencies that lead us towards sin: greed, lust, sloth, gluttony... Another term for this is "concupiscence," which the Catechism describes in #1264: "... an inclination to sin that Tradition calls concupiscence, or metaphorically, 'the tinder for sin' (fomes peccati); since concupiscence is left for us to wrestle with, it cannot harm those who do not consent but manfully resist it by the grace of Jesus Christ. Indeed, an athlete is not crowned unless he competes according to the rules."

This quotation brings up an interesting point. It claims that God chose to leave us with these tendencies to self-centeredness and self-indulgence, so that we could "wrestle with" them. It is no sin to feel the seductive tug of sin; it is no sin to feel the plaintive voice of temptation – indeed, Jesus himself was tempted (though he never gave in). Every time we experience our weakness and encounter temptation, we are faced with an opportunity to win a victory for Christ and his Kingdom, by choosing to be faithful to Jesus as he has been faithful to us. God has a purpose even in the midst of our struggles and battles; he wants us to be active participants in our own salvation and sanctification, not just passive spectators. Life is a real adventure, not a movie that we wistfully watch from an armchair.

Enemy #3: The Devil

The seed sowed on the hardened path couldn't penetrate the soil, so the birds of the air (the devil) ate it up. Jesus never shied away from talking about the devil. The devil is a real factor in our spiritual lives, and we'll look more closely at how he works (mostly by manipulating the world and the flesh) in our next post.

54 DAY ROSARY NOVENA (June 30-August 22)

The Novena has already begun, but it is not too late begin today. The first 27 days of the novena we will be offering the following petition to Our Lady. Please pray this petition as part of your Rosary.

Saint J's Joy Movement Petition to Our Blessed Mother (1st 27 Days):

Oh Most Gracious Beautiful Mother of our Savior, Spouse of Saint Joseph, Aunt of Saint John the Baptist, and Loving Mother of us all. We come before you begging your intercession for our Saint J's Collaborative. We ask that you, who are the cause of our JOY, intercede for miraculous results through our JOY MOVEMENT. May every parishioner give lovingly and generously of their time, talent and treasure; making J.O.Y. the center of their lives. We pray that our churches will be overflowing with worshipers of Your SON - Our Lord Jesus Christ. We pray your children will love and care for one another and our Church, putting our faith into action. We pray for financial miracles; that as our family grows and tithes, we may be ABUNDANTLY blessed by the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. We pray for the Spirit's gift of NEW LIFE for our parishes and our families, to Jesus through Mary. AMEN!

Until next time, have a JOY-filled week.

Your Brother in Christ,
Fr. Matt+

Mass Prayers and Responses

Greeting

Priest: The Lord be with you.

People: And with your spirit.

Penitential Act Form A (The Confiteor)

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done, and in what I have failed to do, through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

After the First and Second Readings

Reader: The Word of the Lord

People: Thanks be to God

Before the Gospel Reading

Priest: The Lord be with you.

People: And with your spirit.

Priest: A reading from the holy Gospel according to....

People: Glory to you, O Lord.

After the Gospel reading

Priest: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.

The Nicene Creed (continued)

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Blessing over Bread and Wine

People: Blessed be God forever.

People: May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our good and the good of all his holy Church.

Sanctus

Everyone: Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts. Heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Memorial Acclamation

Priest: The mystery of faith.

People: ONE OF THESE:

A. We proclaim your Death, O Lord, and profess your Resurrection until you come again.

B. When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup, we proclaim your Death, O Lord, until you come again.

C. Save us, Savior of the world, for by your Cross and Resurrection you have set us free.

Lamb of God

People: Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, grant us peace.

Invitation to Communion

Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

This Week

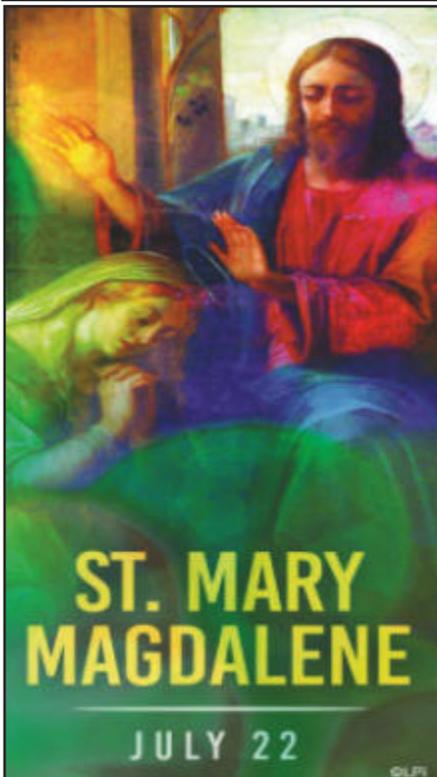

St. John the Baptist - St. Joseph Bereavement Ministry

The Mary Untier of Knots Bereavement Group provides a welcoming, safe, confidential, empathic, compassionate, non-judgmental environment, where participants are able to freely share their experiences of grief and loss.

This ministry utilizes a variety of methods (Scripture, prayer, art, music, journal writing, poetry, etc.) as we discuss our grieving. Most important of all, this ministry provides an understanding and attentive atmosphere, providing compassion and empathy.

There are 6 weekly meetings per session. Participants are expected to attend all meetings. Sessions are limited to 8 participants in order to ensure adequate time for all to share. Early registration is recommended.

Next session begins: Tuesday, July 27th @ 7:00pm on Zoom. To register, send your name, address, phone number and email address to stjohns@stjohnsquincy.org. Or call the parish directly at 617-773-1021. When you hear the recorded message, please press number 9 for the directory and then press number 1 to be connected to the Office Manager, Donna, who will take your information.

How has St. J's most blessed you in the past 6 months:

- As the business manager for our wonderful Collaborative I get to witness the Holy Spirit at work right here in Quincy every day. I get to answer phone calls from people in need and people who want to give to their brothers & sisters in Christ every day. It is awesome being able to see the two sides nurture each other like Jesus asks us to do. We are such a great faith community that I get to write out a tithing check to people or organizations in need every week. I have never been in a parish or collaborative that does this. I get to work in St. Joseph's Food Pantry both handing out food to people who really need help and accepting food donations from people who want to help. Saint J's blesses me every day.

Tell us about your family (place of birth, family background, current family)

- I was born Buffalo, NY where my mother grew up.

My father grew up in Boston so I have family in both cities. I have two brothers and a sister and we moved to Houston, Texas when I was in 7th grade. I attended high school and college in Texas, moved to California and then Indiana for a few years then settled here in Boston where I met my wife Diane. We have two children, Nick (age 26) and Casey (age 24).

Who is Jesus to you? How/when did you encounter Jesus as your personal savior?

- The definition of the word "purpose" is "the reason for which something exists". Jesus is the purpose of my life. He was not always the purpose however. I had to learn this as I grew older and I thank God for all the people he put in my life that helped me understand the purpose of my life. If I had to pick one defining moment when I knew Jesus was my personal savior it would be when I lived my Cursillo. Brothers & sister if you have not given yourself this gift yet, please do so. It will definitely help you understand the purpose of your life.

2021 Catholic Appeal

As of 7/12/2021

St. John the Baptist

St. Joseph

The Catholic Appeal helps to fund 51 Central Ministries of the Archdiocese, some of which have been vitally important to helping us fulfill our collaborative mission and keeping our JOY Movement flourishing. These 51 Central Ministries do not have parishes to directly support them financially, so the Catholic Appeal is one of the primary ways we do this. There are three ways to donate.

1. Mail your donation directly to the Archdiocese at 66 Brooks Drive in Braintree, MA 02184. Please make sure to make the check out to The Catholic Appeal and identify the parish that you are supporting.
2. Go to <https://bostoncatholicappeal.org> and click on the donate link. Follow the instructions.
3. Scan the QR code at the top of this notice.
