FR. MATT'S CORNER

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

May the Lord give us His peace+

It was last year on this weekend that we concluded our first 54 Day Rosary Novena (this year's concludes next weekend). We sought Our Lady's powerful Intercession to provide for the well-being of our parish. We also committed ourselves to putting JOY at the center of our lives: Jesus. Others. Yourself.

Like Our Blessed Mother, we have sought to receive and see all as gift, and offer these gifts back to Our Lord (our time, talent and treasure). In doing so, we have brought and will continue to bring JOY to the WORLD!!

Miracles are happening, God is providing, and light shines forth from YOU! Your "YES," like Mary's, has allowed the Lord to be incarnate in you; loving and serving through YOU!! If you don't believe me, please read this note I received early this month:

Dear Fr. Matt and Fr. Joseph,

Thank you for everything. I will be leaving for Arizona in July.... Keep up the good work at the collaborative. Sometimes when I visit I don't recognize my church – this is good! People are more welcoming and as you have said Fr. Matt, everyone knows my name. Best wishes and God bless all of you.

Your generosity to Saint John the Baptist and Saint Joseph, has enabled us to bring the love and compassion of Jesus Christ to others, beyond our parish walls. Since last fall, we have tithed 10% of our offertory and gifts back to the Lord, and as a result, we sent over $71,124 (combined). The list of recipients YOU HAVE BLESSED will be published in next week's bulletin, but please see a couple of very kind thank you notes:

Dear Fr. Matt and faithful parishioners of St Joseph,

We at Friends (Friends of the Unborn) would like to thank you for the amazing outpouring of donations for mothers and their babies. Your recent baby shower was an overwhelming gift to our ministry of life! Your donations allow us to meet many of our residents' needs both physically and spiritually. It is an honor for us to partner with you to witness what miracles love and dedication can achieve.

Your support makes a difference in so many lives in the joy we experience when a new mom brings her baby home, would not be possible without your assistance. Warmest thanks for your generous heart and abundant blessings and graces to you and those you love.

March 26, 2021

We are grateful for the spiritual support and generosity you have shown by responding with a gift of $1674 to Aid our friends affected by the February winter storm. We are blessed to have been selected as the receivers of the JOY Movement's first fruits. This gift represents hope to our friends in need in our community, and strength to our Vincentians - volunteer who travel in pairs as the apostles did bringing good news to our brothers and sisters.

The winter storm, much like the pandemic, affected people of all walks of life. Friends who had been struggling to make ends meet during the pandemic suddenly found themselves with a new problem. We hope to make an immediate impact on the families and individuals affected by the storm and hopefully avoid the long-term effects of it.

Once again, thank you for your support. Our prayers are with a Saint Joseph Collaborative and There Joy movement.

Society of Saint Vincent de Paul, archdiocese of Galveston Houston.

FR. MATT'S CORNER

Thank you for your “yes,” and for all the ways you have responded to the JOY Movement! Your “yes” has made all the difference!

MARIAN CONSECRATION RENEWAL

Next weekend, August 22nd, we will renew our parishes' Marian Consecration. We will also enroll folks with the Brown Scapular, if desired.

Until next time, have a JOY-filled week.

Your Brother in Christ,
Fr. Matt+

Message from the Archdiocese Parish Activity Covid Guidance Update August 5, 2021

There are no restrictions from the Archdiocese on parish activities at this time. Parish life and formation activities may continue and pastors are encouraged to introduce or recommend precautionary measures when they deem it appropriate to do so, as conditions vary from town to town across the Archdiocese.

THE ASSUMPTION OF MARY

By Dr. Ed Sri

What does Catholicism teach about the assumption of Mary? And why is this event contemplated in the fourth glorious mystery? Let us begin by considering a few key points from the Catechism of the Catholic Church (see 966).

First, in discussing the assumption, the Catechism affirms that Mary did not suffer from original sin but was conceived full of grace. According to this doctrine, known as the Immaculate Conception, God's supernatural life dwelt in Mary from the very beginning of her existence.

It is important to emphasize that from a Catholic perspective, the Immaculate Conception is not simply about Mary. This doctrine, which has its roots in early Christianity, ultimately is about the mystery of Jesus Christ. God became man in Mary's womb. Since Jesus truly is the all-holy God, the Second Person of the Trinity, Catholics believe he is worthy to dwell in a pure vessel, a holy temple. Thus, it is fitting that God would prepare Mary as an immaculate dwelling place, full of grace and not stained by sin, for the God-man.

The annunciation scene in Luke's Gospel may at least point in this direction. The angel Gabriel greets Mary, “Hail, full of grace.” The Greek word in Luke's Gospel for “full of grace” (Luke 1:28) is in a perfect passive participle form, which would indicate that Mary already has been filled with God's saving grace, even before Jesus was conceived in her womb.⁶ As we will see, the Immaculate Conception will serve as a basis for understanding Mary's assumption.

Mary's Death?

Second, the Catechism teaches that Mary was taken to heaven when the course of her earthly life was finished. The Church does not declare whether Mary died and then was assumed into heaven or whether she was assumed before she died. It leaves open both possibilities. However, the majority of theologians and saints throughout the centuries have affirmed that Mary did experience death—not as a penalty for sin but in conformity to her son, who willingly experienced death on our behalf. In support of this latter view, John Paul II said, “The Mother is not superior to the Son who underwent death, giving it a new meaning and changing it into a means of salvation.”

FR. MATT'S CORNER

Third, the Catechism affirms that Mary was taken body and soul into heavenly glory right at the end of her earthly life. One of the consequences of original sin is the corruption of the body (see CCC, 400; Genesis 3:19). If Mary was full of grace and did not suffer from original sin, it is fitting that she, like her son, would not experience such bodily corruption.

Biblical Assumptions

Although there are no explicit proof texts in Scripture for Mary's assumption, some biblical themes may at least shed light on this doctrine. For example, the notion of being taken up into heaven has some precedent in Scripture. Enoch was taken into heaven without seeing death (see Hebrews 11:5), and Elijah was whisked into heaven by the chariots of fire at the end of his life (see 2 Kings 2:11). If God could assume these righteous men of the Old Testament, it is certainly possible that Jesus could assume his own mother as well.

Even more, since the Bible presents Mary as the first Christian disciple, it is fitting that she would be the first to receive the blessings of following Christ. In the New Testament, Mary is presented as the first to hear God's word and accept it at the annunciation (see Luke 1:38, 45). She responds to God's word promptly by going in haste to help Elizabeth. She also describes herself as a servant of the Lord (see Luke 1:38, 48).

Mary remains faithful to her son, following him even to the cross (see John 19:25–27), where she experiences the fulfillment of Simeon's prophecy at the Presentation: "A sword will pierce through your own soul also" (Luke 2:35). She perseveres in faith throughout her life. She gathers with the apostles for prayer even after her son's ascension (see Acts 1:14). Thus, the New Testament presents a clear portrait of Mary as the first and preeminent disciple of Christ, who hears the word of God and keeps it in her heart.

Since one of the blessings promised to all faithful disciples is victory over death, it is fitting that Mary, who is the first and model disciple of Christ, would be the first to receive this blessing. Catholics thus believe that the privilege of resurrection promised to all faithful Christians was given first to Mary and in a totally unique way.

While the rest of us hope to have our bodies raised to glory at the end of time, Mary experienced the resurrection and glorification of her body at the moment her earthly life ended. Thus, her assumption—which flows from her unique participation in Christ's victory as the mother of the Savior and as the first and most faithful of Christ's followers—anticipates to some degree our own share in the fullness of that victory if we persevere as followers of Christ.

An Event of Love

Finally, let us consider what a moment the Assumption must have been for Mary! In describing this scene, some Church Fathers spoke of Jesus himself coming back to earth to take his mother and bring her to her heavenly home. More recently, John Paul II said that the Assumption truly was an event of love, in which Mary's ardent longing to be with her son was finally fulfilled. In fact, many paintings of the Assumption portray Mary rising in splendor on a cloud to heaven, received by the angels with trumpets and celebration, and reunited joyfully with her beloved son.

While artistic depictions of this triumphant event in Mary's life are often celebrated, not as well-known are the many pieces of art that portray her last moments on earth, just before her assumption. Yet such a depiction of the end of Mary's life—her moment between heaven and earth—can be found on one of the main doors of St. Peter's Basilica in Rome.

There Mary is surprisingly portrayed as falling, as if she were definitively letting go of all the trials and sufferings of this life and allowing herself to fall asleep. Indeed, she is letting go of life itself as she passes from this world to the next. It is just at this moment of abandoning herself into the Father's hands that the angels rush down to catch her and bring her up to heaven. This depiction captures an aspect of Mary's assumption that offers us hope in the midst of our trials in this "valley of tears." This is the hope that God will carry us through our distress and lift up our heavy hearts. So take a moment right now and ask yourself, what burdens, troubles, and worries are weighing you down? How can you entrust yourself more to God's loving care?

With whatever we're facing in life, may we, like Mary, fall into the Father's arms, so that we may have a more profound experience of his supporting us in our present sufferings and raising us to himself—both now and at the hour of our death.

Mass Prayers and Responses

Greeting

Priest: The Lord be with you.

People: And with your spirit.

Penitential Act Form A (The Confiteor)

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done, and in what I have failed to do, through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

After the First and Second Readings

Reader: The Word of the Lord

People: Thanks be to God

Before the Gospel Reading

Priest: The Lord be with you.

People: And with your spirit.

Priest: A reading from the holy Gospel according to....

People: Glory to you, O Lord.

After the Gospel reading

Priest: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.

The Nicene Creed (continued)

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Blessing over Bread and Wine

People: Blessed be God forever.

People: May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our good and the good of all his holy Church.

Sanctus

Everyone: Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts. Heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Memorial Acclamation

Priest: The mystery of faith.

People: ONE OF THESE:

A. We proclaim your Death, O Lord, and profess your Resurrection until you come again.

B. When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup, we proclaim your Death, O Lord, until you come again.

C. Save us, Savior of the world, for by your Cross and Resurrection you have set us free.

Lamb of God

People: Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, grant us peace.

Invitation to Communion

Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

I live in:

- Walpole, MA

I have been a parishioner at St. John the Baptist and/or St. Joseph for:

- 1.5 years

How has St. J's most blessed you in the past 6 months?

- Saint J's has blessed me and my family tremendously. I cannot even count the ways! Beginning with the pandemic— we had team meetings via zoom multiple times per week which brought me such peace during those very uncertain times, and to witness the way our Collaborative came together to embrace the JOY Movement has just been incredible. I can see and feel the Holy Sprit at work here at Saint J's and I feel so fortunate to be a part of this amazing Collaborative!

Tell us about your family (place of birth, family background, current family)

- I grew up in Rumford, ME in a large Catholic family. I am the 3rd oldest of 7 children (I have 4 sisters & 2 brothers and have 23 nieces and nephews!) I have been married to my best friend, David, for 16 years and we have 3 beautiful children: Olivia (15), Nicholas (13), and Vivian (7), and 2 dogs: Rui & Nala.

What does your faith mean to you?

- My faith means everything to me. It gives me peace in times of trial and it is the reason for my JOY every day.

Who is Jesus to you? How/when did you encounter Jesus as your personal savior?

- Jesus is my friend. The one I trust with my deepest thoughts, emotions, worries, and the one I thank and praise in all of the happy times and for all of the blessings I have in my life. I was raised Catholic and my parents taught us by their example what it means to have a strong faith. It wasn't until I was older, however, that I discovered my own personal relationship with Jesus. I attended many retreats in my adult life, but the most influential one to date was my first Life in the Spirit retreat about 3 years ago. I felt the Holy Spirit move in me and He has been guiding me to a deeper relationship with Jesus ever since.

What is your profession (actively employed? Retired?)

- My primary vocation is wife and mother, but I also work two jobs and am a part-time student as well. I left my 16+ year career in Finance in January, 2020 to go back to school. I am currently in my 2nd year at Saint John's Seminary working toward my Masters of Art in Ministry. Also in January, 2020, I started working at Saint J's and absolutely love working with our incredible team, amazingly holy priests, and wonderful parishioners! My other job is as a Middle School Theology teacher at Blessed Sacrament School in Walpole. This fall will be my 2nd year teaching at the school.

What are your Interests/Hobbies/Talents? What do you do for fun?

- I love to spend time with my family and watch my kids do the activities they enjoy. I like to read (when I have time), listen to podcasts (my favorite right now is Bible in a Year with Fr. Mike Schmitz), and I like to blast Praise & Worship music while cleaning my house! :)

How does St. Joseph serve as a role model in our lives?
 How can we grow in both virtue and holiness through St. Joseph?

Join Fr. Matt and Andrea as we learn more about the role of St. Joseph in the life of the Baptized Christian, and how we can grow in virtue and holiness by trusting in his fatherly care. We will be following Fr. Donald Calloway's Consecration to St. Joseph - The Wonders of Our Spiritual Father

2021 Catholic Appeal

As of 8/10/2021

St. John the Baptist

St. Joseph

The Catholic Appeal helps to fund 51 Central Ministries of the Archdiocese, some of which have been vitally important to helping us fulfill our collaborative mission and keeping our JOY Movement flourishing. These 51 Central Ministries do not have parishes to directly support them financially, so the Catholic Appeal is one of the primary ways we do this. There are three ways to donate.

1. Mail your donation directly to the Archdiocese at 66 Brooks Drive in Braintree, MA 02184. Please make sure to make the check out to The Catholic Appeal and identify the parish that you are supporting.
2. Go to <https://bostoncatholicappeal.org> and click on the donate link. Follow the instructions.
3. Scan the QR code at the top of this notice.

Spiritual Direction

Everyone needs spiritual direction in their faith journey. Fr. Joseph Boafo Spiritual Direction helps the directees to recognize how the Holy Spirit is working in their lives, and how to develop a rich prayer life, leading to an intimate relationship with God. Spiritual direction also helps the directees to make thoughtful discernments on how the Holy spirit is personally leading them to their specific calling according to God's plan.

Grow in your relationship with God starting TODAY!
