Mary, the Holy Mother of God

This solemnity is a rather recent addition to the cycle of seasons, Sundays, and feasts in our liturgical year. We have Pope Paul VI to thank for the 1974 enshrining of the devotion to Mary into our calendar on January 1. It is also a day in our calendar as a World Day for Peace.

Let us pray...

God of heaven and earth,
you came to us and took our earthly flesh
through the gift of Mary's yes.
She is our Mother in faith,
as she is your earthly mother.
We are thankful beyond our ability to thank you for the gift of her Son as our brother and savior.
Through her self-giving,
we have been reconciled to you.
Bless us as we begin this New Year and endow us with the desire and ability to create a world of peace.
We ask all this,
through the intercession of Mary to you,
one God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
Amen.

The song "We Three Kings" details the gifts of the Magi, but do you know what you're singing? "Born a king on Bethlehem's plan, gold I bring to crown Him again." This one is the most straightforward - gold symbolizes the Kingship of Christ. "Myrrh is mine: its bitter perfume breathes a life of gathering gloom." Myrrh is an embalming spice. Already at Christ's birth, we have the symbolic reminder of his death. "Frankincense to offer have I. Incense owns a deity nigh." In many religious traditions, incense symbolizes prayers rising to heaven. In some pagan traditions, it is thought to help "call down" the deity. The gift of frankincense symbolizes Jesus' role as the Great High Priest, sanctifying the world through his sacrifice.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR GENEROSITY!

Dear Parishioners,

This has been another year full of challenges, surprises and blessings. We have all been spiritually and emotionally transformed in one way or another. We have all learned the value of life and family. We have all felt God's blessings throughout this year. Today we thank God for His loving presence and His Divine Providence, because during these 365 days of 2021, He never abandoned us. We thank God for all our loved ones who are still with us, but also for those who went to the heavenly house to live with Him. We begin this new year by placing all our needs, our families, and our concerns in the hands of God, trusting that his love and his mercy will guide us once again. We ask God that his grace will fill us with strength, this new year, to accept his will in our lives. I, personally thank God for all of you, for your support, your prayers and service to the parish, but above all for your faith and trust in the Lord. May the Lord Jesus fill us with his blessings this new year and may He always show his merciful face on each of your families.

Happy and blessed new year!!

Always in my prayers,
Fr. George E. Castro

“Be not afraid!”

The other day I had to drive my children to school with the knowledge that a Tik Tok challenge had gone viral - a dare for violence in schools across America. As we drove the children asked questions; and I write our conversation here for you, as my prayer during this very scary time for both parents and children alike.

While I cannot advise you one way or another, as to whether such a challenge like this should inspire you to keep your children home or to go to school, as God gives parents grace and inspiration for their particular families and daily situations. All that I can say, is that we did go to school.

Though Jesus instructs us to “Be not afraid!” many times in the Bible, He does not mean that we should not think or discuss scary situations like this or even death, or even sometimes to feel afraid.

What Jesus is saying is to trust that even if all goes wrong here on Earth, (known as the valley of tears) that there is hope because of His death and resurrection that we will be happy together in Heaven. That day on the way to school, I told them about staying in a state of grace, and how sometimes, like in the case of my Pepe, one can die very suddenly, in a natural way, like a heart attack. We talked about family that was well, and family that was sick. We talked about being nervous, and we talked about what to do when we feel nervous and afraid. I told them, let us pray to our Mother in Heaven that she keeps you all safe and all of the children today throughout our country. Let us pray for all parents who are afraid today, and for all children who are afraid too.

We prayed together the Memorare -

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that any one who fled to thy protection, implored thy help
or sought thy intercession, was left unaided.
Inspired by this confidence,
We fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins my Mother;
to thee do we come, before thee we stand, sinful and sorrowful;
O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not our petitions,
but in thy mercy hear and answer them. Amen.

CCC1808 Fortitude is the moral virtue that ensures firmness in difficulties and constancy in the pursuit of the good. It strengthens the resolve to resist temptations and to overcome obstacles in the moral life. The virtue of fortitude enables one to conquer fear, even fear of death, and to face trials and persecutions. It disposes one even to renounce and sacrifice his life in defense of a just cause. “The Lord is my strength and my song.” “In the world you have tribulation; but be of good cheer, I have overcome the world.”

The exhortation “Be not afraid!” should be interpreted as having a very broad meaning. In a certain sense it was an exhortation addressed to all people, an exhortation to conquer fear in the present world situation ... Why should we have no fear? Because man has been redeemed by God. When pronouncing these words in St. Peter’s Square, I already knew that my first encyclical and my entire papacy would be tied to the truth of the Redemption. In the Redemption we find the most profound basis for the words “Be not afraid!”: “For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son” (cf. Jn 3:16).
Saint Pope John Paul II

“This is the same power that I feel propelling me forward into the next phase of my life. God saved my soul and spared my life for a reason: He left me to tell my story to others and show as many people as possible the healing power of His love and forgiveness.”
