GOSPEL MEDITATION

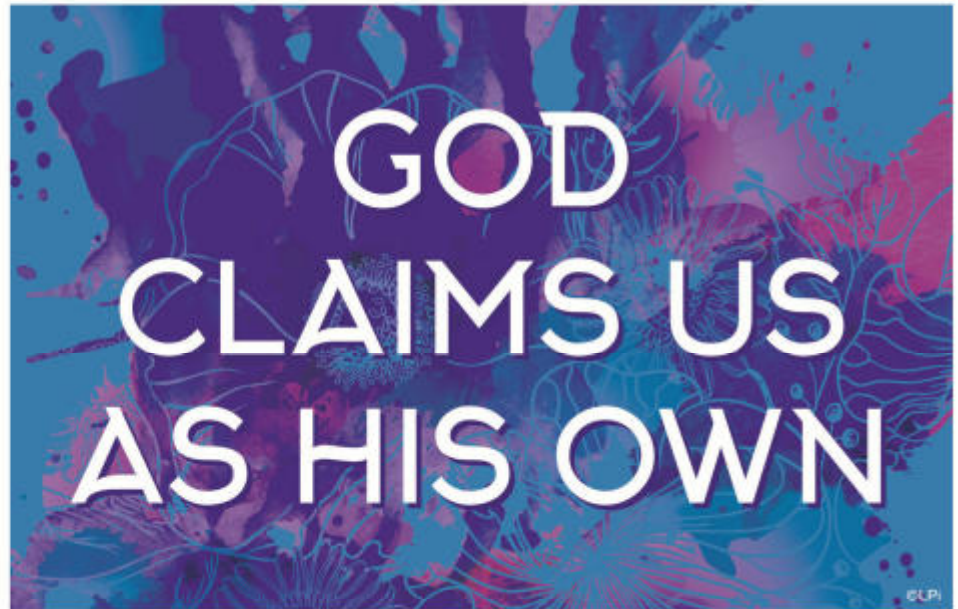

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

"We are called to live our baptism every day, as new creatures, clothed in Christ."

— Pope Francis

What reference point do you use when making decisions? Many times, impulse takes control and decisions are made based solely on emotion and desire. We all know that these types of decisions can often get us into trouble. When a person has a confident sense of who they are and a real understanding of what is important and of value, the likelihood of kneejerk impulsive choices diminishes. Baptism gives us what we need to make well informed and purposeful decisions. By this simple gesture, God claims us as His own and provides us with the identity and purpose we need to properly live life.

It is tremendously reassuring, when we truly embrace this revelation and realize that we no longer have to wonder about the purpose of our lives or struggle to find our way. The answer of who we are in God has been given to us. We no longer have to fumble around, trip over ourselves or walk aimlessly about. Issues surrounding the sacredness of life, the meaning of death, the protection of those most vulnerable, care for the weak and the poor, offering hospitality to those in search of a home, the purpose and proper place of work, how to create a just social order, caring for creation, and understanding our roles as heralds and stewards are just a few of the wonderful gifts baptism brings. When we make decisions based on things such as these core Gospel truths we really act as Christ himself, revealing to others the new creations that we are. This is how we live our baptism.

It is difficult to walk against the tide. Yet, that is precisely what baptism calls us to do. Although we are sinners, in need of mercy and far from perfection we are called to order our life and make decisions based upon the wisdom and guidance of Almighty God. He alone is the one who can claim us as His sons and daughters. Standing up for our principles will not make us popular. But who ever said Christianity is a popularity contest? Baptism calls us to stand up for that which goes against the grain of secularism. Standing in line with other sinners, we have our anchor to steady us in the tempests of life and God is very pleased. Forge ahead. There is nothing to fear.

"I am baptizing you with water, but one mightier than I is coming. I am not worthy to loosen the thongs of his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire."

- Lk 3:16bc

St. Hilary of Poitiers
Bishop and Doctor of the Church
January 13

Born a pagan, St. Hilary (c. 315 – c. 367) studied philosophy and the meaning of life, eventually making his way through the bible. He became a convert and was appointed bishop of Poitiers in 353. Sometimes referred to as the Hammer of the Arians, St. Hilary defended the Nicene Creed against a popular heresy, Arianism. He was exiled to Phrygia for opposing Roman emperor Constantius II, who preferred the heresy which denies Christ's divinity. From Phrygia St. Hilary fought with his pen, zealously writing against the heresy. Eventually he was allowed to return to Poitiers, but did so by a circuitous route, preaching against Arianism all the way. St. Hilary was likely the first writer of hymns in the West, his writings on the Trinity, Psalms and Gospel of Matthew survive today. St. Hilary was created Doctor of the Church, a title given to those who provided important contributions to theology and doctrine, in 1851 by Pope Pius IX.

KNIGHTS HELPING NEIGHBORS, a program supported by the Knights of Columbus at St. Junipero Serra Parish, is designed to support those in our community with help that they cannot otherwise provide for themselves. Some examples might include general yard cleanup, light tree and shrub trimming, correcting safety issues in the home or points of entry, or moving furniture or help in decluttering. If you or someone you know could use help of this kind, please contact the Knights at 860-648-0216; and select Option 3, or send us an email at knightshelping-neighbors@yahoo.com.

Nine Days for Life Novena

The Knights of Columbus of St. Junipero Serra Parish encourage you to participate in the Nine Days for Life Novena promoted by the US Council of Catholic Bishops, which takes place January 19-27, 2022. 9 Days for Life is a multi-faceted novena for the respect and protection of human life.

Each day, a different intention is accompanied by a short reflection, suggested actions, and related information. Participation is from home at a time most convenient to you. Daily guidance and reflections are on the Novena website, which is <https://www.respectlife.org/9-days-for-life>. There is no need to sign up for anything or provide any information – just click on the block for the day of the week you're on, and you get all the resources for that day on one web page. Please contact Steve Leslie at 860-644-3501 with any questions.

End of year contribution statements for parishioners who participate in our envelope system or online giving—those who received statements last year will automatically receive their statements by end of January by email, or mail, if there is no email on file. Please contact Ginger at ginger@southwindsor.cc if your email has changed, if you have email and prefer a hard copy, or if you would like to request a statement for the first time.

The Best Place in the World

A man walked into the Church. He shuffled about with his feet. His hands fussed about his collar, searching or as a result of a hidden itch. He carried under his arms things that one could not help but wonder why he felt he needed to keep it all with him.

I observed him, and his face met mine and lit up in a great big smile! My name is Pat. What's yours? he said in a child-like way, though he was maybe 60 years old. I told him my name was Maria and he shuffled away still smiling. I wondered about the differences in Pat. What might afflict him as he sat very near me in the back of the Church.

A few weeks later, I was walking into the church again and Pat jumped out of the passenger side of a car and waved happily at me in a way that was both joyful and contagious, like he had just spotted his best friend. He held the door out for me saying Trials and Tribulations right? And then he knowingly smiled and exclaimed, But you and me Maria, are in the best place in the world!

I marveled that he remembered my name and when I went to my pew in the back to kneel, Pat knelt not far away. I prayed, Lord take care of Pat. A few moments later Pat got up and began shuffling and fidgeting about again. I wondered what he searched for as he made his way to the front right of the church and knelt in a pew. I was still watching my new friend only to realize he had found the better place at Jesus' feet in front of the Tabernacle. I marveled at how Pat had found Jesus right away.

When Pat left Mass that day, he didn't forget his new friend in the back. He waved unabashedly in my direction and despite myself I waved just as enthusiastically back at him, and a happy child-like spirit filled my heart with Joy.

I saw Pat jump into the passenger side of a car that pulled up. I suspect that Pat never learned to drive. I marvel at the pure wisdom of his beautiful soul as I heard him again in my memory, Trials and Tribulations, right? But you and me Maria, are in the best place in the world!

"Let no one ever come to you without leaving better and happier. Be the living expression of God's kindness: kindness in your face, kindness in your eyes, kindness in your smile." – Blessed Mother Teresa

Do you realize that Jesus is there in the tabernacle expressly for you- for you alone? He burns with the desire to come into your heart... don't listen to the demon, laugh at him, and go without fear to receive the Jesus of peace and love.

Therese of Lisieux

CCC526 To become a child in relation to God is the condition for entering the kingdom. For this, we must humble ourselves and become little. Even more: to become "children of God" we must be "born from above" or "born of God". Only when Christ is formed in us will the mystery of Christmas be fulfilled in us. Christmas is the mystery of this "marvelous exchange":

O marvelous exchange! Man's Creator has become man, born of the Virgin. We have been made sharers in the divinity of Christ who humbled himself to share our humanity.
