GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

God delights in you. How do you feel when you hear that? Delight usually comes with an exuberant flow of joy that seemingly arises from one's toes with the expression of great glee. Reflecting upon the deep measure of joy God has in us can be a source of joy for ourselves. Delight is infectious. A very young brother and sister were playing on the beach when the all too familiar ice cream truck made its daily rounds. The boy shook with excitement and delight as he took his sister's hand and exclaimed, "The ice cream man is here, isn't it great!" As they ran off toward the truck, one could hear the girl reply, "Yeah, I can't wait!" The experience of a child's delight in something so simple as ice cream, lifts our spirits from our burdens and transports us to the lighter, more innocent side of life.

Life is not meant to be a burden. Believe it or not, God actually wants us to be happy! In fact, the wedding feast at Cana shows us that God even pours His blessing on our happiness. It is okay to celebrate the wonder of ourselves and others. Life is good. It is always interesting to note that Jesus saves the good wine until last. You would think it would be the other way around. The superb quality of Jesus' wine points to the superior quality of life we find in Christ. It is not a life of burdens but a life of wonder and delight! In Christ, we are lifted from the superficial and mundane to a life of purpose, hope, and love.

God is with us through the long haul, through the challenges and sorrows as well as the successes and accomplishments. In spite of the fact that we often wander from the path, God's celebratory delight in us remains. As spouses are asked to remain faithful to each other through whatever life brings, God remains faithful too. This promise remains through this life and into the next. All we have to do is take the advice of Jesus' mother to heart when she says, "Listen to him." This wisdom saves us from foolishly giving in to the illusion that we can make better wine than Jesus.

There was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the wedding.

When the wine ran short, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine."

- Jn 2:1-3

WEEK OF PRAYER FOR

Christian Unity

JANUARY 18-25

Our Father,

We seek you in so many ways and places in our life. We seek you for guidance and for comfort. But you have told us that when there is hunger, it is up to us to feed the hungry.

We ask you to help us see you in other Christians and humbly ask you for strength in the search for what we have in common.

Bless our efforts to look at all the ways we are united in faith, and grant us courage to change our hearts and minds to realize your will.

We ask all this through Christ our Lord and brother, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

A letter from our Temporary Administrator, Fr. Joseph Keough

Dear Parishioners,

By way of introduction. I am Father Joe Keough. You can call me Fr. Joe or Fr. Keough, whichever one you are comfortable with using. Just use the first three letters of the last name (pronounced "Keo").

I am happy to be with you as Temporary Administrator. I'm just not sure how long I will be here. Like a substitute teacher, waiting for the teacher to return.

My previous assignment was pastor of Divine Providence Parish in New Britain. A native of Meriden, I lived in Connecticut all my life and have been a priest for just over 25 years. I have served in many parts of the state but this is my first assignment on "the other side of the river". I ask for your patience as I navigate my way around.

I thank you and the parish staff for the warm welcome and ask for your prayers as I minister to the Saint Junipero Serra Parish family as we await the return of Fr. Castro. Be assured of my prayers for you!

Fr. Joe Keough

Unanswered Prayers

We all have some seemingly unanswered prayers that rest heavy on our hearts. These worries, and loves, bring us face to face with the truth of our need to trust in God.

Saint Sister Faustina was told by Jesus: My child, make the resolution never to rely on people. Entrust yourself completely to My will saying, "Not as I want, but according to Your will, O God, let it be done unto me." These words, spoken from the depths of one's heart, can raise a soul to the summit of sanctity in a short time. In such a soul I delight. Such a soul gives Me glory. Such a soul fills heaven with the fragrance of her virtue. But understand that the strength by which you bear sufferings comes from frequent Communions. So approach this fountain of mercy often, to draw with the vessel of trust whatever you need (Diary, 1487).

Loose Ends

The ribbons lay,
 As a whisp in the breeze,
 Each one to their side,
 Beckoning to be tied,
 But instead,
 they flutter free,
 In the air.

I imagine,
 Rows and rows,
 Of pretty bows,
 Looped and unformed,
 Without loose ends,
 That threaten to run away,
 As the ribbons,
 That fly this day.

But as the river runs,
 And knows no bounds or threads,
 Is it possible that beauty,
 Can be found,
 Amid loose ends?
 Bringing my heart,
 And soul to soar,
 Grasping to understand it,

All the more.

Yet it is always the hope,
 That I shut the door,
 Enclose the story,
 behind the words,
 Happily ever after,
 A phrase that ties the ribbons,
 Neatly in my heart,
 Though I sense,
 True beauty exists,
 In the ribbon's,
 Carefree wisp.

Even though,
 I know,
 All possibilities are then,
 Ended,
 Without loose ends,
 To mend it,
 - Fly free, my heart,
 Without the fear of what,
 It all may mean,
 They are being carried now,
 My dreams -
 To perfection.
Jesus I trust in YOU!

Eternal God, in whom mercy is endless and the treasury of compassion inexhaustible, look kindly upon us and increase Your mercy in us, that in difficult moments we might not despair nor become despondent, but with great confidence submit ourselves to Your holy will, which is Love and Mercy itself.

FILIAL TRUST

CCC2734 Filial trust is tested - it proves itself - in tribulation.22 The principal difficulty concerns the prayer of petition, for oneself or for others in intercession. Some even stop praying because they think their petition is not heard. Here two questions should be asked: Why do we think our petition has not been heard? How is our prayer heard, how is it "efficacious"?

CCC2737 "You ask and do not receive, because you ask wrongly, to spend it on your passions." If we ask with a divided heart, we are "adulterers"; God cannot answer us, for he desires our well-being, our life. "Or do you suppose that it is in vain that the scripture says, 'He yearns jealously over the spirit which he has made to dwell in us?'" That our God is "jealous" for us is the sign of how true his love is. If we enter into the desire of his Spirit, we shall be heard.

Do not be troubled if you do not immediately receive from God what you ask him; for he desires to do something even greater for you, while you cling to him in prayer.

God wills that our desire should be exercised in prayer, that we may be able to receive what he is prepared to give.
