GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

February 13, 2022 | 6th Sunday in Ordinary Time

What has been the most difficult challenge you faced in your life? Many difficult human experiences can “turn up the heat” in our lives, causing us to question the why of things or even fall into despair. Some people just somewhat passively accept what life brings, even death, and chalk difficult experiences up to happening “because they do.” They seemingly endure and move on. Taking life at face value, there really is no ultimate meaning to things. It’s easier to ignore that inner prompting calling us to understand why. It’s there whether we admit it or not. To question or not to question — that is the question! People sometimes give up the God search because it causes too many questions. Once we open the door to the possibility of God’s existence, then all of the awkward, challenging, and tragic pieces of life have to find their place.

It gets messy. But the search is so important to living. We can easily dry up and become arid, abandoning any hope for purpose and meaning because it’s too difficult and non-rational at times. In searching for answers to the how and why of life, human beings also embark on a search for God. When one finally stumbles upon the real living tangible presence of God, then that discovery allows life’s ironies and tensions to be held side by side with the all-encompassing totally unconditional, unmerited love of God! Then when life’s heat gets turned up, difficulties and challenges abound, dryness and heartache become the norm, the soul remains in joyful repose. There is no fear.

The beatitudes celebrate life’s ironies and tensions, holding them all together in the Kingdom of God. Poverty, hunger, weeping, being insulted and hated are not things we would normally associate with being God’s friends. But they are! In fact, those who experience these uncomfortable realities of life are actually better off than those who do not. This is what makes Jesus’ message so intriguing! Don’t give up questioning. Questioning the apparent inequities and polarities of human experience will certainly challenge one’s faith. But it’s the only way to deepen it. ©LPI

Our Lady Queen of Peace (Hail Mary Full of Grace, pray for us, that we are able to do our part for peace in the world!)

Oftentimes it's easy to see how others could do things differently to make a better world. And while it is important to vote for political leaders who will lead our nation to respect life, bring hope, and instill love, the first step to a better world comes from within us.

Is there anyone that you need to forgive?

"Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do." (Luke 23:34)

Can it be, that you shined the sun,
To light a path for me?

My days were dark,
The nights were cold,
Peace and love,
Had frozen to stone.

How can it be,
A stream of light,
Reached my heart,
This dark, dark night?

A gentle glow,
Of warmth and hope,
Against the ice,
And bitter cold.

A love so pure,
So full of grace,
Took my pain,
With love replaced.

And kindled within,
An icy heart,
The will to love,
The broken parts.

Can it be, that you shined
the sun,

To light a path for me?

Your darkest day,
Your coldest night,
Your death,
Upon the Cross,

Forgave my sins,
Shone the way,
To love, to be,
To live.

The Lamb of God,
Shone the Son,
And taught me,
To forgive.

"No one heals himself by wounding another" - Saint Ambrose

I am innocent and I die innocent. I forgive with all my heart those responsible for my death, and I ask God that the shedding of my blood serves toward the peace of our divided Mexico.

--Saint Cristobal just before his executioners fired

V. "AND FORGIVE US OUR TRESPASSES, AS WE FORGIVE THOSE WHO TRESPASS AGAINST US"

CCC2838 This petition is astonishing. If it consisted only of the first phrase, "And forgive us our trespasses," it might have been included, implicitly, in the first three petitions of the Lord's Prayer, since Christ's sacrifice is "that sins may be forgiven." But, according to the second phrase, our petition will not be heard unless we have first met a strict requirement. Our petition looks to the future, but our response must come first, for the two parts are joined by the single word "as."

And forgive us our trespasses . . .

CCC2839 With bold confidence, we began praying to our Father. In begging him that his name be hallowed, we were in fact asking him that we ourselves might be always made more holy. But though we are clothed with the baptismal garment, we do not cease to sin, to turn away from God. Now, in this new petition, we return to him like the prodigal son and, like the tax collector, recognize that we are sinners before him.<sup>133</sup> Our petition begins with a "confession" of our wretchedness and his mercy. Our hope is firm because, in his Son, "we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins."<sup>134</sup> We find the efficacious and undoubted sign of his forgiveness in the sacraments of his Church.<sup>135</sup>

CCC2840 Now - and this is daunting - this outpouring of mercy cannot penetrate our hearts as long as we have not forgiven those who have trespassed against us. Love, like the Body of Christ, is indivisible; we cannot love the God we cannot see if we do not love the brother or sister we do see.<sup>136</sup> In refusing to forgive our brothers and sisters, our hearts are closed and their hardness makes them impervious to the Father's merciful love; but in confessing our sins, our hearts are opened to his grace.

2841 This petition is so important that it is the only one to which the Lord returns and which he develops explicitly in the Sermon on the Mount.<sup>137</sup> This crucial requirement of the covenant mystery is impossible for man. But "with God all things are possible."

. . . as we forgive those who trespass against us
