Hosanna to the Messiah!

While Jesus would not be crowned an earthly king, Jesus' entrance into Jerusalem has many parallels to the Messianic expectations of the Hebrew people. Before entering, Jesus requisitions a donkey from its owner. In the ancient world, kings had this right. Yet the animal that Jesus requests is rare -- a colt upon which no one else has sat yet. Yet, it's a donkey. This is no great war-charger, no magnificent animal. Jesus acts with all the authority of an earthly king, yet his kingdom is one of simplicity and peace. As the disciples throw cloaks over the donkey, the crowd spreads theirs on the road. This ancient gesture dates back to the line of kings descended from David. Not only are these physical kingly gestures, but the crowd of followers cries out in jubilation and praise. The Messiah has come to Jerusalem!

Lenten Disciplines of Fasting and Abstinence:
Catholics in good health ages 18-59 are required to fast and abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. Fasting consists of eating only one meal, with the possibility of two smaller snacks that do not add up to a single full meal. Catholics age 14 and older are to abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday and all Fridays in Lent.

Please remember in your prayers the following parishioners who are ill

FROM THE PASTOR

During this season of Lent we have been blessed to receive the word of God through various sources of wisdom. We have nurtured ourselves spiritually and emotionally preparing to receive Christ this coming Easter. I want to thank Joe Coray and Daniel Peck immensely for the service, dedication and commitment during the classes and reflections that with much effort and love they provided to our parishioners during Lent. Their knowledge and wisdom gave our community a deeper meaning to the mystery of Christ and his word.

May the Lord Jesus Christ continue to bless you and fill you with his wisdom and zeal for his word and service to the community throughout your lives.

In Christ,
Fr. Jorge Castro

THANK YOU FOR YOUR GENEROSITY!

In these trying times, the need of our surrounding community grows and the assistance provided by the Appeal becomes all the more crucial. If you have not yet made your gift to this year's Appeal, please consider doing so in the days ahead. Your gift to the Archbishop's Annual Appeal will help continue the vital services, ministries and programs that help so many throughout our Archdiocese.

It's 3 o'clock and all around the world people pick up their rosary beads, cross themselves and pray,

Eternal Father, I offer you the body, blood, soul and divinity of your dearly beloved Son, our Lord Jesus Christ - In atonement for our sins and those of the world.

For the sake of His sorrowful passion, have mercy on us and on the whole world!

In 1931, Jesus began appearing in Poland, to Sister Faustina, and He instructed her to start a Diary writing down all the things that He said. He spoke to her for years and she kept this diary conversing daily with Jesus, both about personal things, but also with messages for the world.

Jesus asked for a painting to be made with the message Jesus, I trust in You inscribed at the bottom.

"In the evening, when I was in my cell, I saw the Lord Jesus clothed in a white garment. One hand [was] raised in the gesture of blessing; the other was touching the garment at the breast. From beneath the garment, slightly drawn aside at the breast, there were emanating two large rays, one red, the other pale. In silence I kept my gaze fixed on the Lord; my soul was struck with awe, but also with great joy. After a while, Jesus said to me, "Paint an image according to the pattern you see, with the signature: Jesus, I trust in You. I desire that this image be venerated, first in your chapel, and [then] throughout the world" (Diary of Sister Faustina, 47).

The two rays denote Blood and Water. The pale ray stands for the Water which makes souls righteous. The red ray stands for the Blood which is the life of souls. These two rays issued forth from the depths of My tender mercy when My agonized Heart was opened by a lance on the Cross. Happy is the one who will dwell in their shelter, for the just hand of God shall not lay hold of him (299). By means of this image I shall grant many graces to souls. It is to be a reminder of the demands of My mercy, because even the strongest faith is of no avail without works (Diary of Sister Faustina, 742).

3 o'clock is the time that Jesus died on the cross. He promises to grant every possible grace to those who recite the chaplet and for the intentions of those we pray it for. Jesus would teach Sister Faustina to pray the chaplet for even the most hardened sinners, before they died. That through Jesus' suffering, passion, and death, He has atoned for our sins if we pray and trust in Him!

"Encourage souls to say the Chaplet which I have given you (1541). Whoever will recite it will receive great mercy at the hour of death (687). When they say this Chaplet in the presence of the dying, I will stand between My Father and the dying person, not as the just Judge but as the Merciful Savior (1541). Priests will recommend it to sinners as their last hope of salvation. Even if there were a sinner most hardened, if he were to recite this Chaplet only once, he would receive grace from My infinite mercy (687). I desire to grant unimaginable graces to those souls who trust in My mercy (687). Through the Chaplet you will obtain everything, if what you ask for is compatible with My will. (Diary of Sister Faustina, 1731)

Saint Faustina in her own words -

"Suffering is a great grace; through suffering the soul becomes like the Savior; in suffering love becomes crystallized; the greater the suffering, the purer the love."

"Great love can change small things into great ones, and it is only love which lends value to our actions."

"And I understood that the greatest attribute of God is love and mercy. It unites the creature with the Creator."

"For there are three ways of performing an act of mercy: the merciful word, by forgiving and by comforting; secondly, if you can offer no word, then pray - that too is mercy; and thirdly, deeds of mercy."

It's 3 o'clock and all around the world people pick up their rosary beads, cross themselves and pray...Will you join them?
