WHY DO WE DO THAT?

CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Question:

What's the difference between priests and brothers, friars, etc.?

Answer:

The distinctions titles and categories used for priests and the male members of religious communities can be confusing, especially since the categories can sometimes be intertwined as a man can be both a priest and a monk, or a brother and a friar. So, to help to piece the puzzle together, it's important to begin by noting some basic distinctions:

The distinction between priests (who are ordained for sacramental ministry) and brothers (who are non-ordained members of religious communities and who are committed to lives of prayer and service).

Priests: A priest is a man who has been ordained for sacramental ministry and these fall into two categories: A) Diocesan (or Secular) Priests can either be attached to a diocese and who serve under a bishop. Their ministry is usually oriented toward pastoral service. B) Religious Priests are members of religious communities (like the Franciscans, Jesuits, Salvatorians, or Carmelites) and their lives are guided by the special mission and charism of their community. While both kinds of priest practice sacramental ministry, their spirituality and how they live out their priesthood can be very different.

Brothers: Brothers are non-ordained members of religious communities (such as those mentioned above) who live lives committed to prayer and service. Religious priests and brothers serve together in their communities and their ministries include much more than the care of parishes.

Monks, Friars, and Canons: These are broad categories that include religious priests and brothers, and each of these is connected to specific ways of life and spiritualities.

THIRD WEEK OF LENT

REFLECT & RESPOND

First Reading:

In God's revelation to Moses of His "10 Commandments," seven of the ten Commandments regulate how we are to relate to each other. Which of these seven Commandments challenges you most?

Second Reading:

Paul speaks of Jesus as both the "power of God and the wisdom of God." How could you prove Paul's assertion to a non-believer?

Gospel:

John connects Jesus' cleansing of the Temple in Jerusalem to Jesus' bodily resurrection from the dead with a quote from Psalm 69: "Zeal for your house will consume me." During this season of Lent, how passionate is your faith?

Welcome Weekend/Men's Retreat 2021

"Jesus said… whoever drinks of the water I will give him will never thirst" John Chapter 4:13-14

Even bottled water cannot make this claim. We hunger and thirst often, even when we have had our fill of earthly fare. Are you a man thirsting for more in life without relief? Consider joining our Welcome Weekend /Men's Retreat in the fall of 2021 as we look to provide spiritual and earthly refreshment, along with answers to your questions. We will continue to provide updates and inspirational thoughts as we get closer to the new date (still to be decided). Please contact me, Stephen, at stefan303@aol.com, or Deacon Bill, at deaconbill@olbs-queens.org if you have any questions or concerns.

EASTER FLOWER ENVELOPES

Easter Flower envelopes may be returned at any time. Your memorial donations will help defray the cost of our church flowers and decorations for Holy Week and the Easter Season and will be published in our bulletin.

LENTEN POOR BOX OFFERINGS

From the Pastor's Desk....

Dear Parishioners,

We all enjoyed Sr. Nora's youthful photo in her column last week, so how come nobody believes that I once had nice hair!

Spring is around the corner and with it comes the annual ritual of Spring Cleaning. Jesus does it himself in the gospel this Sunday—he cleanses his Father's house. Perhaps Lent should involve us in our own house-cleaning tasks? God wants to clean us from the inside out so that he can fill us with grace and life-giving word. That's where the gift of the Ten Commandments comes in (Sunday's first reading). Exodus says: "God delivered all these commandments…" As I look past my computer screen and see all the Fed Ex and UPS and USPS trucks going up and down the street I think perhaps we need another kind of delivery. Do we welcome God's commandments as we do our Amazon treasures? The law God writes on our hearts is meant to set us free to live joyfully as his people. Before the house shines and sparkles in welcoming comfort, it must be cleansed.

In Christ, Father Bob

Words of Life

"[The Gospel of Life] is therefore meant to be a precise and vigorous reaffirmation of the value of human life and its inviolability, and at the same time a pressing appeal addressed to each and every person, in the name of God: respect, protect, love and serve life, every human life! Only in this direction will you find justice, development, true freedom, peace and happiness!" (The Gospel of Life 5) Pope Saint John Paul II, Evangelium vitae. © 1995 Libreria Editrice Vaticana. Used with permission

Sister Nora's Notes

I recently read, in a book by Rev. Ronald Rohlheiser, that the ancient Greek stoics taught that after God put a soul into a body, God would seal off the memory of its preexistence with God by physically shutting the baby's lips against its ever speaking about it. That's why we have a little cleft under our noses just above the center of our lips where God's finger sealed our lips. And they say that's why whenever we are trying to remember something, like "where did I put my car keys!", our index finger instinctively rises to that cleft under our nose. The amazing thing about this for me is, when I look at someone else and see that cleft under their nose, I'm reminded that God created and loves that person the same way God created and loves me. In our diversity in our unity!

Laudato Si Note

Water shortages in Texas during the recent weather crisis bring to mind more universal problems. Pope Francis, in Laudato Si 29 : "One particularly serious problem is the quality of water available to the poor. Every day unsafe water results in many deaths...." and 30: "Yet access to safe drinking water is a basic and universal human right, since it is essential to human survival and, as such, is a condition for the exercise of other human rights. Our world has a grave social debt toward the poor who lack access to drinking water..."
