Blessings to Our Newly Married

Congratulations and literally....God's blessings on the life you start. For a Catholic marriage is a Sacrament, not simply a civil celebration. If perhaps who didn't know this, or it wasn't a priority at one point in your life, please come in and speak with us. Let's see what we can do. Get the blessing of God not just the seal of the government on your family.

ALTAR SERVERS NEEDED

We need and want servers to assist at the Masses. If your son or daughter is going into 5th grade and up let us help them either to get back in the swing of it...(if they served before) or prepared to serve God at His altar.

DUMPSTER DIVERS DESIRED ON JULY 9TH!

Three legged desks, books from 1974, a pile of "maybe we'll find the other matching rollerskate" type items are all waiting to meet their end. Join us for one day on the morning of July 9th — team of parishioners will be meeting at 30 Benner Road to "purge" old treasures" (garbage) into dumpsters at the school. We invite anyone to join us at 9am for some coffee and donuts and then a 90 minute throw out session at the school building . No hoarders needed, lol!

30 Benner Road, Red Hook

GOSPEL MEDITATION

And to another he said, “Follow me.” In every moment of every day, in every circumstance and experience, God is calling us. We can easily get distracted and not hear it or simply ignore it, pretending it wasn’t even heard. When we do hear it and favorably respond, there are some conditions that must be met. Jesus makes it clear that once we say yes to his invitation, we must stay focused and forge ahead. We cannot keep looking behind or worry about unfinished business. There are some tasks, and discipleship is one, that require our full devotion.

There are many “masters” vying for our attention. We need something or someone to give us direction. Human nature requires it. Our motives and actions reveal what has our allegiance. It is tempting to give ourselves to masters that lure us with intriguing promises. When given the choice between a “master” that promises worldly success, abundant wealth, status, privilege, and security versus a “master” that asks for self-sacrifice, hardship, suffering, ridicule, and death, to whom do we go? While the promise of immediate pleasure is enticing, there is always a catch. For all that secular masters can promise, they always keep us looking behind, checking on ourselves, second guessing choices, calculating options, and being slaves to excessive worry. Our guard can never come down. Only one master really promises life: Jesus Christ. Hearing his call, we either trust him or we don’t.

Saying yes to following Christ does come with a risk. But it also comes with the brightness of future hopes and dreams. There is no need to keep looking behind. Sins are forgiven and regrets serve no effective purpose. God is not there. He’s moved beyond all that stuff. God is in the today and the tomorrow and what he can continually do with our daily affirmation to follow Him. All we need to do is be obedient. St. Gianna Molla is credited with saying, “The stillness of prayer is the most essential condition for fruitful action. Before all else, the disciple kneels down.” Begin with prayer. We will not only hear God’s call but find the courage to trust that He will guide us where we need to be. God uses us in the most ordinary of ways through the simple daily expression of our lives. ©LPi
