THANK YOU!

Many thanks to Our Lady's Guild, The Holy Name Society, and CYO for the purchase of the GymGuard Floor Cover, which will help protect our new gymnasium floor for years to come!

Friends at St Christopher's and Good Shepherd:

Summer is supposed to be quieter and thank God it has started off so.... it's a chance to relax, rest and regroup. It can also be a time to set priorities for the upcoming parish year ahead and with assignments and mergers it largely has been so.

I'd like all of the parish groups that we have to join us for an afternoon and evening of prayer which will help us all....not just me....set events, priorities and a vision for the year ahead. On July 16th anyone who wishes, in addition to the official organizations, is invited to a "roadmap" retreat. You'll see your "invite" in 2 pages.

It will begin (if you'd wish, with Mass at 4pm at Good Shepherd), followed by prayer, reflection and "road-mapping" for the year ahead. We'll have dinner and discuss where we would like to see the parish grow, serve, and pray better in the year ahead.

If you were baptized last week or have headed an organization for 40 years here, you are welcome! Together, we can do great things and be fruitful in what God calls us to do here not just busy or active. We'll have dinner while meeting others from the other parish and also get to know each other, listen to each other and also work out ways to move forward together.

Each Church and group, has strengths, growing edges, and experience to bring to the table. Since every one of our four "campuses" is going to be open and running in September this is a great way to appreciate each one's unique gifts and celebrate that but also see where (and if) there are avenues to collaboration. We are NOT becoming "St Christopher Shepherd of Rhine-Hook" each church (SC, GS and SJ) has an important contribution to make and mixing it all up isn't the answer at all.

Since the sale of the Brogan Center a lot has gone on up at St Christopher's (like CCD and more), and so I would like to host it at Good Shepherd because it seems like a great chance for St Christopher's folks to see and experience the parish hall there...it's lovely.

"Inreach" and "Outreach" will be our focus....growing as Jesus' followers first and then helping others to do so through the Sacraments and charity has to be our top priority. Helping others, praying for others, inviting others...must be the #1 task above all others. This meeting is ultimately about HOW we do that...please join me for a free meal, Mass and meeting on July 16th starting at 4pm. RSVP to either office so we have an idea of numbers for the food.

There are great things ahead, and with God — all things are possible!

Father Maurer
