Vacation Bible Camp

June 26, 27, 28, & 29th from 8:30-1pm
at St. Christopher's School!

Hope to see you soon Father Giorgio!

For the past three months I have been helped by one of the most aggregable and pleasant priests I've had the honor to work with. He's faithful, cheerful, and charitable.

With laws for religious workers and visas Father is returning home by law and is going to apply for a more full time stay. I hope for the day soon that he'll be back.

Please pray for him for the many priests who are in limbo because of visas and immigration laws. There are many who want to serve and we certainly need them, so pray hard.

Easter Vigil Mass

7pm St. Christopher's Gym

It'll be beautiful and will be brief enough for families and kids to attend. Sometimes people feel the Vigil is three hours...it's not. It's a profound way to celebrate Easter especially if you are looking to travel on Easter itself.

Easter at Good Shepherd

8:30am and 10:30am

(both at GS Church)

Egg Hunt after the 10:30am Mass

Easter at St Christopher's

7:45, 9:45, and 11:45am

Egg Hunt after the 9:45am

PRISON MINISTRY

GIVING HOPE TO THOSE BEHIND BARS

March will be the next meeting of the Prison Ministry Group. We use this time to pray, write letters and give hope to those who are living (rightly or wrongly) in situations that would crush most people's spirits. All are welcome to come and help. Materials provided. Please remember in your prayers all inmates, victims and their extended families.

Bard

A number of Bard students take the bus to come to St Christopher's for Mass, Adoration and even breakfasts! Please let us know who you are. We're planning a monthly "St Stephen's Society" in the Fall named for the original patron of the college which will provide community and lectures from professors and others to explore topics of Faith and Reason.

DID YOU KNOW
OUR PARISH DELIVER MEALS ON MONDAYS TO THE HOMEBOUND AND NEEDY?

The Breads Plus Program is a project of St. Christopher/Good Shepherd Parish. Each Monday morning, food which is donated by Hannaford, the Hudson Valley Food Bank, and Salvatore's Pizzeria, is delivered to needy families in the general area of Red Hook, Tivoli, and Columbia County. The food is delivered by a two-person volunteer team from the parish. Each of the seven teams take a turn every seventh Monday, and the work involves about five hours of volunteer time on each delivery run. We need helpers! If you would like to participate in this corporal work of mercy and have about five hours of time to dedicate to this cause every seventh Monday, please contact the Breads Plus Team coordinator, Mike Yannette at 914-466-4447.

CYO Basketball is entering it's final month
Please encourage the folks you know in the stands to join us in the pews. Kids on the court could also easily become kids in our religious ed program through the "Amnesty Program!" Call us to find out more...

VERITAS

Skip fall CCD for 7th-8th or above by going to Camp!

Let Mary teach you about her 7 Sorrows and the promises that are attached to this devotion. We will be listening to a retreat on this subject presented by Fr. Chad Ripperger followed by discussion. We will also learn to pray the Servite Rosary dedicated to Our Lady's Seven Sorrows. Classes will run on Mondays beginning February 20 to March 27 at 6:30 pm in St. Christopher's Parish Center, 30 Benner Road. Our Lady is inviting you to accompany her on the way to Calvary!
