JUST A THOUGHT ... FROM FR. DAN

The letter to the Hebrews tells us that our faith is meant to give a confident assurance concerning that for which we hope. It would seem that we have much in common because we all hope for happiness. The Lord tells us that He doesn't want us to live in fear. 'Wherever your treasure lies, there your heart will be.' When we allow our treasure to be the faith we have in Him, our hearts beat with His, our confidence grows strong and happiness is ours!
