JUST A THOUGHT...FROM FR. DAN

It certainly would be embarrassing if we went to a Wedding and sat at the Head Table uninvited. We would probably try to slip out through the kitchen door! Jesus is reminding us of the importance of humility. Humility doesn't mean we think less of ourselves; it means we try to believe the best of others. When we remember that all our gifts and talents come from God, we find ourselves, like Jesus, being unafraid to put others first at the service of those gifts and talents.
