JUST A THOUGHT...FROM FR. DAN
In the story of the Prodigal son, the father, toward the end of the tale, makes a path straight toward his son. The son, meanwhile, has taken on many paths, each leading him to an uncomfortable place. The Father runs a course straight to his son's heart showing him mercy, forgiveness, and love. Life can very often put us on many paths, some of which are incorrect. When we open the eyes of our hearts, we can always see our Father, Jesus' Father, beckoning us closer to Him! When we follow that path, resiliency, renewal, love, and forgiveness are always ours!

THE 24TH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

The Burning Bush

Ex 3:1-12

Listen to the Voice of Creation
SEASON OF CREATION 2022

This week we are invited to listen actively to the voice of Creation by participating in blessings both at Mass and at home. At the 10 am Mass this Sunday, we heard a blessing of the plants under the tent where our outdoor Mass took place. This blessing reminds us that we are surrounded by holy grounds as we walk through life. Holy grounds are not reserved to our parish grounds and this year we have included blessings that can be done at home. The first at home blessing is the front door. Often the entrance point for friends and guests, the front door can be one's first encounter with God on a particular day. By marking the door as holy and set apart, we are uniting ourselves to the same God who appeared to Moses in the burning bush and passed over the houses marked with the blood of the lamb on the first Passover.

Making the Sign of the Cross, the Leader says:

Leader: Our help is in the name of the Lord

All: Who made Heaven and Earth.

Leader: When Christ took flesh through the Blessed Virgin Mary, He made His home with us. Let us now pray that He will enter this home and bless it with His presence.

Here a time of silence may be observed.

A Reading from the Holy Gospel according to St. Luke:

As they continued their journey, Jesus entered a village where a woman whose name was Martha welcomed Him. She had a sister named Mary [who] sat beside the Lord at His feet listening to Him speak. Martha, burdened with much serving, came to Him and said "Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me by myself to do the serving? Tell her to help me." The Lord said to her in reply, "Martha, Martha, you are anxious and worried about many things. There is need of only one thing. Mary has chosen the better part and it will not be taken from her."

Thus are the words of the Holy Gospel.

With hands together, the Leader says:

Let us pray,

O God, You are never far away. Again and again, You reveal Your presence among us. Look with favor on our guests and all who will walk through this doorway. May those who dwell in this house open our eyes to the mystery of Your Love and grace. Like Martha and Mary welcomed Jesus, may we prepare our hearts to receive guests, to serve them with the heart of Martha, and to listen to them with the heart of Mary.

May those who enter through this doorway be with us a mirror of the relationship that You have with Your people. As Abraham and Sarah were visited by Your angels, so too we ask You to visit us and our guests.

And, when it is time for your holy pilgrims to depart from us, keep them safe in their travels and bless the home to which they return.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ Your Son, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, God forever and ever.

All: Amen

The Leader, or another present, taking Holy Water sprinkles the doorposts and door of the house (both inside and outside).

Optional: A cross or icon is kissed by each person, and put in a place of honor by the door. A lighted candle may be placed before it.
