Easter Sunday

In the Greek/Eastern Orthodox Church, it is common to greet one another with the "Paschal Greeting" after Easter day. One person says: "Χριστός ἀνέστη!" (Khristós anésti!) and the other responds, "Ἀληθῶς ἀνέστη!" (Alithós anésti!). It means: "Christ is risen!" "Truly He is risen!" Today we make that proclamation with great joy from the depths of our hearts. Make that proclamation to your children, neighbors, co-workers, and family members. Bring the good news to others like Mary Magdalene did to the apostles. Surprise them, shock them, let them think you are delusional or drunk. Invite them to come and see the joy of the Resurrection. Tell them the story of faith. Give them hope.

In the United States Easter has been hijacked by rabbits and pastel colored eggs. Even as a child, I always thought this was kind of lame. It's cute until the time you are about 6, then after that, celebrating Easter becomes like a 'half Christmas' because the presents aren't as great.

Enjoy the rabbits and the egg hunts, (they are cute after all), but don't lose sight of how important Easter is for us. The story of Christ's passion and Resurrection should be embedded into our hearts as central to our life of faith. It is not a spiritual thing, it is not a fairytale, or folklore. Jesus truly rose from the dead. He truly bore our sufferings with Him on the Cross. He obliterated death and sin by becoming death and sin and conquering them. He is the victor of victors who has opened up the gates of new life and resurrection for us. Christ is risen, truly He is Risen: Happy Easter!

God Bless,
Fr. Joseph

En la Iglesia Ortodoxa Griega/Oriental, es común saludarse con el "Saludo Pascual" después del día de Pascua. Una persona dice: "Χριστός ἀνέστη!" (¡Khristós anésti!) Y el otro responde, "Ἀληθῶς ἀνέστη!" (¡Alithós anésti!). Significa: "¡Cristo ha resucitado!" "¡Verdaderamente ha resucitado!" Hoy hacemos ese anuncio con gran alegría desde lo más profundo de nuestro corazón. Haga esa proclamación a sus hijos, vecinos, compañeros de trabajo y familiares. Lleve las buenas nuevas a otros como lo hizo María Magdalena con los apóstoles. Sorpréndalos, escúchelos, déjeles pensar que está delirando o borracho. Invítelos a venir y ver el gozo de la Resurrección. Cuénteles la historia de la fe. Dale esperanza.

En los Estados Unidos, la Pascua ha sido secuestrada por conejos y huevos de colores pastel. Incluso cuando era niño, siempre pensé que esto era un poco tonto. Es lindo hasta que tienes alrededor de 6 años, luego, después de eso, celebrar la Pascua se convierte en una "media Navidad" porque los regalos no son tan buenos.

Disfruta de los conejos y la caza de huevos (después de todo, si son lindos), pero no pierdas de vista lo importante que es la Pascua para nosotros. La historia de la pasión y resurrección de Cristo debe incrustarse en nuestro corazón como elemento central de nuestra vida de fe. No es una cosa espiritual, no es un cuento de hadas o folklore. Jesús verdaderamente resucitó de entre los muertos. Él verdaderamente llevó nuestros sufrimientos con Él en la Cruz. Él borró la muerte y el pecado convirtiéndose en muerte y pecado y conquistándolos. Él es el vencedor de los vencedores que nos ha abierto las puertas de nueva vida y resurrección. Cristo ha resucitado, verdaderamente ha resucitado: ¡Feliz Pascua de Resurrección!

Dios les Bendiga,
P. Joseph
