PARISH MISSION

Our Lady of Fatima and Immaculate Conception Parish is a Catholic faith community called by God to holiness. Our calling is realized in a spirit of love, unity and hospitality. As a faith community, we will deepen our knowledge and love of God in Christ. We will seek to contribute our time, talent and other resources in a spirit of service based on our Baptismal commitment, founded on the Word of God and celebrated in sacramental life, especially Eucharist.

Catholic Trivia

Question: Where did three children witness six apparitions of Mary, Mother of God in 1917? Answer:

Lenten Book Discussion Series

Facilitated by Mae Edwards

Due to the positive feedback from participants in our book discussion series this past December, we will be hosting another book discussion series during Lent. So, here is another opportunity to engage in wonderful conversation, honest faith sharing and building community with one another.

We will be reading and discussing The Holy Longing by Ronald Rolheiser, who writes, “It is not an easy time to be a Christian, especially if you are also trying to pass your faith on to your own children... Hopefully this book will, in the midst of all this, help make the things of faith a little clearer, a little more acceptable, and a whole lot more hopeful.”

Once again, we will offer an afternoon session—Monday 3:30-4:30pm and Tuesday evenings 6:30-7:30pm. Sessions will begin March 17th and 18th and run through April 7th and 8th

We will order copies of the book and ask that you kindly sign up through Flocknote or contact the rectory office no later than February 21st to reserve your copy—thank you!

There is no charge to participate in these Lenten sessions but we are most grateful for any donation given to offset the cost of books and materials.

We look forward to sharing a powerful Lenten experience with you as we delve into and discuss, The Holy Longing.
