BIBLE STUDY ~ Come and See

You are invited to come and study the New Testament book of Hebrews. This Epistle is considered one of the most beautifully written and theologically dense in sacred scripture. It aids us to understand who God is, what He has done for us and how we are called to live as Christians today. We will meet in the OLF Lower Meeting Room on Tuesdays from September 9 thru October 14, 2025 from 2-4 pm. Questions—please contact Carrie Richters at: carrierichters@gmail.com or by telephone at 603-526-7795. Thank you in advance—see you there.

TAKE FIVE

Do we recognize the Jesus who says, “If anyone comes to me without hating his father and mother, wife and children, he cannot be my disciple”? The words seem harsh in comparison to the soothing invitation of the Good Shepherd. Not to worry—Jesus is not insisting we abandon family or become homeless in order to follow him. But Jesus is saying, without doubt, that nothing—no thing and no one—can become so central in life that it interferes with doing God’s will to love God and love your neighbor as yourself by being just, showing mercy, and walking with God. Jesus’ call is “do as I do. Love as I love, hold nothing back. Do this in remembrance of me.”
